The Lost Paradise Janice F. Keilholtz, 2014-09-29 Way back when in 1963 and then again in 1969 two baby girls were born to Janice Keilholtz Landis and Wesley Landis While raising the two of us they attempted to teach us many life lessons One of the more important ones being trust The others being love and respect and so on Janice and Wes truly loved respected and trusted each other My sister and I witnessed this on a daily basis while growing up Anyone who knew or met them could see it right away However I didnt know that the true lessons of love respect and most of all trust were taught to us more not in life but in death The death of our mother Janice Keilholtz Landis Now when Mom was alive she had a box It was her box My sister and I had no knowledge of this box Dad knew of the box but not of the contents Mom had told him This is my box and you dont look in it And you know he ever did That is until she passed away Then when he was cleaning out a closet he came across the box When he opened it he discovered scrapbooks she had put together In one of them he found several poems she had written one of which was all the way back when she was in sixth grade She kept all of these a secret We had no idea she had written any of them She loved respected but most of all trusted our dad to not look in the box and he never did until her death As we read through them we found they were too beautiful to be kept a secret anymore and wanted to share them with everyone We hope you will enjoy them as much as we do Wesley Landis Leann Landis Weaver and Jennifer Landis Wootten

Adam Speaks: How I Lost Paradise Adam Pro, 2010-08-18 Adam speaks The story of Adam and Eve is known throughout the world It is a tale passed down through the beginning of humanity that is believed by Christians Jews and Muslims alike There isn t much to it other than the creation of man and woman and the loss of paradise attributed to their disobedience in biting an apple from a forbidden tree This book gives a detailed portrayal of the familiar story from the perspective of Adam It tells of the relationship Adam had with God before and after Eve was created and before and after the fall as well As a consequence to Adam s sin he is doomed to live many lives to witness the effect it has on mankind throughout history to the present day Adam narrates significant events of history such as the fall of Satan the first murder the great flood and the origins of the Jewish Christian and Muslim nations Along the way he explains mysteries like creation evolution giants dinosaurs reincarnation and the spiritual laws that control the universe As Adam tells his story he produces a scathing diatribe directed at organized religion with the passion only the one and only original man can muster This story is thought provoking and entertaining and should appeal to fans of fiction and non fiction believers non believers and lovers of philosophy

The Myth of the Lost Paradise in the Novels of Jacques Poulin Paul Socken, 1993 Socken analyzes the shape and direction of Poulin s creation narratives as they evolve in the novels and demonstrates their presence from the earliest quasi political Un cheval pour mon royaume to the highly introspective Le Vieux Chagrin The novels move from an outer directed concept of the lost paradise as a state to be attained beyond the self to a sense of the lost paradise as the kingdom within achievable first on the individual level as self knowledge and only afterwards on the social level Poulin introduces the theme of the soul and his personal concept of it as the soul for him is proof of the inner life that embodies the qualities of tranquility and tenderness associated with the lost paradise Lost paradise literature is universal and timeless Poulin's portrayal is placed in historical context so that his contribution to the genre can be fully appreciated Referring to studies by such critics as Mircea Eliade Northrop Frye Jerome S Bruner and Jack J Lost Paradise (CD). commercial culture and counterculture Milton in the Arab-Muslim World Islam Issa, 2016-10-14 The first full length study of the reception of John Milton's 1608-74 writings in the Arab Muslim world this book examines the responses of Arab Muslim readers to Milton's works and in particular to his epic poem Paradise Lost. It contributes to knowledge of the history, development and ways in which early modern writings are read and understood by Muslims. By mapping the literary and more broadly cultural consequences of the censure, translation and abridgement of Milton's works in the Arab Muslim world, this book analyses the diverse ways in which Arab Muslims read and understand a range of literary and religious aspects of Milton's writing in light of cultural, theological, socio-political, linguistic and translational issues. After providing an overview of the presence of Milton and his works in the Arab world, each chapter sheds light on how cultural and translational issues shape the ways in which Arab Muslim readers perceive and understand the characters and motifs of Paradise Lost. Chapters outline the ways in which the figures are currently understood in Milton scholarship before exploring how they fit into the narrative, drama and theology of the poem and their position in Islamic creed and Arab Muslim culture. Concurrently, each chapter examines the poem's subject matter in detail, placing particular emphasis on matters of linguistic, theological and cultural translation and accommodation. Chapter conclusions not only summarise the patterns and potentialities of reception but point towards the practical functions of Arab Muslim responses to Milton's writing and their contribution to the formation of social ideas.

The Arab Nahda as Popular Entertainment, 2023-11-16 What was popular entertainment like for everyday Arab societies in Middle Eastern cities during the long nineteenth century? In what ways did caf culture, theatre, illustrated periodicals, cinema, cabarets and festivals serve as key forms of popular entertainment for Arabic speaking audiences, many of whom were uneducated and striving to contend with modernity's anxiety-inducing realities? Studies on the 19th to mid-20th century's transformative cultural movement known as the Arab nahda renaissance have largely focussed on concerns with nationalism, secularism and language, often told from the perspective of privileged groups. Highlighting overlooked aspects of this movement, this book shifts the focus away from elite circles to quotidian audiences. Its ten contributions range in scope from music and visual media to theatre and popular fiction. Paying special attention to networks of movement and exchange across Arab societies in Lebanon, Syria, Egypt, Iraq and Morocco, this book heeds the call for translocal, transnational cultural histories while contributing to timely global studies on gender, sexuality and morality. Focusing on the often marginalized frequenters of caf's, artist studios, cinemas, nightclubs and the streets, it expands the remit of who participated in the nahda and how they did.
