Nature Key Ideas In Geography:

Key Concepts in Geography Nicholas Clifford, Sarah Holloway, Stephen P Rice, Gill Valentine, 2008-12-12 This book clearly outlines key concepts that all geographers should readily be able to explain. It does so in a highly accessible way. It is likely to be a text that my students will return to throughout their degree. Dr Karen Parkhill Bangor University. The editors have done a fantastic job. This second edition is really accessible to the student and provides the key literature in the key geographical terms of scale, space, time, place and landscape. Dr Elias Symeonakis Manchester Metropolitan University. An excellent introductory text for accessible overviews of key concepts across human and physical geography. Professor Patrick Devine Wright Exeter University. Including ten new chapters on nature, globalization, development and risk and a new section on practicing geography, this is a completely revised and updated edition of the best-selling standard student resource. Key Concepts in Geography explains the key terms: space, time, place, scale, landscape that define the language of geography. It is unique in the reference literature as it provides in one volume concepts from both human geography and physical geography. Four introductory chapters on different intellectual traditions in geography situate and introduce the entries on the key concepts. Each entry then comprises a short definition, a summary of the principal arguments, a substantive 5 000 word discussion, the use of real-life examples and annotated notes for further reading. Written in an accessible way by established figures in the discipline, the definitions provide thorough explanations of all the core concepts that undergraduates of geography must understand to complete their degree.

Nature Noel Castree, 2005-11-17 Exploring the shifting ways in which geographers have studied nature, this book emphasizes the relationships and differences between human geography, physical geography and resource and hazards geography. The first to consider the topic of nature in modern geography as a whole, this distinctive text looks at all its major meanings from the human body and psyche through to the non-human world and develops the argument that student readers should abandon the idea of knowing what nature is in favour of a close scrutiny of what agendas lie behind competing conceptions of it. It deals with amongst others the following areas: the idea of nature, the nature of geography, de-naturalization and re-naturalization after nature. As everything from global warming to GM foods becomes headline news, the use and abuse of nature is on the agenda as never before. Synthesizing a wealth of diverse and complex information, this text makes the significant theories, debates and information on nature accessible to students of geography, environmental studies, sociology and cultural studies.

The SAGE Handbook of Nature Terry Marsden, 2018-03-23 The SAGE Handbook of Nature offers an ambitious retrospective and prospective overview of the field that aims to position Nature, the environment and natural processes at the heart of interdisciplinary social sciences. The three volumes are divided into the following parts: INTRODUCTION TO THE HANDBOOK, NATURAL AND SOCIO-NATURAL VULNERABILITIES, INTERWEAVING THE NATURAL SOCIAL SCIENCES, SPACING NATURES, SUSTAINABLE PLACE MAKING AND ADAPTATION, COUPLED AND DE-COUPLED SOCIO-ECOLOGICAL SYSTEMS, RISK AND THE ENVIRONMENT.

SOCIAL THEORIES PUBLIC UNDERSTANDINGS THE SCIENCE POLICY INTERFACE HUNGRY AND THIRSTY CITIES AND THEIR REGIONS CRITICAL CONSUMERISM AND ITS MANUFACTURED NATURES GENDERED NATURES AND ECO FEMINISM REPRODUCTIVE NATURES PLANTS ANIMALS AND PEOPLE NATURE CLASS AND SOCIAL INEQUALITY BIO SENSITIVITY THE ECOLOGIES OF HEALTH THE RESOURCE NEXUS AND ITS RELEVANCE SUSTAINABLE URBAN COMMUNITIES RURAL NATURES AND THEIR CO PRODUCTION This handbook is a key critical research resource for researchers and practitioners across the social sciences and their contributions to related disciplines associated with the fast developing interdisciplinary field of sustainability science

Nature Noel Castree, 2005-11-17 Synthesizing complex theories debates and information on nature this text explores the ways in which nature has been studied emphasizing the relationships and differences between diverse branches of geography

