Many Lands Many Stories Asian Folk Tales For Children:

Many Lands, Many Stories David Conger, 2012-08-28 This collection of multicultural children's fairy tales from Asia presents 15 classic stories that kids and parents will love. Each country has its own set of interesting stories and it is especially enjoyable to discover tales that one may not have heard before. The fifteen folktales collected in this book representing five countries of Asia are stories that the author has heard directly from friends and acquaintances from those lands or that are found in the classic literature of the countries. From India we read of snakes and mongooses and of lions and rabbits that can talk. From Japan comes The Crane's Gratitude, one of the most beloved stories of that land. The tales from China are fantastic yarns of magic about people who paint pictures that come to life or who fly away into the sky and live happily ever after. Some stories tell us how things came to be like How the Sea Became Salty from Japan and why things are the way they are such as Why Cats and Dogs Don't Get Along from Korea. Others teach a lesson as in the tale from Thailand in which a jeweler learns the importance of not being greedy. A Tiger by the Tail and Other Stories from the Heart of Korea Lindy S. Curry, Chan-Eun Park, 1999-05-15 The power of love within families, the complexities of relationships, the rites of passage for birth, coming of age, marriage and death, these are some of the themes covered in this wonderful volume. Author and storyteller Lindy Soon Curry offers us 25 enchanting tales that foster understanding of Korean culture and Korean Americans. Humorous tales, teaching tales, tall tales, classics and a section of stories about tigers are included. Written in a style that easily lends itself to read alouds as well as to silent reading, these stories reflect unique cultural traditions and values of Korea as well as universal symbols and themes. Curry's tips for storytelling give educators insights in how to effectively present or perform the tales. In addition, Dr. Chan-eung Park discusses the wisdom to be found in the stories and the cultural continuity of the collection. A color plate section illustrates some of the traditional arts, customs, landscapes of Korea. Through the Eyes of a Child Donna E. Norton, 1995 Looks at the history of children's literature, discusses criteria for evaluation and surveys genres. Both editions include thorough indexing by subject, motif, title, ethnic group and country of origin and a comprehensive bibliography. Multicultural Children's Literature Ambika Gopalakrishnan, 2010-04-22 Preparing K-12 teachers to address today's social, cultural and critical issues using multicultural children's books. Written in an engaging style, this comprehensive text prepares K-12 teachers to address a wide range of contemporary social issues such as violence, gender, war, terrorism, child labor, censorship and disabilities through multicultural children's literature.
