ethnological analysis and perhaps on to the dusty immortality of print This is in that sense a book about fieldwork on Manus but with the happy aspect of encapsulating the many in the one For that reason alone it ought to be read carefully and critically by everyone who aspires to enter and report on the cross cultural world American Anthropologist Kinship in the Admiralty Islands Daniel Elazar,2018-01-16 The Manus of New Guinea s Pere village were Margaret Mead s most favored community the people to whom she returned five times before she died in 1978 Kinship in the Admiralty Islands is the classic and only thorough description of their complex rules of marriage and family relations It draws on Mead s 1928 1929 field work conducted with her second husband New Zealander Reo Fortune and benefits by her being able to cross check her data with his Written in 1931 Kinship followed Mead s first and very popular book on the Manus Growing Up in New Guinea which was criticized by other anthropologists for being too general in scope In Kinship Mead succeeded in demonstrating her thorough knowledge of this Melanesian group in the specific terms prized by her scholarly colleagues while also describing in depth Manus social structure Kinship in the Admiralty Islands describes an intricate system of social restraints and kinship ties and their impact on the local economy The Manus predilection for adoption for example allows surrogate fathers to make extended marriage payments while in the next generation their adopted sons will take on the same responsibility for other young men in the new kin network Mead reviews other kinship rules such as avoidance behavior between in laws of the opposite sex early betrothals other forms of adoption and a range of deference behavior and joking relations among kin In this work Mead walks a fine line between functionalist kinship analysis of the British school of Radcliffe Brown and the cultural and personality orientation of Americans in the school of Franz Boas Jeanne Guillemin s new introduction provides a lively in depth description of Margaret Mead s career in the early days of anthropology the sometimes negative reactions of her contemporaries to her work and her reasons for writing Kinship in the Admiralty Islands as well as Mead s later reactions to how her Manus entered the modern world Margaret Mead was noted for directing her writings to both scholar and laymen alike Kinship in the Admiralty Islands will be of interest to anthropologists and general readers interested in the peoples of the South Pacific Margaret Mead was curator of ethnology of the American Museum of Natural History She was the author of many books including Continuities in Cultural Evolution available from Transaction The Study of Culture at a Distance The Mountain of Arapesh and From the South Seas Studies of Adolescence and Sex in Primitive Societies Jeanne Guillemin is a professor of anthropology at Boston College and editor of Anthropological Realities Readings in the Science of Culture also available from Transaction Reading Benedict / Reading Mead Dolores Janiewski,Lois W. Banner,2004 Publisher Description Hunters and Gatherers (Vol I) Tim Ingold,David Riches,James Woodburn,2024-11-01 All that is central to the dynamic process in human society is evident in the study of hunter gatherers peoples whose subsistence way of life reflects the original form of human adaptation This is the thesis of these wide ranging volumes in which internationally leading scholars consider hunter gatherer peoples in Africa Asia Australia and North America and reflect theoretically on the hunter gatherer condition Volume 1 Hunters and Gatherers History Evolution and Social Change Volume II Hunters and Gatherers Property Power and Ideology Pacific Ethnomathematics Nicholas J. Goetzfridt, 2007-09-20 This ground breaking bibliography by distinguished Pacific researcher Nicholas Goetzfridt examines mathematical concepts and practices in Polynesia Melanesia and Micronesia It covers number systems counting measuring classifying spatial relationships symmetry geometry and other aspects of ethnomathematics in relation to a wide range of activities such as trade education navigation construction rituals and festivals divination weaving tattooing and music In compiling nearly five hundred citations Goetzfridt makes use of the vast resources of writing about the Pacific from the 1700s to the present In addition to discussing Pacific knowledge systems in general his introductory chapter includes a helpful overview of the relatively new field of ethnomathematics and important theoretical reflections on the discipline as a research program Extensive subject and geographic indexes provide numerous ways to experience the rich heritage and history of Pacific ethnomathematical concepts covered in this book including the 256 possible knotted fates enabled by the Carolinian sky god Supwunumen etak segmentation concepts in stellar based voyaging the highly diverse counting systems of Papua New Guinea the alignment of stone structures with stars to mark the appearance of the equinox and solstice and contemporary educational issues in the standardized teaching of Western mathematics Chasing Ghosts Louise DeSalvo, 2015-10-12 When literary biographer and memoirist Louise DeSalvo embarked upon a journey to learn why her father came home from World War II a changed man she didn't realize her quest would take ten years and that it would yield more revelations about the man and herself and the effect of his military service upon their family than she'd ever imagined During his last years as he told her about his life DeSalvo began to understand that her obsession with war novels and military history wasn't merely academic but rooted in her desire to understand this complex father whom she both adored and reviled because of his mistreatment of her Although she at first believes she wants to uncover his story the story of a man who was no hero but who was nonetheless adversely affected by his military service she learns that what she really wants is to recover the man that he was before he went away As DeSalvo and her father uncover his past piece by piece bit by bit she learns about the dreams of a working class man who entered the military in the late 1930s during peacetime to better himself a man who wanted to become a pilot She learns about what it was like for him to participate in war games in the Pacific prior to the war and its devastating toll She learns about what it was like for her parents to fall in love set up house marry and have children during this cataclysmic time And as the pieces of her father's life fall into place as works to piece together the puzzle of everything she's learned about this time she finds herself finally able to understand him Chasing Ghosts is an original contribution to the understanding of working class World War II veterans who did not conventionally distinguish themselves through heroic actions and whose lives were not until recently considered worthy of historical or cultural attention It personalizes the history of