Linenthal,2003-05-01 On April 19 1995 the bombing of the Alfred P Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City shook the nation destroying our complacent sense of safety and sending a community into a tailspin of shock grief and bewilderment Almost as difficult as the bombing itself has been the aftermath its legacy for Oklahoma City and for the nation and the struggle to recover from this unprecedented attack In The Unfinished Bombing Edward T Linenthal explores the many ways Oklahomans and other Americans have tried to grapple with this catastrophe Working with exclusive access to materials gathered by the Oklahoma City National Memorial Archive and drawing from over 150 personal interviews with family members of those murdered survivors rescuers and many others Linenthal looks at how the bombing threatened cherished ideas about American innocence sparked national debate on how to respond to terrorism at home and abroad and engendered a new bereaved community in Oklahoma City itself Linenthal examines how different stories about the bombing were told through positive narratives of civic renewal and of religious redemption and more negative narratives of toxicity and trauma He writes about the extraordinary bonds of affection that were created in the wake of the bombing acts of kindness empathy and compassion that existed alongside the toxic legacy of the event The Unfinished Bombing offers a compelling look at both the individual and the larger cultural consequences of one of the most searing events in recent American history Life of Adolph Spaeth, D.D., LL.D. ... Harriett Reynolds Krauth Spaeth, 1916 Life of Adolph Spaeth D D LL D Told in His Own Reminiscences His Letters and the Recollections of His Family and Friends by Harriett Reynolds Krauth Spaeth first published in 1916 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it The Littlest Angel Diane Leslie, Joseph Robinette, 1994 Hoping for a Miracle Lynn-Marie McIlvain, 2025-07-30 Hoping For a Miracle is the true story of Lynn Marie an aspiring teacher as she embarks on a ten year journey to become a mother She faces heartache and uncertainty along the way At times loneliness and devastation are hard to bear Despite the hardships she tries her best to remain optimistic When she deals with the emotional roller coaster of trying each month she hopes for a miracle every time When Lynn Marie finally succeeds in getting pregnant she wonders if her dreams of baby wishes will be answered Through advocacy and the connection of other women she finds comfort and hope This is a heartbreaking tale that shows that life as we imagine it is not always like the fairy tale we heard growing up Sometimes there will be trials and tribulations along the way and the things we go through can have a long lasting impact
