Eustacia no not exactly ambitious luxurious I ought to be of the same vein to make you happy I suppose Tempestuous

Eustacia Vye passes her days dreaming of passionate love and the escape it may bring from the small community of Egdon Heath. Hearing that Clym Yeobright is to return from Paris she sets her heart on marrying him, believing that through him she can leave rural life and find fulfilment elsewhere. But she is to be disappointed for Clym has dreams of his own and they have little in common with Eustacia's. Their unhappy marriage causes havoc in the lives of those close to them, in particular Damon Wildeve, Eustacia's former lover, Clym's mother and his cousin Thomasin. The Return of the Native illustrates the tragic potential of romantic illusion and how its protagonists fail to recognize their opportunities to control their own destinies. Penny Boumelha's introduction examines the classical and mythological references and the interplay of class and sexuality in the novel. This edition essentially Hardy's original book version of the novel also includes notes, a glossary, chronology and bibliography.

The Story of Richard Kanyarukiga, Campus 2000: The Return to Rutungo Tendo Lubogo, 2006-06-21

As a fictional narrative with the purpose of pure entertainment, The Story of Richard Kanyarukiga Campus 2000 introduces us to Richard Kanyarukiga, a maturing adult during a turbulent period of Uganda's recent history. Kanyarukiga comes from Rutungo, a fictional area in Southwestern Uganda bordering Rwanda and Tanzania. His people, the Banyarutungu, have much in common with neighbouring Banyakitara and other people in Uganda, Rwanda, Tanzania and the Congo. Kanyarukiga finds himself a refugee in neighbouring Tanzania where he obtains employment as an assistant lecturer at the place where he previously attended as an undergraduate, The University of Dar es Salaam. Kanyarukiga is a saved Christian of the balokole school. His family and others became balokole during the Great East African Revival of the 1930s which started like wildfire in Gahini, Rwanda and quickly spread throughout East Africa and to the rest of the world. The novel traces Kanyarukiga's day to day activities, thoughts and impressions as he lectures his students at the University. He eventually meets with Peace Ndizeye, a fellow Ugandan and student at the same university who is also a saved Christian of the balokole school. Kanyarukiga returns to Uganda and subsequently marries her. The story closes with Kanyarukiga as a newly appointed ambassador.

The Story of Richard Kanyarukiga Campus 2000 succeeds in capturing an important moment in Uganda's recent history while still entertaining readers at the same time.

The Psalms of the Return (Book V, Psalms 107-150) Michael D. Goulder, 1998-04-01

Book V of the Psalter, Psalms 107-150, divides into three with the Songs of the Ascents, 120-134, as the central section and the first and third units following parallel structures: historical Davidic, alphabetical Hallel psalms. The units are all compositions of the Return period: 107-119 for the reconstruction of the Temple, 120-134 for Nehemiah's wall building, 135-150 for Ezra's mission. Psalms 120-134 follow the episodes of Nehemiah's memoir in order. All three groups show evidence of evening-morning alternation and were intended for festival use: 107-118 at the Passover of Ezra 6, 120-134 at the Tabernacles of Nehemiah 12, 135-150 at Ezra's Tabernacles, Neh 8.

The Return Hakan Nesser, 2010-09-03

The author of Borkmann's Point spins a story that leaves even the most veteran crime novel readers chilled. A new case for Chief Inspector Van Veeteren: the complicated history of a nearly perfect murder. On a sunny August day, a man is released from prison On a rainy April day children at play find his corpse The fact that the dead man is Leopold Verhaven only becomes clear after some time because the mutilated corpse is without its head legs and feet Who would be interested in killing this man a double murderer who spent 24 years in prison Determined to let no case go unsolved Chief Inspector Van Veeteren reopens the case What he discovers is that Verhaven was a star sprinter before he went to prison for allegedly killing two of his lovers However he never confessed to the murders and spent a lifetime proclaiming his innocence Was he killed because someone thought he had not been punished enough Or was someone afraid of Verhaven s revenge A terrible suspicion stalks Van Veeteren had Verhaven been telling the truth Was he really innocent

Transcultural Memory and Globalised Modernity in Contemporary Indo-English Novels Nadia Butt,2015-09-14 This book places transcultural memory in the South Asian cultural and literary context Divided into two parts the book first defines transcultural memory in the age of globalised modernity both as a theory and social practice Then it examines contemporary Indo English novels from India and Pakistan with the theoretical and methodological tool of transcultural memory to shed new light on the connection between memory and modernity and memory and South Asian cultures in the wake of new social and political transformations on the Indian subcontinent A special focus on commemorative tropes in the novels not only show the possibility of a dialogue with different versions of the past but also how such a dialogue shapes processes of remembrance between and beyond borders Hence the books comes up with alternative ways of reading the Indo English novels divesting the concept of trans cultural memory from its Euro centrism and claiming it as equally significant in comprehending the new configurations of memory and modernity in non Western locations
