Police Emergency Squad:

Emergency Squad Teddy Goral, 2007 Police Emergency Squad Stephen H. Schwartz, 1974-01-01 Police Rescue and Bomb Disposal Jason Byrnes, 2017-09-05 In police rescue there is no such word as can't. It CAN be done. Sergeant Ray Tyson 1976 This is the story of an elite unit that has been protecting public safety for 75 years. Every day the women and men of the NSW Police Rescue and Bomb Disposal Unit confront some of the most challenging and harrowing situations imaginable including recovering decomposing bodies from cliffs, cutting people out of the wreckage of crashed cars or disarming improvised explosive devices. Nerves of steel, compassion and dedication to duty are the core requirements for police rescue operators and bomb technicians. Police Rescue and Bomb Disposal takes you on a journey from the dark days of World War II when police first formed a unit to recover bodies from Sydney's cliffs to the unit leading rescue operations at the Granville train disaster, the Newcastle earthquake, the Thredbo landslide and other emergencies up to and including the Lindt Café siege. Drawing upon numerous interviews and official documents, this book is complimented by many never-seen-before images and is a fitting testament to the dedication and personal sacrifices made by a small band of highly skilled professionals.

Police Emergency Squad Stephen H. Schwartz, 1974 Papers on Appeal from an Order, Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2007 Accustomed to Her Face Axel Nissen, 2016-08-01 Drawing on historical documents and newspaper reports, this book provides a fascinating portrait of a diverse group of character actresses who left their stamp on Hollywood from the early sound era through the 1960s. The lives of 35 actresses are explored in detail. Some are familiar: Margaret Hamilton starred in dozens of films before and after her signature role as the Wicked Witch in The Wizard of Oz. Una Merkel nearly died when her mother committed suicide in 1945. Others are nearly forgotten: Maude Eburne owed her career to a spectacular fall on the Broadway stage in 1914. Greta Meyer, who played the quintessential German maid, came to Hollywood after years in New York's Yiddish theater, though she wasn't Jewish.

Supreme Court Appellate Division - First Department Case on Appeal, The Boys from the Hill Bernard Salmon, 2011-10-04 This retro urban novel is a tale about a group of working-class boys growing up in the Bronx during the late forties and early fifties. The story takes the young men from early adolescence to young manhood. It features, in particular, the lives of two of these boys who are close friends: Johnny and Tony. The novel centers on the street lives of the boys who, for a period of time, sink into fighting and violent gang activities. Eventually, they survive these negative activities and grow into normal living patterns as they become young men. Industrial Hygiene Newsletter, 1951 The Ambulance Ryan Corbett Bell, 2009 Over several centuries, the ambulance has evolved from horse-drawn wagons designed to remove wounded soldiers from the battlefield into high-speed emergency rooms on wheels staffed by skilled professionals. This thorough history follows the ambulance through every phase, focusing not just on the vehicles but on their role within the developing medical systems they served, as well as the political, social and economic influences that have shaped their advancement. Topics include the critical role of police ambulances in the development of the first emergency medical services the history of the ambulance intern breakthroughs in ambulance design and function from the horse drawn days to the present notable women in ambulance development and a fresh look at the first organized paramedic services More than 275 photographs and other illustrations accompany the text Historic Cities of the Islamic World C. Edmund Bosworth,2007-08-31 This book contains articles on historic cities of the Islamic world ranging from West Africa to Malaysia which over the centuries have been centres of culture and learning and of economic and commercial life and which have contributed much to the consolidation of Islam as a faith and as a social and political institution The articles have been taken from the second edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam completed in 2004 but in many cases expanded and rewritten All have been updated to include fresh historical information with note of contemporary social developments and population statistics The book thus delineates the urban background of Islam as it has evolved up to the present day highlighting the role of such great cities as Cairo Istanbul Baghdad and Delhi in Islamic history and also brings them together in a rich panorama illustrating one of mankind's greatest achievements the living organism of the city FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin ,1964 New York Supreme Court ,

Capital Moves Jefferson Cowie,2019-01-24 Find a pool of cheap pliable workers and give them jobs and soon they cease to be as cheap or as pliable What is an employer to do then Why find another poor community desperate for work This route one taken time and again by major American manufacturers is vividly chronicled in this fascinating account of RCA's half century long search for desirable sources of labor Capital Moves introduces us to the people most affected by the migration of industry and most importantly recounts how they came to fight against the idea that they were simply cheap labor Jefferson Cowie tells the dramatic story of four communities each irrevocably transformed by the opening of an industrial plant From the manufacturer's first factory in Camden New Jersey where it employed large numbers of southern and eastern European immigrants RCA moved to rural Indiana in 1940 hiring Americans of Scotch Irish descent for its plant in Bloomington Then in the volatile 1960s the company relocated to Memphis where African Americans made up the core of the labor pool Finally the company landed in northern Mexico in the 1970s a region rapidly becoming one of the most industrialized on the continent Supreme court , Home Johannes Lenhard,Farhan Samanani,2020-05-19 How are notions of home made and negotiated by ethnographers And how does the researcher relate to forms of home encountered during fieldwork Rather than searching for an abstract philosophical understanding of home this collection asks how home gains its meaning and significance through ongoing efforts to create sustain or remake a sense of home The volume explores how researchers and informants alike are always involved in the process of making and unmaking home and challenges readers to reimagine ethnographic practice in terms of active morally complex process of home making Contributions reach across the globe and across social contexts and the book includes chapters on council housing and middle class apartment buildings homelessness and migration problems with accessing the field as well as limiting it physical as well as sentimental notions of home and objects as well as inter human social relations Home draws attention to processes of sociality that normally remain analytically invisible and contributes to a growing and rich field of study on the anthropology of home

International Developments and Practices in Investigative Interviewing and Interrogation David Walsh, Gavin Oxburgh, Allison Redlich, Trond Myklebust, 2017-09-19 Techniques in the investigative interviewing and interrogation of victims witnesses and suspects of crime vary around the world according to a country s individual legal system religion and culture Whereas some countries have developed certain interview protocols for witnesses such as the ABE Guidelines and the NICHD protocol when interviewing children and the PEACE model of interviewing suspects other countries continue to use physical coercion and other questionable tactics to elicit information Until now there has been very little empirical information about the overall interview and interrogation practices in non western countries especially the Middle and Far East This book addresses this gap bringing together international experts from over 25 countries and providing in depth coverage of the various interview and interrogation techniques used across the globe Volume 1 focuses on the interviewing of victims and witnesses aiming to provide the necessary information for an understanding of how law enforcement agencies around the world gain valuable information from victims and witnesses in criminal cases Together the chapters that make up this volume and the accompanying volume on interviewing suspects draw on specific national case studies and practices examine contemporary challenges and identify best practice to enable readers to develop an international as well as a comparative perspective of developments worldwide in this important area of criminal investigation This book will be an essential resource for academics and students engaged in the study of policing criminal investigation forensic psychology and criminal law It will also be of great interest to practitioners legal professionals and policymakers around the world