Sociology, Curriculum Studies and Professional Knowledge David Guile, David Lambert, Michael J. Reiss, 2017-08-07 This volume brings together an international set of contributors in education research policy and practice to respond to the influence the noted academic Professor Michael Young has had on sociology curriculum studies and professional knowledge over the past fifty years and still has on the field to this day It provides a critical analysis of his work and the uses to which it has been put in the UK and internationally discussing implications for debates on the purpose of education and how school curricula as well as programmes in other educational settings could be run and teaching undertaken based on his contribution Following Michael's long and distinguished career dating back to before Knowledge and Control New Directions for the Sociology of Education which Michael edited in 1971 recent years have seen an upsurge in both academic and policy interest in his work including the new concern he expressed for knowledge in his 2007 book Bringing Knowledge Back In The book concludes with an appreciation and a response to the authors from Michael Young and a Coda from Charmian Cannon who was on the Institute of Education panel that appointed Michael to his post in 1967 This timely book is a unique critique and celebration written by experts whose own careers have been affected by Michael and will appeal to all those with an interest in the work of Michael Young

Keeping God's Earth Noah Toly, Noah J. Toly, Daniel I. Block, 2010-05-26 Diversity of life Water resources Global climate change Cities and global environmental issues We all know being a Christian involves ethical responsibility But what exactly are our environmental obligations This unique volume teams up scientists with biblical scholars to help us discern just not that question What does the Lord require of us

Mobilities of Self and Place Mahni Dugan, 2019-11-16 When it comes to migration there is no level playing field Some people are privileged advantaged and supported and others are marginalised persecuted and traumatised The extension of the rights and equalities for which many people advocate and provision of other extrinsic conditions are insufficient for wellbeing This work asks what is sufficient What is it that people do and can do to change their experience from suffering to wellbeing when handling challenges of migration and other mobilities What helps people when they are migrating What have migrants experienced and learned that could be useful to others facing challenges of mobility and change How can this learning be applied to promote greater social wellbeing and care of environments in an increasingly mobile world Mobilities of Self and Place documents rich conversations with regular migrants and refugees to critically consider migration history human rights place self and mobilities studies The work explores ontological and epistemological questions of sense of self sense of place identity and agency Mahni Dugan helps us understand how the relationship between sense of place and sense of self affects the ability of migrants to relocate with wellbeing The movement from global to local social to personal intellectual to experiential offers a broad societal understanding of the phenomena and challenges of contemporary mobilities Energy and Rhythm Gordon

Walker, 2021-04-07 Rhythms animate our lives and the worlds we inhabit Rhythms of getting things done of working technologies of day and night and the seasons and of shared patterns of work home life and moving around Rhythms are also intrinsically about flows of energy heat light motion from the smallest movements of muscles to the petrol fuelled rhythms of the rush hour the spinning of wind turbines and shifting cycles of solar radiation This book sets out to energise Lefebvre's rhythm analysis in order to develop a novel and far reaching polyrhythmic conceptualisation of the beats and pulses of our relations with energy in both its natural and technological forms Social theory thermodynamic thinking and diverse streams of energy oriented research are brought together to trace how the climate crisis has the rhythmic patterning of big power energy systems at its core and how transitioning to a just low carbon future means transforming energy systems and our everyday dependencies on them into new rhythmic patterns and interrelations Ecotourism Stephen Wearing, Stephen Schweinsberg, 2018-10-25 Since the first edition of the title ecotourism has become a major phenomenon in tourism and society in many countries and regions throughout the world The profusion of experiences has generated a variety of means of theorizing analysing and marketing ecotourism all that have yet to be encompassed in one book Ecotourism fills the gap by synthesising the changes in thinking and society over the last decade This third edition has been fully revised and updated to include updated chapters addressing modern thought and discourse including neoliberalism consumer culture and quality management in the ecotourism industry critical analysis drawn from a range of theoretical frameworks which models and advances the thinking in ecotourism towards a socio geographical analysis new and international case studies from emerging markets such as China and Brazil Providing a critical introduction to the analysis of tourism from a sociological and geographical perspective the title is essential reading for higher level and graduate students and researchers in tourism sociology and geography It will also be of interest to environmental groups and practitioners Second World War

