Rapt in Plaid Elizabeth Waterston,2003-12-01 Illustrate a long lasting connection between Scottish and Canadian literary traditions and illuminates the way Scottish ideas and values still wield surprising power in Canadian politics education theology economics and social mores Lost in the Barrens Lit Link Gr. 7-8 , Lost in the Backyard Alison Hughes,2015-04-01 Flynn hates the outdoors Always has He barely pays attention in his Outdoor Ed class He has no interest in doing a book report on Lost in the Barrens He doesn t understand why anybody would want to go hiking or camping But when he gets lost in the wilderness behind his parents friends house it s surprising what he remembers insulate your clothes with leaves eat snow to stay hydrated build a shelter eat lichen and how hopelessly inept he is at survival techniques

Unsettled Remains Cynthia Sugars,Gerry Turcotte,2010-08-27 Unsettled Remains Canadian Literature and the Postcolonial Gothic examines how Canadian writers have combined a postcolonial awareness with gothic metaphors of monstrosity and haunting in their response to Canadian history The essays gathered here range from treatments of early postcolonial gothic expression in Canadian literature to attempts to define a Canadian postcolonial gothic mode Many of these texts wrestle with Canada s colonial past and with the voices and histories that were repressed in the push for national consolidation but emerge now as uncanny reminders of that contentious history The haunting effect can be unsettling and enabling at the same time In recent years many Canadian authors have turned to the gothic to challenge dominant literary political and social narratives In Canadian literature the postcolonial gothic has been put to multiple uses above all to figure experiences of ambivalence that have emerged from a colonial context and persisted into the present. As these essays demonstrate, formulations of a Canadian postcolonial gothic differ radically from one another depending on the social and cultural positioning of who is positing it. Given the preponderance in colonial discourse of accounts that demonize otherness, it is not surprising that many minority writers have avoided gothic metaphors. In recent years, however, minority authors have shown an interest in the gothic, signalling an emerging critical discourse. This spectral turn sees minority writers reversing long-standing characterizations of their identity as monstrous or invisible in order to show their connections to and disconnection from stories of the nation.

The Governor General's Literary Awards of Canada Andrew David Irvine, 2018-11-27. The definitive bibliography of Canada's Governor General's Literary Awards. Alice Munro, Michael Ondaatje, Margaret Atwood, Antonine Maillet, Carol Shields, Marie-Claire Blais, Gilles Vigneault. For over three quarters of a century, the Governor General's Literary Awards have been instrumental in recognizing many of Canada's best authors, illustrators, and translators. The result is impressive: between 1936 and 2017, 705 titles have been recognized with this prestigious award. With careful attention to detail, Andrew Irvine presents the history and evolution of the Awards and extols their importance for the careers of authors, illustrators, and translators, as well as for the development of Canada's national literature. The heart of the book contains the first comprehensive bibliography of the awards, including the first list of winning books organized according to their historically correct award categories, information about five books wrongly omitted from previous lists of winning titles, detailed information about award ceremonies, film adaptations, and jury members, and other key information. This is a seminal work that belongs on the shelf of every scholar and every lover of Canadian literature. This book is published in English: Une bibliographie incontournable des Prix littéraires du Gouverneur général du Canada. Alice Munro, Margaret Atwood, Antonine Maillet, Carol Shields, Marie-Claire Blais, Michael Ondaatje, Gilles Vigneault. Les écrivains canadiens sont depuis longtemps encensés sur la scène nationale comme l'échelle mondiale, et les Prix du Gouverneur général jouent un rôle clé dans la reconnaissance de certains de nos meilleurs auteurs, illustrateurs et traducteurs. La liste est impressionnante: ce prestigieux prix a récompensé 705 œuvres entre 1936 et 2017. Avec un souci minutieux au détail, Andrew Irvine présente l'histoire et l'évolution des Prix et vante leurs vertus indispensables: la carrière des écrivains et des traducteurs, ainsi que dans la laboration d'une littérature nationale au Canada. Cette bibliographie est la toute première recension complète des Prix littéraires du Gouverneur général et donne des renseignements détaillés au sujet des cérémonies, des adaptations cinématographiques, des membres des jurys, ainsi que d'autres informations clés. Le livre présente aussi une copie exhaustive et exacte de données bibliographiques tirées d'archives, une première dans le monde de l'édition. En somme, une référence incontournable. Ce livre est publié en anglais.

Creative Canada, 1972-12-15. Did he ever play Hamlet? Has she worked in television? What was the title of his first novel? Under whom did she study? How many children has he? Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult, even impossible to find. This series has been created to provide the answers it covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists authors of imaginative works artists and sculptors musicians performers composers conductors and directors and performing artists in ballet modern dance radio theatre television and motion pictures directors designers and producers in theatre cinema radio television and the dance choreographers and for cinema cartoonists and animators Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally nationally or internationally This is not a critical compilation rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible
