

The background of the image shows the interior of a church. In the foreground, several rows of light-colored wooden pews are visible, receding into the distance. At the far end of the church, a large, colorful stained glass window is partially visible, though slightly out of focus. The overall lighting is soft and warm, creating a peaceful atmosphere.

Internal Revenue Service, 2001 What Happens at Mass Jeremy Driscoll, 2011 Multidimensional Peacebuilding Wendy Kroeker, 2021-01-15 Attentive to intersecting issues of colonialism political marginalization and ethnic diversity this book examines the crucial role that local actors play in working towards sustainable peace in Mindanao Philippines Interviewees include both those involved in the formal peace process between the Bangsamoro people and the government of the Philippines as well as those who have worked more broadly in building a local culture of peace through activities such as education dialogues awareness building or social reconciliation This book provides provocative insights for multidimensional peacebuilding strategies in conflict impacted communities regions and nations Cultural Wars in American Politics Rhys H. Williams, That contemporary American politics is divided into two differing ideological moral and lifestyle groups a divide so severe as to constitute a cultural war is a widely held popular belief The most systematic academic version of the culture wars claim has appeared in two influential books by sociologist James Davison Hunter the earlier dating from 1991 Hunter's formulation of the myth serves the contributors to this volume as a point of departure They add more measured analyses to the rhetorical overstatement in

Hunter's claim assessing its accuracy with a broad range of evidence based on individual attitudes subcultural values political party dynamics and culture wide ideological currents On every level of analysis the contributors find that Hunter's bipolar axis obscures the variety of ways in which culture actually functions in current politics That variety receives the nuanced treatment it deserves in this collection Examining the full range of sources of cultural politics and offering competing models for understanding the current ideological landscape this volume will be useful in a variety of classroom and seminar settings from political sociology and social movements to contemporary American culture and the sociology of religion

Edinburgh Companion to the Bible and the Arts Stephen Prickett, 2019-08-07 Examines the changing relationship between the Bible and the arts showing how the arts portray biblical stories in various ways and through various media and how the Bible is actually multiple entities fiercely contested translations in many languages Generously illustrated with examples including painting architecture and stained glass

Singing the Resurrection Erin M. Lambert, 2018 Singing the Resurrection brings music to the foreground of Reformation studies as author Erin Lambert explores song as a primary mode for the expression of belief among ordinary Europeans in the sixteenth century for the embodiment of individual piety and the creation of new communities of belief Together resurrection and song reveal how sixteenth century Christians from learned theologians to ordinary artisans and Anabaptist martyrs to Reformed Christians facing exile defined belief not merely as an assertion or affirmation but as a continuous living practice Thus these voices raised in song tell a story of the Reformation that reaches far beyond the transformation from one community of faith to many With case studies drawn from each of the major confessions of the Reformation Lutheran Anabaptist Reformed and Catholic Singing the Resurrection reveals sixteenth century belief in its full complexity
