Map Use Phillip Muehrcke, Juliana O. Muehrcke, 1992 New York Magazine, 1992-11-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Writing, Geometry and Space in Seventeenth-Century England and America Jess Edwards, 2018-12-07 The early modern map has come to mark the threshold of modernity cutting through the layered customs of Medieval parochialism with its clean expansive geometries Re thinking the role played by mathematics and cartography in the English seventeenth century this book argues that the cultural currency of mathematics was as unstable in the period as that of England's controversial enclosures and plantations Reviewing evidence from a wide range of literary and scientific courtly and pragmatic texts Edwards suggests that its unstable currency rendered mathematics necessarily rhetorical subject to constant re negotiation Yet he also finds a powerful flexibility in this weakness Mathematized texts from masques to maps negotiated a contemporary ambivalence between Calvinist asceticism and humanist engagement Their authors promoted themselves as artful guides between virtue and profit the study and the marketplace This multi disciplinary work will be of interest to all disciplines affected by the recent spatial turn in early modern cultural studies and particularly to students and researchers in literature history and geography

The Map Reader Martin Dodge, Rob Kitchin, Chris Perkins, 2011-05-09 WINNER OF THE CANTEMIR PRIZE 2012 awarded by the Berendel Foundation The Map Reader brings together for the first time classic and hard to find articles on mapping This book provides a wide ranging and coherent edited compendium of key scholarly writing about the changing nature of cartography over the last half century The editorial selection of fifty four theoretical and thought provoking texts demonstrates how cartography works as a powerful representational form and explores how different mapping practices have been conceptualised in particular scholarly contexts Themes covered include paradigms politics people aesthetics and technology Original interpretative essays set the literature into intellectual context within these themes Excerpts are drawn from leading scholars and researchers in a range of cognate fields including Cartography Geography Anthropology Architecture Engineering Computer Science and Graphic Design The Map Reader provides a new unique single source reference to the essential literature in the cartographic field more than fifty specially edited excerpts from key classic articles and monographs critical introductions by experienced experts in the field focused coverage of key mapping practices