British Military Camouflage Isla Forsyth, 2017-03-09 Second World War British Military Camouflage offers an original approach to the cultures and geographies of military conflict through a study of the history of camouflage Isla Forsyth narrates the scientific biography of Dr Hugh Cott 1900 1987 eminent zoologist and artist turned camoufleur and entwines this with the lives of other camouflage practitioners to trace the sites of camouflage's developments Moving through the scientists fieldsite the committee boardroom the military training site and the soldiers battlefield this book uncovers the history of this ambiguous military invention and subverts a long dominant narrative of camouflage as solely a protective technology This study demonstrates that as camouflage transformed battlefields into unsettling theatres of war there were lasting consequences not only for military technology and knowledge but also for the ethics of battle and the individuals enrolled in this process

Tourism and the Consumption of Wildlife Brent Lovelock, 2007-10-25 Consumptive forms of wildlife tourism hunting shooting and fishing have become a topic of interest both to the tourism industry in terms of destinations seeking to establish or grow this sector and to other stakeholders such as environmental organisations animal rights groups and the general public Hunting tourism in particular has come under fire with accusations that it is contributing to the demise of some species Practices such as canned hunting within fenced safari parks or the use of hounds are described as unethical and fishing tourism too has attracted recent negative publicity as it is said to be cruel At the same time however many peripheral and indigenous communities around the world are strategising how to capitalise on consumptive forms of wildlife tourism This book addresses a range of contentious issues facing the consumptive wildlife tourism sector across a number of destinations in Europe North America Africa India Arabia and Oceania Practices such as baited bear hunting trophy hunting of threatened species and hunting for conservation are debated along with the impact of this type of tourism on indigenous communities and on wider societies Research on all aspects of consumptive wildlife tourism is included which for the purposes of the book is defined to include all tourism that involves the intended killing of wildlife for sport purposes and may include the harvest of wildlife products This includes among others recreational hunting big game hunting and safari operations traditional indigenous hunting game bird shooting hunting with hounds freshwater angling and saltwater game fishing etc This is the first book to specifically address tourist aspects of consumption of wildlife It will appeal to tourism and recreation academics and students tourism industry operators community tourism planners and wildlife managers

Politics and Resistance of Coal in Australia and India Ruchira Talukdar, 2025-01-31 Since 2009 international climate activism has focused on stopping coalmining in solidarity with local and Indigenous struggles that are resisting coalmining Based on ethnographic and historic research in Australia and India this book compares the politics and resistance to coal in the two countries particularly focusing on the time period between 2009 and 2018 and the case of the Carmichael coalmine in Queensland and the Mahan coalmine in central India This book shows differences and similarities in the political economy of coal and creates understanding about the significantly different imperatives and narratives of anti coal environmentalism in Australia and India Through the Stop Adani movement and its collaboration with the Wangan and Jagalingou Traditional Owners and farmers against coalmining in Queensland and Greenpeace and forest based communities resisting coalmining in Madhya Pradesh Ruchira Talukdar not only explores anti coal movement dynamics but also how these movements grapple with the violation of Indigenous land rights through coal extraction in both places Drawing on differences and patterns in Australian and Indian anti coal activism this book proposes a global outlook an intersectional framework beyond the singularity of stopping coal that can encapsulate visions for secure futures of communities on the frontlines of fossil fuel struggles for climate activism The conclusions help to decolonize climate activism as well as make it cognizant of global North South contextual differences for effective solidarity The author s unique vantage point through experience in environmental activism over 20 years across Australia and India combined with research in both countries makes this book a crucial resource for scholars and practitioners in just transition climate politics and environmental activism across the global North and South

Themes in Geographic Thought (Routledge Revivals) Milton Harvey, Brian Holly, 2014-03-18 Themes in Geographic Thought first published in 1981 explores in breadth and depth the interrelationships among the history of Geography geographic thought and methodology specifically focusing on the interactions between geographical research and various contemporary philosophical schools positivism pragmatism functionalism phenomenology existentialism idealism realism and Marxism An attempt is made to synthesise Geography s historically rich tradition with the current diversity in approaches to the discipline based on the belief that geographic thought at any point in time is a manifestation of the mutual influence between the prevailing philosophical viewpoints and the major methodological approaches in vogue Each chapter presents an overview of the concrete ideas of a particular school of philosophy and stresses its relevance and impact on various aspects of Geography

