Cognitive Support for Learning Piet A. M. Kommers, 2004 This book addresses the various aspects of computational support systems for learners nowadays It highlights in particular those learning aspects that rely heavily upon one s imagination of knowledge and new ideas The question is how learners may become more effective through the use of highly graphical computer systems that now conquer almost every desk As an extrapolation of the constructionistic paradigm learning is seen here as a process of conceptual design Witnessing the prudent introduction of CADD software Computer Aided Drafting and Design it is obvious that users are generally scrupulous to accept the computer in the ideational stages of design This book presents both existing conceptual techniques and those estimated to arrive in the few coming years

Architectures for E-Business Systems Sanjiv Purba, 2001-10-30 As dot com companies grapple with rigid market conditions and we keep hearing how the big technology players are being punished on Wall Street it becomes easy to think of the Internet as a fad The Internet frenzy may have subsided but interest in the Internet as a business and marketing tool is still strong It will continue to impact organizati

Reading Network Fiction David

Ciccoricco,2007-11-25 Ciccoricco analyzes innovative developments in network fiction from first generation writers Michael Joyce Twilight a symphony 1997 and Stuart Moulthrop Victory Garden 1991 through Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter 2000 an acclaimed example of digital literature in its latter instantiations on the Web Each investigation demonstrates not only what the digital environment might mean for narrative theory but also the ability of network fictions to sustain a mode of reading that might arguably be called literary

BOOK JACKET Digital Knowledge Maps in Education Dirk Ifenthaler,Ria Hanewald,2013-11-01 Digital knowledge maps are at a glance visual representations that enable enriching imaginative and transformative ways for teaching and learning with the potential to enhance positive educational outcomes The use of such maps has generated much attention and interest among tertiary education practitioners and researchers over the last few years as higher education institutions around the world begin to invest heavily into new technologies designed to provide online spaces within which to build resources and conduct activities The key elements of this edited volume will comprise original and innovative contributions to existing scholarship in this field with examples of pedagogical possibilities as they are currently practiced across a range of contexts It will contain chapters that address theory research and practical issues related to the use of digital knowledge maps in all aspects of tertiary education and draws predominantly on international perspectives with a diverse group of invited contributors Reports on empirical studies as well as theoretical conceptual chapters that engage deeply with pertinent questions and issues raised from a pedagogical social cultural philosophical and or ethical standpoint are included Systematic literature reviews dealing with digital knowledge mapping in education are also an integral part of the volume
