Herman, Noam Chomsky, 2002-01-15 A compelling indictment of the news media's role in covering up errors and deceptions The New York Times Book Review due to the underlying economics of publishing from famed scholars Edward S. Herman and Noam Chomsky With a new introduction In this pathbreaking work Edward S. Herman and Noam Chomsky show that contrary to the usual image of the news media as cantankerous obstinate and ubiquitous in their search for truth and defense of justice in their actual practice they defend the economic social and political agendas of the privileged groups that dominate domestic society the state and the global order Based on a series of case studies including the media's dichotomous treatment of worthy versus unworthy victims legitimizing and meaningless Third World elections and devastating critiques of media coverage of the U.S. wars against Indochina Herman and Chomsky draw on decades of criticism and research to propose a Propaganda Model to explain the media's behavior and performance Their new introduction updates the Propaganda Model and the earlier case studies and it discusses several other applications These include the manner in which the media covered the passage of the North American Free Trade Agreement and subsequent Mexican financial meltdown of 1994-1995 the media's handling of the protests against the World Trade Organization World Bank and International Monetary Fund in 1999 and 2000 and the media's treatment of the chemical industry and its regulation What emerges from this work is a powerful assessment of how propagandistic the U.S. mass media are how they systematically fail to live up to their self image as providers of the kind of information that people need to make sense of the world and how we can understand their function in a radically new way Manufacturing Consent Herman/Chomsky, 2010-03-11 SUMMARY -

Herman And Noam Chomsky Shortcut Edition, 2021-06-05 Our summary is short simple and pragmatic It allows you to have the essential ideas of a big book in less than 30 minutes As you read this summary you will learn that the media condition us and that propaganda most often replaces information You will also learn that in our democracies consent to political decisions is largely manufactured or conditioned by the media that implacable censorship exists contrary to what the dominant discourse suggests that this censorship is much more subtle than a simple frontal and open ban since it functions largely in the mode of self censorship that for the media there are good and bad victims each receiving different treatment that political elections in developing countries are also subject to manipulation in media reporting that outright disinformation sometimes replaces information Power and money and they alone select the information in our democracies that is deemed suitable for disclosure to the good people It is through the media the main ones belonging to very large groups whose financial strength impresses that this real propaganda is carried out Their role is to send messages and symbols to the population In doing so the media inculcate in the mass of citizens the beliefs and behaviors that are deemed socially acceptable and desirable by the ruling elites In this way for individuals integration into the wider society with its overriding economic imperatives becomes possible Buy now the summary of this book for the modest price of a cup of coffee
