Nature, mind, and death C. J. Ducasse, 1951      Nature, Mind, and Death Curt John Ducasse, 1951 C J Ducasse Professor of Philosophy in Brown University in this volume undertakes to clarify the nature of the relation between mind and body To develop the numerous analyses necessary in such a way that they are not arbitrary such as purely conventional definitions of terms can only supply but so that they are empirical and so far as they go authoritative analyses has been undertaken in Book I Analyses of the Fundamental Categories which are necessary to the development of the argument follow Part II with an especially fine and full treatment of Causality Basic to the argument of the whole book is the criterion which determines whether a given event is mental or material and the implication of this problem is developed in Part III concerning the nature the constituents and the operation of the mind and the nature of the knowledge a mind has of material and objective things and events Finally the conclusions which the three preceding parts seem to warrant are set forth in Part IV concerning the mind body relation and the implications as to the possibility or impossibility that a mind or some part of a mind may survive the death of the body back flap      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1918      Night Comes Dale C.
