From the start of the war on the Eastern Front Hitler's Ostheer his Eastern Army and its associated forces would wage a vernichtungskrieg or war of annihilation in the East Never before had such a wide reaching campaign been fought The preparations for the war against the partisans began before the launches of Operation Barbarossa during which the Axis forces immediately put their plans into effect The effects upon the newly conquered territories were soon being felt The end of the initial phase of the German invasion of the Soviet Union was met by a Red Army winter offensive which began on 5 December 1941 As the author shows this had repercussions behind the German lines where the nascent Soviet partisan movement was attempting to grow and gain a foothold By the spring of 1942 those early Soviet partisan units were ready to expand The Germans aware of the military situation both on the frontlines and in the rear of their armies also prepared to counter the growing partisan threat The partisans undoubtedly made a significant contribution to Stalin's war effort by countering Axis plans to exploit occupied Soviet territories economically as well as providing valuable assistance to the Red Army by conducting systematic attacks against Hitler's rear communication network As the German military planned to continue the Russian campaign into the summer of 1942 new security forces were gathered together and sent to the Soviet Union and a new headquarters specifically organized to fight the guerrilla menace was established In this follow up study author Antonio Mu oz picks up the partisan and anti partisan struggle in the East where Hitler's War Against the Partisans During Operation Barbarossa left off The struggle behind the frontlines in Russia proved to be as grand and epic as the fight along the front lines Dr Mu oz describes this war of attrition along the entire breath of the USSR In 1942 the Ostheer acting on Adolf Hitler's orders launched their 1942 summer offensive which was aimed at capturing the Caucasus Mountains and the Russian oil fields that lay there Dr Mu oz not only covers the war behind the lines in every region of the occupied USSR but also describes the German anti partisan effort behind the lines or Army Group South as its forces drove into the Caucasus Mountains the Volga River bend and Stalingrad No other work has included the guerrilla and anti partisan struggle specific to the Stalingrad campaign Mu oz manages to accomplish this but also to convey the story of the rest of the partisan and anti guerrilla war in the rest of the USSR from the spring of 1942 to the spring of 1943
