Thornton Goode Jr.,2020-02-27 This story is about an artist from Atlanta who goes on a month long summer vacation to the coast of Maine to paint the ocean Over a week before leaving he starts having continuous realistic dreams where he is back in the late 1800s and meets a fisherman there while studying with the famous American seascape artist Winslow Homer The dreams continue during his vacation Little did he realize how these dreams would affect his present life until he sees an oil portrait painted in 1901 At that moment his life is changed forever Bulletin of Photography ,1922

Beardsley, 1920 Lely & the Stuart Portrait Painters Charles Henry Collins Baker, 1912 Anniversary Essays on Alexander Pope's 'The Rape of the Lock' Don Nichol, 2016-01-27 Alexander Pope's heroic comical mock epic poem The Rape of the Lock continues to sparkle after three hundred years as a peerless gem in the canon of English literature In celebration of its tercentenary this collection brings together ten eminent scholars with new perspectives on the poem Their approaches reflect the vast range of interpretation of Pope's text from discussions of religion gender and eighteenth century biological science to an interview with Sophie Gee about her novelization of the poem in The Scandal of the Season These stimulating analyses will be essential reading for students and teachers of The Rape of the Lock and a valuable resource for investigating eighteenth century culture The British Journal of Photography William Crookes, T. A. Malone, George Shadbolt, J. Traill Taylor, William Blanchard Bolton, Thomas Bedding, 1921 Final Portrait Kellie Sisson Snider, 2000-01-20 Everyone has a different story to live even when they walk under the same wet sky every day of their lives Even when the same wickedness approaches them in the same dark mask no two stories are ever the same Everyone makes her story her own Everyone interprets the plot in her own style and decides whether to give the antagonist her heart or her fist her peace or her fury And how she interprets the story has everything to do with how her story will end from the prologue This is the way it was for Cassandra Dee Orgeron and Helen Boudreaux in the deep south of Louisiana in the early 1970's Each had learned about horror at the hand of their father but only one would rise above it Their friend the artist Kat Breaux would document their changes in a chilling series of portraits that would earn her fame and fortune but ultimately break her heart This is the story of two incest victims who take very different paths as they try to overcome their family legacy One path leads to destruction the other is the road of hope The Portrait in Byzantine Illuminated Manuscripts Iohannis Spatharakis,2024-09-02

in the Second Century AD Christian Niederhuber,2022 Through systematic case studies of Faustina the Younger s and Marcus Aurelius portraits on coins and in sculpture this book provides new insights into the functioning of the imperial image in Rome in the second century AD moving a difficult much discussed subject forward decisively Nomadic Narratives, Visual Forces Maria Tamboukou,2010 The most thoughtful integration of paintings and epistolary narrative that I know Nomadic Narratives Visual Forces shows how letters do more than depict the real painter the analysis problematizes the relations between visual and written texts Insights from the author s meticulous archival research with autobiographical materials engage dynamically with Gwen John s art work resulting in a dialogic narrative about the complex subjectivity of a woman artist working in a male dominated world Drawing on contemporary theory Maria Tamboukou offers a new analytic perspective on the relation between the visual and the epistolary which will push the narrative turn in social research in exciting directions Catherine Kohler Riessman Boston College Book Jacket Late Antique Portraits and Early Christian Icons Andrew Paterson,2022-06-30 This book focuses on the earliest surviving Christian icons dated to the sixth and seventh centuries which bear many resemblances to three other well established genres of sacred portrait also produced during late antiquity namely Roman imperial portraiture Graeco Egyptian funerary portraiture and panel paintings depicting non Christian deities Andrew Paterson addresses two fundamental questions about devotional portraiture both Christian and non Christian in the late antique period Firstly how did artists visualise and construct these images of divine or sanctified figures

And secondly how did their intended viewers look at respond to and even interact with these images Paterson argues that a key factor of many of these portrait images is the emphasis given to the depicted gaze which invites an intensified form of personal encounter with the portrait's subject The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history theology religion and classical studies Catalogue of Portraits in the Possession of the University, Colleges, City, and County of Oxford Oxford Historical Society (Oxford, England),1912 The Portrait in Byzantine Illuminated Manuscripts , A Work in Progress Matt Haydock,2021-09-16 When Lady Justine Harfield drowned in the stream that runs through the village of Prinsted the coroner had returned a verdict of accidental death Twenty years later Lady Justine's daughter Rose who was only five years old at the time of her mother's death remained to be convinced of the correctness of that verdict She asks Brazelle a man she has only recently met to investigate Brazelle is at first reluctant to agree but is eventually persuaded to take a fresh look at the matter Although his initial enquiries fail to throw up anything that appears to conflict with the coroner's verdict he very quickly becomes aware of some rather mysterious and odd circumstances surrounding the tragedy and decides to focus his attention on those The wealthy Harfield family has maintained its position of prominence in the parish of Prinsted for over three hundred years and possesses a number of family mysteries that stretch back that far As Brazelle investigates the context of Lady Justine's death he is also drawn into exploring some of these age old mysteries although it isn't just simple curiosity that motivates him but something far more complex There is an air of mystery surrounding Brazelle himself and the further he researches the more he realises there is a very clear interplay between the Harfield family mysteries and some of his own deep secrets The truth Brazelle eventually discovers is not only unexpected and shocking but has elements that are so sensitive he decides they should never be made public The Magazine of Art Marion Harry Spielmann,1900
