A. Midson,2020-06-25 This volume explores love in the context of today s technologies It is difficult to separate love from romanticist ideals of authenticity intimacy and depth of relationship These ideals resonate with theological models of love that highlight the way God benevolently created the world and continues to love it Technologies which are designed in response to our desires do not necessarily enjoy this romanticist resonance and yet they are now remodelling the world Are technologies then antithetical to love In this volume leading theologians have brought together themes of theology technology and love for the first time exploring different areas where notions of love and technology are problematized In a world where algorithms and artificial intelligences interact with us and shape our lives in ever more intricate and even intimate ways we might feel attachments to and through machines that suggest sentiments of love while also changing how we think about love Does love always have to be reciprocal How can we enact love and care for others with technologies Whose desires do technologies serve consumers corporations creatures This volume offers a systematic review of the challenges of living in a technologically saturated world by means of critical application of as well as reflection on theological discussions about love      Gifts, Romance, and Consumer Culture Yuko Minowa,Russell W. Belk,2018-09-05 How do people communicate their romantic feelings Gift giving is one way Giving and receiving of gifts is a characteristic of intimate relationships Gifts are a message a form of communication with a tangible material object about love affection or concern for the recipient The romantic gift evokes a multitude of intertwined meanings passion intimacy affection persuasion care celebration altruism and nostalgia They can also connote the negative images of obligation and reciprocity Romantic gift giving may be practiced at rituals during rites of passage or for casual occasions to affirm the continued importance of the romantic relationship We may even romanticize the giving of gifts to the self to nonhuman companions and to others we do not know personally If loving and giving are a practice then romantic gift giving is a practice of loving with intimate or would be intimate others This book addresses gift giving among consumers attempting to express and construct romantic love It lies at the intersection of consumption markets and culture In societies shaped by the globalizing neo liberal economic order increasing wealth disparity and a partially digitized social environment that they help to co construct it may be time to rethink romantic love Gift giving is a key arena to do so as gifts make love tangible and act as carriers of meaning as well as cultural symbols In gift giving the meanings of romance are renewed renegotiated and reconstructed Gifts Romance And Consumer Culture demonstrates a wide variety of scholarly work bearing on romantic gift giving using an interpretive consumer research perspective The book introduces critical studies by scholars in this unfolding and new interdisciplinary field

Shaver,2010-01-04 The concluding chapter reflects on the key issues addressed considers the deeper philosophical implications of current work in the field and identifies pivotal directions for future investigation BOOK JACKET Sex, Love, and Marriage in the 21st Century Robert T. Francoeur,Martha Cornog,Timothy Perper,1999 Love sex and marriage are changing faster than ever before in human history The current tidal wave of social changes will continue into the next century and we will have to adapt our sexual values and relationships to these accelerating changes These 22 honest authentic stories tell of the unconventional paths pioneering church leaders and spiritually aware women and men have taken in their quest to link their sexuality with their spiritual needs Some might see in these unorthodox explorations only tales of promiscuous couplings But these are not stories of wild thrill seekers These are tales told from the core of their being about their deeply felt need for genuine responsible love and intimacy within a spiritual context Their journeys do not promise paradise or instant happiness as popular magazines do with recipes for lifelong marital bliss and fiery passion These sojourners have much to teach us even when we decide that this or that path is not for us Their individual paths are not nearly as important as the simple message of God and Eros being inseparable that underlies journey God and Eros can come together in many different relationships And they must come together if we want to nourish and fulfill the divine spark at the core of our being These women and men challenge our assumptions and our willingness to adapt to our radically changing world
