Maps In A Mirror:

Maps in a Mirror Orson Scott Card, 2009-11-30 Maps in a Mirror brings together nearly all of Orson Scott Card's short fiction written between 1977 and 1990. For those readers who have followed this remarkable talent since the beginning here are all those amazing stories gathered together in one place with some extra surprises as well. For the hundreds of thousands who are newly come to Card here is chance to experience the wonder of a writer so versatile that he can handle everything from traditional narrative poetry to modern experimental fiction with equal ease and grace. The brilliant story telling of the Alvin Maker books is no accident; the breathless excitement evoked by the Ender books is not a once in a lifetime experience. In this enormous volume are forty-six stories plus ten long intensely personal essays unique to this volume. In them the author reveals some of his reasons and motivations for writing with a good deal of autobiography into the bargain. One of the genre's most convincing storytellers. An important volume. Library Journal. At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied. Maps in a Mirror Orson Scott Card, 1992-05 Maps in a Mirror Orson Scott Card, 1991. Contains 46 stories broken into five books: Tales of Dread, Tales of Human Features, Fables and Fantasies, Cruel Miracles, and Lost Songs. The Hidden Stories. Each section includes personal introductions and afterwords. From the author of The Tales of Alvin Maker series. Maps in a Mirror Orson Scott Card, 1992-05 Rethinking the Power of Maps Denis Wood, 2010-04-16. A contemporary follow up to the groundbreaking Power of Maps, this book takes a fresh look at what maps do, whose interests they serve, and how they can be used in surprising, creative, and radical ways. Denis Wood describes how cartography facilitated the rise of the modern state and how maps continue to embody and project the interests of their creators. He demystifies the hidden assumptions of map making and explores the promises and limitations of diverse counter-mapping practices today. Thought-provoking illustrations include U.S. Geological Survey maps, electoral and transportation maps, and numerous examples of critical cartography, participatory GIS, and map art. The book will be important reading for geographers and others interested in maps and their political uses. It will also serve as a supplemental text in advanced undergraduate and graduate level courses such as Cartography, GIS, Geographic Thought, and History of Geography. The Social Life of Maps in America, 1750-1860 Martin Brückner, 2017-10-26. In the age of MapQuest and GPS, we take cartographic literacy for granted. We should not: the ability to find meaning in maps is the fruit of a long process of exposure and instruction. A cartocoded America, a nation in which maps are pervasive and meaningful, had to be created. The Social Life of Maps tracks American cartography's spectacular rise to its unprecedented cultural influence. Between 1750 and 1860, maps did more than communicate geographic information and political pretensions. They became affordable and intelligible to ordinary American men and women looking for their place in the world. School maps quickly entered classrooms where they shaped reading and other cognitive exercises; giant maps drew attention in public spaces; miniature maps helped Americans chart personal experiences. In short, maps were uniquely social objects whose visual and material expressions affected commercial practices and graphic arts theatrical performances and the communication of emotions This lavishly illustrated study follows popular maps from their points of creation to shops and galleries schoolrooms and coat pockets parlors and bookbindings Between the decades leading up to the Revolutionary War and the Civil War early Americans bonded with maps Martin Br ckner s comprehensive history of quotidian cartographic encounters is the first to show us how

English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1925 NASA Technical Note ,1971 Maps and Travel in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Period Ingrid Baumgärtner,Nirit Ben-Aryeh Debby,Katrin Kogman-Appel,2019-03-04 The volume discusses the world as it was known in the Medieval and Early Modern periods focusing on projects concerned with mapping as a conceptual and artistic practice with visual representations of space and with destinations of real and fictive travel Maps were often taken as straightforward objective configurations However they expose deeply subjective frameworks with social political and economic significance Travel narratives whether illustrated or not can address similar frameworks Whereas travelled space is often adventurous and speaking of hardship strange encounters and danger city portraits tell a tale of civilized life and civic pride The book seeks to address the multiple ways in which maps and travel literature conceive of the world communicate a Weltbild depict space and or define knowledge The volume challenges academic boundaries in the study of cartography by exploring the links between mapmaking and artistic practices The contributions discuss individual mapmakers authors of travelogues mapmaking as an artistic practice the relationship between travel literature and mapmaking illustration in travel literature and imagination in depictions of newly explored worlds