those sailors who served in the Navy aboard aircraft carriers and on islands in the Pacific prior to and during World War II and contributes to the current vital conversation about the often unrecognized effects of war and its traumas upon those men and their families It reveals the lifelong devastating consequences of military service on those men and women who fell in love married and set up house And it reveals the complexity of what it is like to be the daughter of a father who has gone to war Fieldnotes Roger Sanjek,2019-06-30 Thirteen distinguished anthropologists describe how they create and use the unique forms of writing they produce in the field They also discuss the fieldnotes of seminal figures Frank Cushing Franz Boas W H R Rivers Bronislaw Malinowski and Margaret Mead and analyze field writings in relation to other types of texts especially ethnographies Unique in conception this volume contributes importantly to current debates on writing texts and reflexivity in anthropology An Ethnology of the Admiralty Islanders Sylvia Ohnemus,1998-01-01 In 1931 32 Alfred Buhler 1900 81 who for many years was director of the Museum of Ethnology and the Swiss Museum of European Folklife in Basel assembled a unique collection documenting the culture of the Admiralty Islanders The Admiralty Islands are located on the northern edge of the region of Melanesia and today constitute the Manus province of the independent State of Papua New Guinea In this book commissioned by the Museum der Kulturen in Basel Sylvia Ohnemus for the first time presents the results of Alfred Buhler s collecting and study expedition which she complements with her own contributions based on information gathered in the field Ethnic Identity George A. De Vos,Lola Romanucci-Ross,Takeyuki Tsuda,2006-06-22 In this thoroughly revised fourth edition with ten new chapters the editors provide thought provoking discussions on the importance of ethnicity in different cultural and social contexts The authors focus especially on changing ethnic and national identities on migration and ethnic minorities on ethnic ascription versus self definitions and on shifting ethnic identities and political control The international group of scholars examines ethnic identities conflicts and accommodations around the globe in Africa including Zaire and South Africa Belgium Brazil Bulgaria Italy Japan Lithuania Macedonia the Netherlands the United States Thailand and the former Yugoslavia It will serve as an excellent text for courses in race ethnic relations and anthropology and ethnic studies Hardwired Behavior Laurence Tancredi,2005-09-19 This book explores the impact of neuroscience research over the past 20 or more years on brain function as it affects moral decisions It sets out the historical framework of the transition from mentalism to physicalism shows how the physical brain works in moral decisions and then examines three broad areas of moral decision making the brain in bad acts the brain in decisions involving sexual relations and the brain in money decision making Ethnic Identity Lola Romanucci-Ross,1995 Discusses ethnic identity in contemporary subjects When Law and Medicine Meet: A Cultural View Lola Romanucci-Ross,Laurence R. Tancredi,2007-11-10 What happens when two systems law and medicine are joined in the arena of the court This work deals with the structure and the premises of two diverse discourse models the approach is anthropological Several chapters are preponderantly based on legal research addressing cases requiring testimony by expert witnesses on recent technologies used in the laboratories of medical scientists

Descriptions of other societies and cultures consider the identical problems of rights privileges and duties and provide perspectives to cultural self knowledge This volume can be used as a text for courses taught in medical schools and law schools It will be of particular interest to students taking courses in health science public health medical anthropology forensic anthropology psychology sociology public justice behavioral sciences forensic psychiatry legal anthropology social welfare as well as courses on research models Margaret Mead and Ruth Benedict Hilary Lapsley, 1999 A revealing study of the relationship between two major figures in the history of anthropology first as mentor and protegee later as colleagues and lovers 16 illustrations The American Tradition in Qualitative Research Yvonna S. Lincoln, Norman K. Denzin, 2001

Like Fire Theodore Schwartz, Michael French Smith, 2021-07-01 Like Fire chronicles an indigenous movement for radical change in Papua New Guinea from 1946 to the present The movement's founder Paliau Maloat promoted a program for step by step social change in which many of his followers also found hope for a miraculous millenarian transformation Drawing on data collected over several decades Theodore Schwartz and Michael French Smith describe the movement's history Paliau's transformation from secular reformer and politician to Melanesian Jesus and the development of the current incarnation of the movement as Wind Nation a fully millenarian endeavour Their analysis casts doubt on common ways of understanding a characteristically Melanesian form of millenarianism the cargo cult and questions widely accepted ways of interpreting millenarianism in general They show that to understand the human proclivity for millenarianism we must scrutinise more closely two near universal human tendencies difficulty accepting the role of chance or impersonal forces in shaping events that is the tendency to personify causation and a tendency to imagine that one or one's group is the focus of the malign or benign attention of purposeful entities from the local to the cosmic Schwartz and Smith discuss the prevalence of millenarianism and warn against romanticising it because the millenarian mind can subvert rationality and nourish rage and fear even as it seeks transcendence Like Fire consummates remarkable longitudinal ethnographic research on the Paliau Movement in Papua New Guinea pursued from the 1950s into the 1990s by Theodore Schwartz with Michael French Smith as his sometime assistant and updated by Smith in 2015 The theoretical arguments are highly provocative and the book is well written and fascinating throughout Like Fire poses important questions about the driving forces and contours of Pacific Island history and the place in it of cargo cults and other millenarian movements Aletta Biersack Professor Emerita University of Oregon Like Fire synthesises old but inaccessible and new material on an important and long lasting indigenous Melanesian movement while making extensive use of the wider literature on cargo cults and millenarianism I find the theorising in this book both very original and an important contribution to the debates on Melanesian religion cargo cults and millenarianism more generally As the authors state the topic of millenarianism has great relevance because of its ubiquity in the contemporary world Ton Otto Professor of Anthropology Aarhus University Denmark and James Cook University Australia
