Action Cinema Since 2000 Chris Holmlund,Lisa Purse,Yvonne Tasker,2024-05-16 Action Cinema Since 2000 addresses an increasingly lively and evolving field of scholarship probing the definition and testing the potential of action cinema to reframe the mode for the 21st century Contributors examine a broad range of content from blockbusters to smaller independent films originating from China Korea India France the USA and Mexico Ranging from JSA Joint Security Area Gondonggeonygbi guyeok 2000 to Polite Society 2023 they consider the changing modes of action cinema with streaming assuming global importance and an ever increasing number of generic blends They consider under explored areas of action film particularly how race ethnicity gender and age figure in narratives and through image and soundtracks Overall the book demonstrates how 21st century action cinema engages with and reflects geopolitical creative and industrial developments Contributors argue that it continues to offer fantasies of empowerment and mobility that say much about how power is understood in diverse contexts today

The Bible in Crime Fiction and Drama Caroline Blyth, Alison Jack, 2019-01-24 The Bible has always enjoyed notoriety within the genres of crime fiction and drama numerous authors have explicitly drawn on biblical traditions as thematic foci to explore social anxieties about violence religion and the search for justice and truth The Bible in Crime Fiction and Drama brings together a multi disciplinary scholarship from the fields of biblical interpretation literary criticism criminology and studies in film and television to discuss international texts and media spanning the beginning of the 20th century to the present day The volume concludes with an afterword by crime writer and academic Liam McIvanney These essays explore both explicit and implicit engagements between biblical texts and crime narratives analysing the multiple layers of meaning that such engagements can produce cross referencing Sherlock Holmes with the murder mystery in the Book of Tobit observing biblical violence through the eyes of Christian fundamentalists in Henning Mankell s Before the Frost catching the thread of homily in the serial murders of Se7en or analysing biblical sexual violence in light of television crime procedurals The contributors also raise intriguing questions about the significance of the Bible as a religious and cultural text its association with the culturally pervasive themes of violence im morality and redemption and its relevance as a symbol of the often fraught location that religion occupies within contemporary secular culture Australian National Bibliography ,1996-12

Remaking Gender and the Family Sarah Woodland, 2018-06-05 In Remaking Gender and the Family Sarah Woodland examines the complexities of Chinese language cinematic remakes With a particular focus on how changes in representations of gender and the family between two versions of the same film connect with perceived socio cultural political and cinematic values within Chinese society Woodland explores how source texts are reshaped for their new audiences In this book she conducts a comparative analysis of two pairs of intercultural and two pairs of intracultural films each chapter highlighting a different dimension of remakes and illustrating how changes in gender representations can highlight not just differences in attitudes towards gender across cultures but also broader concerns relating to culture genre auteurism politics and temporality

Religion, Politics and Society in Britain, 800-1066 A E Redgate, 2014-03-05 Using a comparative and broad perspective Religion Politics and Society in Britain 800 1066 draws on archaeology art history material culture texts from charms to chronicles from royal law codes to sermons to poems and other evidence to demonstrate the centrality of Christianity and the Church in Britain 800 1066 It delineates their contributions to the changes in politics economy society and culture that occurred between 800 and 1066 from nation building to practicalities of government to landscape The period 800 1066 saw the beginnings of a fundamental restructuring of politics society and economy throughout Christian Europe in which religion played a central role In Britain too the interaction of religion with politics and society was profound and pervasive There was no part of life which Christianity and the Church did not touch they affected belief thought and behaviour at all levels of society This book points out interconnections within society and between archaeological art historical and literary evidence and similarities between aspects of culture not only within Britain but also in comparison with Armenian Christendom A E Redgate explores the importance of religious ideas institutions personnel and practices in the creation and expression of identities and communities the structure and functioning of society and the life of the individual This book will be essential reading for students of early medieval Britain and religious and social history
