War at Sea in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance John B. Hattendorf, Richard W. Unger, 2003 Wide ranging in place and time yet tightly focused on particular concerns these new and original specialist articles show how observations on the early history of warfare based on the relatively stable conditions of the late seventeenth century ignore the realities of war at sea in the middle ages and renaissance In these studies naval historians firmly grounded in the best current understanding of the period take account of developments in ships guns and the language of public policy on war at sea and in so doing give a stimulating introduction to five hundred years of maritime violence in Europe BOOK JACKET

A Guide to Naval Strategy Bernard Brodie, 1977 ULTRA at Sea John Winton, 1988 Winston describes in exciting detail the ways the Allies acquired Nazi special intelligence and then used it to find and destroy battleships Fighting the Great War at Sea Norman Friedman, 2014-10-22 The overriding image of the First World War is the bloody stalemate of the Western Front but although much of the action did occur on land the overall shape of the war _ even the inevitability of British participation _ arose out of its maritime character It was essentially a struggle about access to worldwide resources most clearly seen in the desperate German attempts to deal with the American industrial threat which ultimately levered the United States into the war and thus a consequence of British sea control rn This radical new book concentrates on the way in which each side tried to use or deny the sea to the other and in so doing it describes rapid wartime changes not only in ship and weapon technology but also in the way naval warfare was envisaged and fought Combat produced many surprises some like the impact of the mine and torpedo are familiar but this book also brings to light many previously unexplored subjects like creative new tactical practices and improved command and control rn The contrast between expectation and reality had enormous consequences not only for the course of the war but also for the way navies developed afterwards This book melds strategic technical and tactical aspects to reveal the First World War from a fresh perspective but also demonstrates how its perceived lessons dominated the way navies prepared for the Second Strategy and the Sea N. A. M. Rodger, Jeremiah Ross Dancy, Benjamin Darnell, Evan Wilson, 2016 An important book presenting the latest insights by the leading world authorities on naval history This book presents a wide range of new research on many aspects of naval strategy in the early modern and modern periods Among the themes covered are the problems of naval manpower the nature of naval leadership and naval officers intelligence naval training and education and strategic thinking and planning The book is notable for giving extensive consideration to navies other than those of Britain its empire and the United States It explores a number of fascinating subjects including how financial difficulties frustrated the attempts by Louis XIV s ministers to build a strong navy how the absence of centralised power in the Dutch Republic had important consequences for Dutch naval power how Hitler s relationship with his admirals severely affected German naval strategy during the Second World War and many more besides The book is a Festschrift in honour of John B Hattendorf for more than thirty years Ernest J King Professor of Maritime History at the US Naval War College and an influential figure in naval affairs worldwide N A M Rodger is Senior Research Fellow at All Souls College Oxford J Ross Dancy is Assistant Professor of Military History at Sam Houston State University Benjamin Darnell is a D Phil candidate at New College Oxford Evan Wilson is Caird Senior Research Fellow at the National Maritime Museum Greenwich Contributors Tim Benbow Peter John Brobst Jaap R Bruijn Olivier Chaline J Ross Dancy Benjamin Darnell James Goldrick Agust n Guimer Paul Kennedy Keizo Kitagawa Roger Knight AndrewD Lambert George C Peden Carla Rahn Phillips Werner Rahn Paul M Ramsey Duncan Redford N A M Rodger Jakob Seerup Matthew S Seligmann Geoffrey Till Evan Wilson Harper's Pictorial Library of the World War Albert Bushnell Hart, 1920 The United
