Raphael Soyer and the Search for Modern Jewish Art Samantha Baskind, 2015-12-01 Artist Raphael Soyer 1899 1987 whose Russian Jewish family settled in Manhattan in 1912 was devoted to painting people in their everyday urban lives He came to be known especially for his representations of city workers and the down and out and for his portraits of himself and his friends Although Soyer never identified himself as a Jewish artist Samantha Baskind in the first full length critical study of the artist argues that his work was greatly influenced by his ethnicity and by the Jewish American immigrant experience Baskind examines the painter's art and life in the rich context of religious cultural political and social conditions in the twentieth century United States By promoting an understanding of Soyer as a Jewish American artist she addresses larger questions about the definition and study of modern Jewish art Whereas previous scholars have defined Jewish art simply as art produced by people who were born Jewish Baskind stresses the importance of an artist's cultural identity when defining ethnic art As Baskind explains how Soyer negotiated his Jewish identity in changing ways over his lifetime she offers new strategies for identifying and interpreting Jewish art in general Her analysis of Soyer's work places the artist in a necessary context and provides a valuable new approach to the study of modern Jewish art Marc Chagall and the Lost Jewish World Benjamin Harshav, Marc Chagall, 2006 Focuses on Chagall's Jewish roots This book includes 200 illustrations and also illustrates succinct interpretations of Chagall's world and iconography and the nature of his art in the midst of Modernism It includes works from the Russian theater and those that were done during his early and late career in France Marc Chagall and His Times Benjamin Harshav, Marc Chagall, Barbara Harshav, 2004 Renowned Israeli American scholar Harshav presents the first comprehensive investigation of Marc Chagall's life and consciousness after the classic 1961 biography by Chagall's son in law Franz Meyer Drawing from the Modern: 1880-1945 Jodi Hauptman, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 While art history has made room for the flurry of movements that emerged in the period following World War II the myriad artistic developments of the last thirty years have yet to be assigned firm historical categories Drawing from the Modern 1975 2005 the final installment in a series of inaugural year exhibitions produced by the Department of Drawings attempts to tell a provisional story of the years from 1975 to the present as reflected through MoMA's singular drawings collection While making no claims to comprehensiveness the installation details both the blossoming of different art positions on a broad international scale in this era and the coming of age of drawing as an independent and for many artists primary mode of expression Organized chronologically and in loose clusters of artists working in the same milieu or vein of interest the exhibition features works by more than fifty artists including Bruce Nauman Gerhard Richter Martin Kippenberger Marlene Dumas Gabriel Orozco Kara Walker and Luc Tuymans The Art and Life of Clarence Major Keith Eldon Byerman, 2012 Clarence Major is an award winning painter fiction writer and poet as well as an essayist editor anthologist lexicographer and memoirist He has been part of twenty eight group exhibitions has had fifteen one man shows and has published fourteen collections of poetry and nine works of fiction The author traces Major's life and career from his complex family history in Georgia through his encounters with important literary and artistic figures in Chicago and New York to his present status as a respected writer artist teacher and scholar living in California

Marc Chagall: Paintings, Gouaches, Sculpture Marc Chagall, 1973 Graphic Modernism Art Institute of Chicago, 2003 This exhibition catalog highlights a recent gift of works on paper to the Art Institute of Chicago from the Gecht family longtime Chicago collectors The catalog comprises 135 drawings prints and sculptures from the collection all of which embody a broad definition of Modernism The book spans two centuries and contains artists such as Cezanne and Van Gogh as well as Mark Rothko and Philip Guston Toulouse Lautrec Matisse and Picasso form the backbone of the collection with nearly 30 works of art apiece Suzanne Folds McCullagh curator of prints drawings Art Inst of Chicago provides a short introductory essay that tracks the evolution of the collection Authored by a bevy of contributors the well written entries maintain a consistent tone and quality and strike a good balance between biographical information and interpretations of the work of art itself While the Gecht collection is certainly quite a boon for the institute it is not comprehensive enough in itself to make the catalog essential for all art libraries It does however belong on library shelves with strong modern art and graphics collections Kraig A Binkowski Delaware Art Museum Wilmington 135 colour illustrations Marc Chagall Jonathan Wilson, 2009-04-22 Part of the Jewish Encounter series Novelist and critic Jonathan Wilson clears away the sentimental mists surrounding an artist whose career spanned two world wars the Russian Revolution the Holocaust and the birth of the State of Israel Marc Chagall's work addresses these transforming events but his ambivalence about his role as a Jewish artist adds an intriguing wrinkle to common assumptions about his life Drawn to sacred subject matter Chagall remains defiantly secular in outlook determined to narrate the miraculous and tragic events of the Jewish past he frequently chooses Jesus as a symbol of martyrdom and sacrifice Wilson brilliantly demonstrates how Marc Chagall's life constitutes a grand canvas on which much of twentieth century Jewish history is vividly portrayed Chagall left Belorussia for Paris in 1910 at the dawn of modernism looking back dreamily on the world he abandoned After his marriage to Bella Rosenfeld in 1915 he moved to Petrograd but eventually returned to Paris after a stint as a Soviet commissar for art Fleeing Paris steps ahead of the Nazis Chagall arrived in New York in 1941 Drawn to Israel but not enough to live there Chagall grappled endlessly with both a nostalgic attachment to a vanished past and the magnetic pull of an uninhibited secular present Wilson's portrait of Chagall is altogether more historical more political and edgier than conventional wisdom would have us believe showing us how Chagall is the emblematic Jewish artist of the twentieth century Visit nextbook.org/chagall for a virtual museum of Chagall images
