Laurel and Thorn Robert J. Higgs, 2014-07-15 To examine the social and cultural significance of the athlete hero in American literature Robert J Higgs turns to the works of Ring Lardner Ernest Hemingway F Scott Fitzgerald Thomas Wolfe William Faulkner Robert Penn Warren Arthur Miller and Tennessee Williams Higgs views the athlete in literature not as an artistic creation but as one who reflects the tastes attainments beliefs and ideals of his society The athletes he describes as Apollonian are the know it alls of whom Lardner s Bushy Keefe is an example the Dionysian as exemplified by Irwin Shaw s Christian Darling worships his body as an end in itself The Adonic seeks knowledge for the sake of self realization and lives in a world of tension pain struggle and hope Such a figure is Wolfe s Nebraska Crane Higgs finds in contemporary American literature a clear rejection of the Apollonian and Dionysian models and an acceptance of the Adonic Highways and Byways in Lincolnshire

Shakespeare Award of Excellence recipient The Love Scrolls Seven The Love Scrolls is an epic to literally sweep you off of your feet I love therefore I m forever As Shakespeare shall write of his kings so I shall write of mine We shall cover the ground with love s growth and upon the earth with love s tree we shall sod Spreading its fruit in abundance unto a lover unto our brother unto each other and unto God Shore up your works with faith and love guild For these are the only eternal substances from which mankind is allowed to build Cover artist April Sampson Graphic artist Tate Krupa Spiritual Culture in the Corporate Drama Nagam Atthreya,2003 In poetic style in novel easy reading format the author commends to the corporate personnel two reality based cultures the stage culture and the spiritual culture With these cultures he deduces that role excellence becomes a joy and corporate well being a certainty Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum,1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum s published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements The Different Facets of Love Thérèse Nyetam,2013-06-14 Why speak about love in all its facets Love is a diamondwe cannot fathom its depths By a combination of all its facets we hope to reach a vision of true love I realize that all people are looking for love so they can say life is beautiful Love appears in different forms different versions different ages and different cultures It is present everywhere but transparent like wind and water Could it be an element of nature that feeds us daily Everybody knows that when we fall in love we just need fresh water to survive Love is the word we use the most to express a feeling of satisfaction We use it more to express our personal sensations than those inspired in somebody else This is not our fault we are taught growing up to hide our feelings and say things halfway so as not to shock Thats what it means to live in community Society attempts to control people who have chosen to live inside itto control loveby imposing rules that restrict behavior Sex is one of its priorities In the olden days homosexuality was a normal sexual behavior it was tolerated At the time of Kings incest was accepted Each period imposes sexual taboos and as a consequence nowadays we live with so many taboos we dont understand them in depth To my mind taboos are designed to manage the general interest and safeguard society I also think that they have to arise themselves from a loving sentiment
