Stratton, Jr., 1997-05-01 In The New Color Line authors Paul Craig Roberts and Lawrence M Stratton boldly challenge the affirmative action policies that have governed America for the past thirty years The authors show that equality under the law has given way to legal privileges based on race and gender Liberal society is being lost along with the presumption of goodwill that is the basis of democracy The New Color Line offers an explanation for these ironic outcomes judicial and regulatory edicts have taken the place of statutory law accountable to the people and coercion has replaced persuasion This happened because elites regarded democracy as the problem not the solution Poisoned Ivy Eleanor Kerlow, Index to Black Periodicals 1995 G K HALL, G. secretive institution in the American government the Supreme Court of photos Current Law Index ,1995 Poison Ivy Evan Mandery,2025-03-18 Hailed as a staggering portrait of inequality in America Philip Dray Poison Ivy tells the bigger seedier story of how elite colleges create paths to admission available only to the wealthy despite rhetoric to the contrary In a lively and trenchant Washington Monthly account Evan Mandery a Harvard graduate and current professor at a public college that serves low and middle income students reveals how tacit agreements between exclusive Ivy plus schools and white affluent suburbs create widespread de facto segregation And as a college degree continues to be the surest route to upward mobility the inequality bred in our broken higher education system is now a principal driver of skyrocketing income inequality Mandery contrasts the lip service paid to opportunity by so many elite colleges and universities with schools that actually walk the walk Now in an accessible paperback format Poison Ivy is a no holds barred takedown Forbes that synthesizes fascinating insider information on everything from how students are evaluated unfair tax breaks and questionable fundraising practices to suburban rituals testing tutoring tuition schemes and more This bold provocative indictment of America s elite colleges shows us exactly what s at stake and what will be possible if we muster the collective will to transform it The People V. Harvard Law Andrew Peyton Thomas,2005 The People v Harvard Law turns the confrontation that Kiwi Camara touched off into a fascinating case history while showing that it is only the latest front in a culture war that has ravaged the nation s oldest and most prestigious law school for the last twenty five years Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Acting White Ron Christie,2025-06-25 In the tradition of Randall Kennedy s Nigger and Shelby Steele s The Content of Our Character Acting White demonstrates how the charge that any African American who is successful well mannered or well educated is acting white is a slur that continues to haunt blacks Ron Christie traces the complex history of the phrase from Uncle Tom s Cabin to the tensions between Martin Luther King Jr and Malcolm X to Bill Cosby s controversial NAACP speech in 2004 The author also writes candidly of being challenged by black students for his acting white and also of being labeled a race traitor in Congress by daring to be Republican This lucid chronicle reveals how this prevalent put down sets back much of the hard earned progress for all blacks in American society Deftly argued and determinedly controversial this book is certain to spur thoughtful discussion for years to come Black Space Sherry L. Deckman,2022-01-14 Protests against racial injustice and anti Blackness have swept across elite colleges and universities in recent years exposing systemic racism and raising questions about what it means for Black students to belong at these institutions In Black Space Sherry L Deckman takes us into the lives of the members of the Kuumba Singers a Black student organization at Harvard with racially diverse members and a self proclaimed safe space for anyone but particularly Black students Uniquely focusing on Black students in an elite space where they are the majority Deckman provides a case study in how colleges and universities might reimagine safe spaces Through rich description and sharing moments in students everyday lives Deckman demonstrates the possibilities and challenges Black students face as they navigate campus culture and the refuge they find in this organization This work illuminates ways administrators faculty student affairs staff and indeed students themselves might productively address issues of difference and anti Blackness for the purpose of fostering critically inclusive campus environments Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997-04 Princeton Alumni Weekly Jesse Lynch Williams,Edwin Mark Norris,1986 Business Week ,1997 Scientific American ,1870-07 Monthly magazine devoted to topics of general scientific interest Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce,1960