More-than-Human Jamie Lorimer, Timothy Hodgetts, 2024-04-09 This text offers the first book length introduction to more than human geography exploring its key ideas main debates and future prospects An opening chapter traces the origins and emergence of this field of enquiry and positions more than human geography as a response to a set of intellectual and political crises in Western thought and politics It identifies key literatures and thinkers and reflects on the varying usages and meanings of the idea of the more than human Three subsequent sections explore cross cutting themes that draw together the disparate strands of more than human geography examining new materialisms developed in the field analysing knowledge practices and methodologies and finally reflecting on the political and ethical implications of a more than human approach A final chapter examines the tensions between this approach and cognate work in environmental geography to review the strengths and the limitations of more than human geographies and to speculate as to their near future development Introducing the key idea of more than human geography this book will be an important resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of human geography environmental geography cultural and social geography and political geography

Greening the Academy Samuel Fassbinder, Anthony Nocella, Richard Kahn, 2012-12-30 This is the academic Age of the Neoliberal Arts Campuses as places characterized by democratic debate and controversy wide ranges of opinion typical of vibrant public spheres and service to the larger society are everywhere being creatively destroyed in order to accord with market and military models befitting the academic industrial complex While it has become increasingly clear that facilitating the sustainability movement is the great

21st century educational challenge at hand this book asserts that it is both a dangerous and criminal development today that sustainability in higher education has come to be defined by the complex friendly green campus initiatives of science technology engineering and management programs By contrast Greening the Academy Ecopedagogy Through the Liberal Arts takes the standpoints of those working for environmental and ecological justice in order to critique the unsustainable disciplinary limitations within the humanities and social sciences as well as provide tactical reconstructive openings toward an empowered liberal arts for sustainability Greening the Academy thus hopes to speak back with a collective demand that sustainability education be defined as a critical and moral vocation comprised of the diverse types of humanistic study that will benefit the well being of our emerging planetary community and its numerous common locales Education for

Sustainable Development Brian Chalkley, Martin Haigh, David Higgitt, 2013-09-13 In 2005 The United Nations launched its Decade of Education for Sustainable Development which recognises that education including Higher Education is the key to the change in social attitudes that will be needed to protect the welfare of future generations This involves helping learners to live as though the future matters and to achieve ecoliteracy This includes the understanding that personal lifestyle decisions may have consequences ranging from climate change through loss of biodiversity to pollution and resource depletion that may permit environmental degradation on a planetary scale It also involves helping them to develop the skills needed to cope with such challenges This international collection of research papers and position statements from special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education and Applied Environmental Education and Communication written by many of the leading practitioners in the field aims to provide resources and practical guidance for all seeking to promote and engage in education for a sustainable future Rabindranath Tagore encouraged each learner to make their actions demonstrate a harmonious union between education and environment David Orr argued that the world needs people who live well in their places to make the world both habitable and humane and that the main challenge for education is to help learners make their minds fit for life on Earth This book tries to chart a practical route towards these objectives This book was previously published as special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education and Applied Environmental Education and Communication Understanding Coexistence with Wildlife Simon Pooley, John D. C. Linnell, Ursula Münster, Thom van Dooren, Alexandra Zimmermann, 2022-03-25

International Perspectives on Natural Disasters: Occurrence, Mitigation, and Consequences Joseph P. Stoltman, John Lidstone, Lisa M. DeChano, 2007-03-01 Reports of natural disasters fill the media with regularity Places in the world are affected by natural disaster events every day Such events include earthquakes cyclones tsunamis wildfires the list could go on for considerable length In the 1990s there was a concentrated focus on natural disaster information and mitigation during the International Decade for Natural Disasters Reduction IDNDR The information was technical and provided the basis for major initiatives in building structures designed for seismic safety slope stability severe storm warning systems and global monitoring and reporting Mitigation or planning in the event that natural hazards prevalent in a region would suddenly become natural disasters was a major goal of the decade long program During the IDNDR this book was conceptualized and planning for its completion began The editors saw the need for a book that would reach a broad range of readers who were not actively or directly engaged in natural disasters relief or mitigation planning but who were in decision making positions that provided an open window for addressing natural disaster issues Those people were largely elected public officials teachers non governmental organization staff and staff of faith based organizations Those people for the most part come to know very well the human and physical characteristics of the place in which they are based With that local outreach in mind the editors intended the book to encourage readers to 1
