The Cambridge Illustrated History of the Islamic World Francis Robinson, 1996 Islamic peoples account for one fifth of the world's population and yet there is widespread misunderstanding in the West of what Islam really is Francis Robinson and his team set out to address this revealing the complex and sometimes contrary nature of Muslim culture As well as taking on the issues uppermost in everyone's minds such as the role of religious and political fundamentalism they demonstrate the importance of commerce literacy and learning Islamic art the effects of immigration exodus and conquest and the roots of current crises in the Middle East Bosnia and the Gulf Throughout emphasis is placed on the interaction between Islam and the West from the first Latin translations of the Quran to the fatwa on Salman Rushdie This elegant book deliberately sets out to dismantle the Western impression of Islam as a monolithic world and replace it with a balanced view from current issues of fundamentalism to its dynamic culture and art Francis Robinson is the editor of two outstanding reference works Atlas of the Islamic World Since 1500 Cambridge 1982 and The Cambridge Encyclopedia of India 1989

Humor, Empathy, and Community in Twentieth-Century American Poetry Rachel Trousdale, 2021-12-16 Humor Empathy and Community in Twentieth Century American Poetry explores how American poets of the last hundred years have used laughter to create communities of readers and writers For poets slightly outside of the literary or social mainstream humor encourages mutual understanding and empathic insight among artist audience and subject As a result laughter helps poets reframe and reject literary political and discursive hierarchies whether to overturn those hierarchies or to place themselves at the top While theorists like Freud and Bergson argue that laughter patrols and maintains the boundary between in group and out group this volume shows how laughter helps us cross or re draw those boundaries Poets who practice such constructive humor promote a more democratic approach to laughter Humor reveals their beliefs about their audiences and their attitudes toward the Romantic notion that poets are exceptional figures When poets use humor to promote empathy they suggest that poetry's ethical function is tied to its structure empathy humor and poetry identify shared patterns among apparently disparate objects This book explores a broad range of serious approaches to laughter the inclusive community building humor of W H Auden and Marianne Moore the self aggrandizing humor of Ezra Pound the self critical humor of T S Eliot Sterling Brown's antihierarchical comedy Elizabeth Bishop's attempts to balance mockery with sympathy and the comic epistemologies of Lucille Clifton Stephanie Burt Cathy Park Hong and other contemporary poets It charts a developing poetics of laughter in the twentieth and twenty first centuries showing how humor can be deployed to embrace to exclude and to transform

A History of Old Norse Poetry and Poetics Margaret Clunies Ross, 2005 This is the first book in English to deal with the twin subjects of Old Norse poetry and the various vernacular treatises on native poetry that were a conspicuous feature of medieval intellectual life in Iceland and the Orkneys from the mid twelfth to the fourteenth centuries Its aim is to give a clear description of the rich poetic tradition of early Scandinavia particularly in Iceland where it reached its zenith and to demonstrate the social contexts that favoured poetic composition from the oral societies of the early Viking Age in Norway and its colonies to the devout compositions of literate Christian clerics in fourteenth century Iceland The author analyses the two dominant poetic modes eddic and skaldic giving fresh examples of their various styles and subjects looks at the prose contexts in which most Old Norse poetry has been preserved and discusses problems of interpretation that arise because of the poetry's mode of transmission She is concerned throughout to link indigenous theory with practice beginning with the pre Christian ideology of poets as favoured by the god dinn and concluding with the Christian notion that a plain style best conveys the poet's message Margaret Clunies Ross is McCaughey Professor of English Language and Early English Literature and Director of the Centre for Medieval Studies at the University of Sydney The Bookman ,1896
