in South Vietnam focusing in particular on combat waged by ordinary Sailors Vietnam was the bloodiest war in recent naval history and War in the Shallows strives above all else to provide insight into the men who fought it and honor their service and sacrifice Illustrated throughout with photographs and maps Author John Darrell Sherwood has served as a historian with the Naval History and Heritage Command NHHC since 1997 Provided by publisher United States History - Part B, American Book Publishing Record, 2004 The History Buff's Guide to the Presidents Thomas R. Flagel, 2012-08-01 Did you know that Warren G Harding played poker in the White House at least once a week Or that Richard Nixon was a Quaker The History Buff's Guide to the Presidents takes a peek behind the scenes revealing everything you ever wanted to know about the families personal habits and social lives of the most powerful job in the world Author Thomas R Flagel's unique perspective on the presidents makes this an essential book for the merely curious and hardcore history buffs alike From George Washington to Barack Obama Flagel's top ten lists compile the most religious presidents the biggest scandals and more to present a comprehensive history of the American presidents Do You Think You Know The Presidents Top Ten Presidential Pastimes Top Ten Most Controversial Elections Top Ten Assassinations and Attempts Top Ten Debt Presidencies Top Ten Most Influential First Ladies Military Occupations in the Age of Self-Determination James Gannon, 2008-07-30 This book offers a perspective decidedly different from that of the Bush Administration and its neoconservative supporters Since the United Nations embraced the right of national self determination in 1945 the historical odds have been unfavorable to great powers that impose military occupations on smaller nations This point is bolstered by the evidence from history and is particularly pertinent to the American occupation of Iraq where a robust insurgency has delayed projected successes by the administration and wartime planners Drawing on historical antecedents to the occupation of Iraq Gannon examines events such as the British Struggles in Palestine French enterprises in Algeria the Soviet debacle in Afghanistan and other instances in which occupying powers to demonstrate the struggles and failures of occupying powers in the face of determined insurgencies Since the United Nations adopted the principle of national self determination in 1945 great powers like the United States that occupy smaller nations like Iraq lose more often than not when confronted with credible insurgencies The evidence is taken from recent history the Zionist victory over Britain in Palestine and the defeats of France in Algeria America in Vietnam the Soviet Union in Afghanistan and Israel in Lebanon On the surface these outcomes seem perverse powerful modern armies brought down by rag tag rebels The explanation comes from the types of warfare fought Great powers are equipped to fight other great powers in great battles over large territory Rebels fight shadow wars neutralizing the fire power and mobility of the occupying army Insurgencies continue for years allowing political considerations to come into play including propaganda international pressure and the stream of dead and wounded returning from the war zone The home front turns against the war and new policymakers conclude that the nation's interests are best served by getting out History is not an exact science so the judgment here is expressed in probability not certainty witness
