Juan Arrom, Craig Morris, James E. Brown, Warwick Bray, J. H. Elliott, 1991-01-01 Surveys the art of the Age of Exploration in Europe the Far East and the Americas History Of Mathematical Sciences: Portugal And East Asia V - Visual And Textual Representations In Exchanges Between Europe And East Asia 16th - 18th Centuries Luis M R Saraiva, Catherine Jami, 2018-06-13 In recent years research on the history of early modern cartography has undergone remarkable developments At the same time European travel accounts and works on China and Japan are also being investigated more systematically Finally studies of translations between European and East Asian languages have highlighted the more general issue of how and to what extent representations of the world that prevailed at one end of Eurasia informed and influenced the representations prevailing at the other end of the continent sometimes to the point that novel forms of representations were being generated This volume brings together a series of essays on this theme It is divided into five sections which address as many topics the textual representation of the Other 16th and 17th century maps of China Japan and Vietnam the phenomenon of hybridisation in visual representations knowledge and representations of the world in Europe and East Asia and the circulation of representations of the heavens in astronomy between these two regions Henricus Martellus's World Map at Yale (c. 1491) Chet Van Duzer, 2018-08-03 This book presents groundbreaking new research on a fifteenth century world map by Henricus Martellus c 1491 now at Yale The importance of the map had long been suspected but it was essentially unstudiable because the texts on it had faded to illegibility Multispectral imaging of the map performed with NEH support in 2014 rendered its texts legible for the first time leading to renewed study of the map by the author This volume provides transcriptions translations and commentary on the Latin texts on the map particularly their sources as well as the place names in several regions This leads to a demonstration of a very close relationship between the Martellus map and Martin Waldseemüller's famous map of 1507 One of the most exciting discoveries on the map is in the hinterlands of southern Africa The information there comes from African sources the map is thus a unique and supremely important document regarding African cartography in the fifteenth century This book is essential reading for digital humanitarians and historians of cartography Marco Polo Map USA West Marco Polo, Marco Polo Travel, 2012-03-12 Marco Polo maps feature completely up to date digitally generated mapping A fold out overview map is ideal for route planning and 7 self adhesive Marco Polo mark it stickers can be used to pin point a destination or route for future reference Early Mapping of Southeast Asia Thomas Suarez, 2012-08-07 With dozens of rare color maps and other documents Early Mapping of Southeast Asia follows the story of map making exploration and colonization in Asia from the 16th to the 19th centuries It documents the idea of Southeast Asia as a geographical and cosmological construct from the earliest of times up until the dawn of the modern era using maps itineraries sailing instructions traveler's tales religious texts and other contemporary sources it examines the representation of Southeast Asia both from the historical perspective of Western exploration and cartography and also through the eyes of Asian neighbors Southeast Asia has always occupied a special place in the imaginations of East and West This book recounts the fascinating story of how Southeast Asia was quite literally put on the map both in cartographic terms and as a literary and imaginative concept Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II Donald F. Lach, 2010-01-15 Praised for its scope and depth Asia in the Making of Europe is the first comprehensive study of Asian influences on Western culture For volumes I and II the author has sifted through virtually every European reference to Asia published in the sixteenth century he surveys a vast array of writings describing Asian life and society the images of Asia that emerge from those writings and in turn the reflections of those images in European literature and art This monumental achievement reveals profound and pervasive influences of Asian societies on developing Western culture in doing so it provides a perspective necessary for a balanced view of world history Volume I The Century of Discovery brings together everything that a European could know of India Southeast Asia China and Japan from printed books missionary reports traders accounts and maps The New York Review of Books Volume II A Century of Wonder examines the influence of that vast new body of information about Asia on the arts institutions literatures and ideas of sixteenth century Europe

Science, Empire and the European Exploration of the Pacific Tony Ballantyne, 2018-10-24 This collection of essays assesses the interrelationship between exploration empire building and science in the opening up of the Pacific Ocean by Europeans between the early 16th and mid 19th century It explores both the role of various sciences in enabling European imperial projects in the region and how the exploration of the Pacific in turn shaped emergent scientific disciplines and their claims to authority within Europe Drawing on a range of disciplines from the history of science to geography imperial history to literary criticism this volume examines the place of science in cross cultural encounters the history of cartography in Oceania shifting understandings of race and cultural difference in the Pacific and the place of ships books and instruments in the culture of science It reveals the exchanges and networks that connected British French Spanish and Russian scientific traditions even in the midst of imperial competition and the ways in which findings in diverse fields from cartography to zoology botany to anthropology were disseminated and crafted into an increasingly coherent image of the Pacific its resources peoples and histories This is a significant body of scholarship that offers many important insights for anthropologists and geographers as well as for historians of science and European imperialism Exploring World History through Geography Julie Crea Dunbar, 2022-09-29 Not your run of the mill world history tome this book takes readers on a fascinating journey through time to examine world history through the closely related discipline of geography From the early civilizations of ancient Mesopotamia to our present day globalized society readers will learn how humans interacted and still interact with the environment around them as well as the environment s role in not only shaping the society s world view but enabling the building of socially stratified and successful civilizations Additionally the book examines how civilizations interacted with others from developing cross boundary trade to initiating wars of expansion Finally readers will also understand the impact of the study and application of geography such as the creation and use of maps and the study of cultures and Earth's processes Readers will come away with a new understanding of the relevance of geography to not only human history but contemporary events as well as their day to day lives By presenting this history from a slightly different geographic point of view this book will inspire fresh curiosity in the world both past and present Proposed Expedition to Explore Ellesmere Land Northwest of Baffin Bay and to Rescue Björling and Kallstenius, Swedish Naturalists Lost in the Arctic Robert Stein,1898 The National Geographic Magazine ,1894 Indexes kept up to date with supplements
