Klein, Monica Taylor, 2022-12-29 2024 SPE Outstanding Book Award Honorable Mention Our Bodies Tell the Story Using Feminist Research and Friendship to Reimagine Education and Our Lives asks and answers a number of critical questions that are key to improving our educational system How can we use our embodied stories to navigate and disrupt how schools and society reproduce the patriarchy and heteronormativity within our institutions of learning How do we transgress oppressive boundaries boundaries cultivated by the patriarchy that have been perpetuated at home within school outside of school in university settings and in communities that permit our dehumanization and exclusion As teachers professors and teacher educators how do we navigate our students trauma when we are navigating the re ignition of our own This book sets out to tell the story of how the authors have tried to answer these questions in their lives and work It is the story of a friendship a partnership a narrative retelling of their becoming as girls teenagers women teachers wives daughters scholars and mothers From the earliest memories of their gendered and sexualized childhoods to the present navigation of sexism heteronormativity and trauma in the context of teaching and schools these stories reside in their bodies They recall

construct and reexamine emerging from their dialogues from talking face to face to email to FB messenger poetry and text Our Bodies Tell the Story centers around the co autoethnography of personal narratives stories and a kind of survival testimonies the ways in which the authors bore witness to each other s lives The book extensively uses co autoethnography as a self study feminist research methodology that takes autoethnography a form of self representation that complicates cultural norms by seeing autobiography as implicated in larger cultural processes Taylor Coia 2006 p 278 and moves it beyond the singular to the plural Using this methodology enables the authors to interweave their stories through dialogue so that validity insight and analysis all emerge in the text The book investigates the self within the social context of personal relationships as well as the larger society Creating a co autoethnography is a rich multi layered endeavor because it is not conducted in a vacuum As such it is an important book for faculty and researchers involved in a number of disciplines including auto ethnographic research gender studies women s studies feminist studies qualitative research and many other areas of study Perfect for courses such as Gender and Education Public Purposes of Schooling Introduction to Gender Sexuality and Women s Studies Critical Feminisms in Teacher Education Gender Issues in Teacher Education Shaped by Stories Marshall Gregory,1997-09-01 In his latest book Marshall Gregory begins with the premise that our lives are saturated with stories ranging from magazines books films television and blogs to the words spoken by politicians pastors and teachers He then explores the ethical implication of this nearly universal human obsession with narratives Through careful readings of Katherine Anne Porter s The Graveyard Book and Thurber s The Catbird Seat as well as David Copperfield and Wuthering Heights Gregory asks and answers the question How do the stories we absorb in our daily lives influence the kinds of persons we turn out to be Shaped by Stories is accessible to anyone interested in ethics popular culture and education It will encourage students and teachers to become more thoughtful and perceptive readers of stories Self-Giving Love Dean Flemming,2021-01-27 Have this mind among yourselves Everyone needs examples We all need mentors we admire and after whom we can pattern our lives Without them we will not mature Philippians is a letter full of good examples Paul Epaphroditus and Timothy are all portrayed as exemplars But none is more important than Jesus himself In Self Giving Love Dean Flemming shows how Jesus and the story of his self emptying love are the very heart of Philippians This ultimate example provides a lens for clearly seeing the rest of the letter By emulating Jesus radical love we will become mature foster unity and find joy Self Giving Love presents the message and themes of Philippians in a concise and accessible guide with probing questions for reflection and discussion Shaped by the Story Michael Novelli,2013-10-15 After more than a decade in youth ministry Michael Novelli felt like he d tried everything to connect his students to the Bible Then a missionary introduced him to the art of Bible storying an imaginative way to engage in the scriptures through storytelling creative reflection and dialogue He soon discovered that Bible storying was not only an effective teaching approach but a powerful way to awaken people to new purpose and identity rooted in the biblical narrative In 2012 Michael partnered with sparkhouse to create Echo the Story

Nussbaum,1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum's published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements Read On...History Tina Frolund,2013-10-21 Make history come alive This book helps librarians and teachers as well as readers themselves find books they will enjoy titles that will animate and explain the past entertain and expand their minds This invaluable resource offers reading lists of contemporary and classic non fiction history books and historical fiction covering all time periods throughout the world and including practically all manner of human endeavors Every book included is hand selected as an entertaining and enlightening read Organized by appealing characteristics this book will help readers zero in on the history books they will like best for instance titles that emphasize character tell a specific type of historical story convey a mood or are presented in a particular setting Every book listed has been recommended based on the author's research and has proved to be a satisfying and worthwhile read Ryken's Bible Handbook Leland Ryken,Philip Ryken,James Wilhoit,2005 Three authors help shed light on understanding the Bible not just as the inspired work of God but also looking at the different genres that make up the Bible's books poetry historical narrative wisdom literature story parables and more Primitive Love and Love-stories Henry T.
