Lost Treasures On The Old Spanish Trail:

Lost Treasures on the Old Spanish Trail George A. Thompson, 1987-02 The Old Spanish Trail was a pathway with but one purpose to lead followers to the legendary land of Cibola and its immeasurable treasures of silver and gold Lost Treasures of the Spanish Trail takes readers through the history of the trail and its surrounding lands from the arrival of Spanish conquistadors and the treasures of Montezuma through its expansion northward to the traces of the trail that can still be found today worn deeply into soft sandstone perhaps still leading to the hidden treasures that inspire legends The San Rafael Swell Emery County Archives, 2008 The San Rafael Swell is an anticline or a geological uplift that originally looked like an oval bowl turned upside down Over time it has been carved into castle like formations and deep canyons by erosive conditions This landscape seemed so formidable to early cartographers that it was the last area in the continental United States to be mapped The San Rafael Swell itself has no permanent human inhabitants but small towns are scattered along its northern and eastern borders where first American Indians and later cowboys ranchers and miners made their homes The hardy settlers of these towns familiarized themselves with what they called the Desert and gradually discovered its treasures and its secrets
