Nature And Madness:

Nature and Madness Paul Shepard, 1998 Through much of history our relationship with the earth has been plagued by ambivalence we not only enjoy and appreciate the forces and manifestations of nature we seek to plunder alter and control them Here Paul Shepard uncovers the cultural roots of our ecological crisis and proposes ways to repair broken bonds with the earth our past and nature Ultimately encouraging he notes There is a secret person undamaged in every individual We have not lost and cannot lose the genuine impulse Nature and Madness , Through much of history our relationship with the earth has been plagued by ambivalence we not only enjoy and appreciate the forces and manifestations of nature we seek to plunder alter and control them Here Paul Shepard uncovers the cultural roots of our ecological crisis and proposes ways to repair broken bonds with the earth our past and nature Ultimately encouraging he notes There is a secret person undamaged in every individual We have not lost and cannot lose the genuine impulse The Love of Nature and the End of the

World Shierry Weber Nicholzen, 2003-02-28 A psychological exploration of how the love of nature can coexist in our psyches with apathy toward environmental destruction Virtually everyone values some aspect of the natural world Yet many people are surprisingly unconcerned about environmental issues treating them as the province of special interest groups Seeking to understand how our appreciation for the beauty of nature and our indifference to its destruction can coexist in us Shierry Weber Nicholzen explores dimensions of our emotional experience with the natural world that are so deep and painful that they often remain unspoken The Love of Nature and the End of the World is a gathering of meditations and collages Its evocations of our emotional attachment to the natural world and the emotional impact of environmental deterioration are meant to encourage individual and collective reflection on a difficult dilemma Nicholzen draws on work in environmental philosophy and ecopsychology the writings of psychoanalytic thinkers such as Wilfred Bion Donald Meltzer and D W Winnicott and ideas from Buddhist and Sufi traditions She shows how our emotional responses to the vulnerabilities of the natural world range from intense caring and compassion through grief and outrage to diffuse depression Individual chapters focus on silence and the process whereby we move from the unspoken to the spoken the love of nature the perceptual reciprocity with the natural world to which we might mature beauty in the human and natural realms the psychological impact of the destruction of the natural world and reflections on the future Lectures on the Morbid Anatomy, Nature, and Treatment, of Acute and Chronic Diseases, Delivered in the Theatre of Anatomy, Webb Street by the Late John Armstrong John Armstrong, 1837 The Nature of Hate and the Hatred of Nature in Hispanic Literatures Beatriz

Rivera-Barnes, 2020-12-16 The Nature of Hate and the Hatred of Nature in Hispanic Literatures retraces the nature of hatred and the hatred of nature from the earliest traditions of Western literature including Biblical texts Medieval Spanish literature early Spanish Renaissance texts to nineteenth and twentieth century Iberian and Latin American literatures The nature of hate is neither hate in its weakened form as in disliking or loving less nor hate in its righteous form as in I hate hatred rather hate in its primal form as told and conveyed in so many culturally influential Bible stories that are at the root of hatred as it manifests itself today The hatred of nature is not only contempt for the natural world but also the idea of nature hating in return thus inspiring even more hatred of nature While some chapters such as the one dedicated to La Celestina focus more on the nature of hate and the hatred of love they do address the hatred of nature as when Celestina conjures Pluto who happens to be closer to nature than to Satan Other chapters such as the ones dedicated to the Latin American novels set in the jungle focus more on the hatred of nature but ultimately turn to the nature of hatred by analyzing hatred and the descent into madness In the final chapters Beatriz Rivera Barnes simultaneously addresses the nature of hatred and the hatred of nature as well as the ecophilia ecophobia debate in twentieth century Latin American literatures and considers if not an assimilation of hate possibly the cannibalizing of hate Nature and Society in Historical Context Mikulas Teich,Roy Porter,Bo Gustafsson,1997-02-13 A collection of essays describing the historical connection between nature and society

Understanding Foucault, Understanding Modernism David Scott,2017-02-23 Michel Foucault continues to be regarded as one of the most essential thinkers of the twentieth century A brilliantly evocative writer and conceptual creator his influence is clearly discernible today across nearly every discipline philosophy and history certainly as well as literary and critical theory religious and social studies and the arts This volume exploits Foucault s insistent blurring of the self imposed limits formed by the disciplines with each author in this volume discovering in Foucault s work a model useful for challenging not only these divisions but developing a more fundamental interrogation of modernism Foucault himself saw the calling into question of modernism to be the permanent task of his life s work thereby opening a path for rethinking the social Understanding Foucault Understanding Modernism shows on the one hand that literature and the arts play a fundamental structural role in Foucault s works while on the other hand it shifts to the foreground what it presumes to be motivating Foucault the interrogation of the problem of modernism To that end even his most explicitly historical or strictly epistemological and methodological enquiries directly engage the problem of modernism through the works of writers and artists from de Sade Mallarm Baudelaire to Artaud Manet Borges Roussel and Bataille This volume therefore adopts a transdisciplinary approach as a way to establish connections between Foucault s thought and the aesthetic problems that emerge out of those specific literary and artistic works methods and styles designated modern The aim of this volume is to provide a resource for students and scholars not only in the fields of literature and philosophy but as well those interested in the intersections of art and intellectual history religious studies and critical theory Lectures on the Morbid Anatomy, Nature, and Treatment, of Acute and Chronic Diseases John Armstrong,1834 Mourning Nature Ashlee Cunsolo,Karen Landman,2017-05-17 We are facing unprecedented environmental challenges including global climate change large scale industrial development rapidly increasing species extinction ocean acidification and deforestation challenges that require new vocabularies and new ways to express grief and sorrow over the disappearance degradation and loss of nature Seeking to redress the silence around ecologically based anxiety in academic and public domains and to extend the concepts of sadness anger and loss Mourning Nature creates a lexicon for the recognition and expression of emotions related to environmental degradation Exploring the ways in which grief is experienced in numerous contexts this groundbreaking collection draws on classical philosophical artistic and poetic elements to explain environmental melancholia Understanding that it is not just how we mourn but what we mourn that defines us the authors introduce new perspectives on conservation sustainability and our relationships with nature An ecological elegy for a time of climatic and environmental upheaval Mourning Nature challenges readers to turn devastating events into an opportunity for positive change Contributors include Glenn Albrecht Murdoch University retired Jessica Marion Barr Trent University Sebastian Braun University of North Dakota Ashlee Cunsolo Labrador Institute of Memorial University Amanda Di Battista York University Franklin Ginn University of Edinburgh Bernie Krause soundscape ecologist author and independent scholar Lisa Kretz University of Evansville Karen Landman University of Guelph Patrick Lane Poet Andrew Mark independent scholar Nancy Menning Ithaca College John Charles Ryan University of New England Catriona Sandilands York University and Helen Whale independent scholar

The Cyclopædia of Practical Medicine; Comprising Treatises on the Nature and Treatment of Diseases, Materia Medica and Therapeutics, Medical Jurisprudence ... Edited by John Forbes ... Alexander Tweedie ... John Conolly, 1835 From Violence to Speaking Out Leonard Lawlor, 2016-08-30 Drawing on a career long exploration of 1960s French philosophy Leonard Lawlor seeks a solution to the problem of the worst violence The worst violence is the reaction of total apocalypse without remainder it is the reaction of complete negation and death it is nihilism Lawlor argues that it is not just transcendental violence that must be minimised all violence must itself be reduced to its lowest level He offers new ways of speaking to best achieve the least violence which he creatively appropriates from Foucault Derrida and Deleuze and Guattari as speaking freely speaking distantly and speaking in tongues

Maladie Mentale Et Psychologie Michel Foucault, 1987-01-01 Analyzes the specifics of mental illness and the forms attributed to it by psychology and determines the social conditions that define the status of mental illness

Reasoning With Who We Are Mark Redhead, 2014-04-04 Public reasoning a manner of democratic deliberation that can generate meaningful conceptions of justice the collective good and other unifying political values among individuals subscribing to varied and contrasting doctrines has been a perennial concern among political philosophers from historical thinkers such as Immanuel Kant to contemporary theorists like John Rawls and Jurgen Habermas In this ambitious study Mark Redhead explores versions of public reasoning in the works of six of the most important voices in contemporary political theory Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor Hannah Arendt Seyla Benhabib Michel Foucault and William E Connolly He identifies an important but as of yet unappreciated version of public reasoning one that provides creative and effective responses to questions at the forefront of liberal democratic political thought human rights secularity and global governance

A Philosophical Treatise on the Nature and Constitution of

Man George Harris, 1876      Nature Sir Norman Lockyer, 1906      Rhetoric and Reality in Plato's "Phaedrus" David A. White, 1993-01-01 The Phaedrus is well known for the splendid mythical panorama Socrates develops in his second speech and for its graphic descriptions of erotic behavior This book shows how the details of the myth and the accounts of interaction between lovers are based on a carefully articulated metaphysical structure It follows the dialogue as narrated showing how passages that may not appear relevant to metaphysics have been deployed to heighten the vision of reality that Socrates develops in his second speech and concludes with an Epilogue in which the metaphysical principles adumbrated in the dialogue are ordered and briefly developed This Epilogue helps illustrate the continuity between the Phaedrus and subsequent dialogues such as the Parmenides Sophist Statesman and Philebus in which methodological and metaphysical concerns are dominant for Plato As a result new connections emerge between the metaphysical domain in Plato's thought and the more visible and vibrant areas of the psychology of eros and practical rhetoric Back cover

Jane Austen Tony Tanner, 2017-07-12 Tony Tanner's classic text on Jane Austen addresses the issues that have always occupied the author's most perceptive critics and offers an illuminating and refreshing analysis of Austen's novels Tanner shows how Austen changed from a basically accepting view of society to a more questioning one and considers the problems of authority power and the position of women as well as the relationship between ethics language and behaviour This reissued edition features a new Preface by leading Romantic scholar Marilyn Gaull who examines Tanner's background and places the original work in context Lively and informative the Preface helps to reinforce and explain the continued importance of Tanner's work Accompanied by an insightful Note on the Text by Austen scholar John Wiltshire and an expanded Bibliography and Index this is a timely republication of a study which is now regarded as one of the finest and most accessible introductions to a great novelist

The Social Nature of Mental Illness Leonard Bowers, 2003-09-02 Len Bowers offers a critique of the theories of mental illness as a social construct He examines the rationality of these theories what they might mean and in which cases they are to be accepted or rejected

Nature Marie Addyman, 2021 A journey through texts on about or reflecting our experience of the natural world

Spirituality, Theology and Mental Health Christopher Cook, 2013 Theology Spirituality and Mental Health provides reflections from leading international scholars and practitioners in theology anthropology philosophy and psychiatry as to the nature of spirituality and its relevance to constructions of mental disorder and mental healthcare Key issues are explored in depth including the nature of spirituality and recent debates concerning its importance in contemporary psychiatric practice relationship between demons and wellbeing in ancient religious texts and contemporary practice religious conversion and the nature and importance of myth and theology in shaping human self understanding These are used as a basis for exploring some of the overarching intellectual and practical issues that arise when different disciplines engage together with an attempt to better understand the relationship between spirituality and mental health and translate their findings into mental healthcare practice
