Polish-Jewish Relations During the Second World War Emanuel Ringelblum, 1992 A man of towering intellectual accomplishment and extraordinary tenacity Emmanuel Ringelblum devoted his life to recording the fate of his people at the hands of the Germans Convinced that he must remain in the Warsaw Ghetto to complete his work and rejecting an invitation to flee to refuge on the Aryan side Ringelbaum his wife and their son were eventually betrayed to the Germans and killed This book represents Ringelbaum s attempt to answer the questions he knew history would ask about the Polish people what did the Poles do while millions of Jews were being led to the stake What did the Polish underground do What did the Government in Exile do Was it inevitable that the Jews looking their last on this world should have to see indifference or even gladness on the faces of their neighbors These questions have haunted Polish Jewish relations for the last fifty years Behind them are forces that have haunted Polish Jewish relations for a thousand years Contested Memories Joshua D. Zimmerman, 2003 This collection of essays representing three generations of Polish and Jewish scholars is the first attempt since the fall of Communism to reassess the existing historiography of Polish Jewish relations just before during and after the Second World War In the spirit of detached scholarly inquiry these essays fearlessly challenge commonly held views on both sides of the debates Polish-Jewish Relations 1939-1945 Ewa Kurek, 2012-08-06 The following book was translated and published in English Ewa Kurek YOUR LIFE IS WORTH MINE How Polish Nuns Saved Hundreds of Jewish Children in German Occupied Poland foreword by Prof Jan Karski New York 1998 She has also contributed articles in English that were published in Polin Oxford Institute for Polish Jewish Studies Embracing the Other New York University Press and From Shtetl to Socialism London Washington Her research on the subject of Polish Jewish relations in World War II in Poland has been presented at several international academic congresses including Yad Vashem Jerusalem 1988 Princeton University 1993 and Columbia University 2007 In the book POLISH JEWISH RELATIONS 1939 1945 BEYOND THE LIMITS OF SOLIDARITY Ewa Kurek reconstructs the wartime history based almost exclusively on Jewish sources Like in her other books Ewa Kurek has the courage to raise important questions and the courage to search for equally important answers *The Nazi Holocaust. 1 E BOOK     The Neighbors Respond Antony Polonsky, Joanna B. Michlic, 2009-04-11 Neighbors Jan Gross's stunning account of the brutal mass murder of the Jews of Jedwabne by their Polish neighbors was met with international critical acclaim and was a finalist for the National Book Award in the United States. It has also been from the moment of its publication the occasion of intense controversy and painful reckoning. This book captures some of the most important voices in the ensuing debate including those of residents of Jedwabne itself as well as those of journalists, intellectuals, politicians, Catholic clergy, and historians both within and well beyond Poland's borders. Antony Polonsky and Joanna Michlic introduce the debate focusing particularly on how Neighbors rubbed against difficult old and new issues of Polish social memory and national identity. The editors then present a variety of Polish voices grappling with the role of the massacre and of Polish Jewish relations in Polish history. They include samples of the various strategies used by Polish intellectuals and political elites as they have attempted to deal with their country's dark past to overcome the legacy of the Holocaust and to respond to Gross's book. The Neighbors Respond makes the debate over Neighbors available to an English-speaking audience and is an excellent tool for bringing the discussion into the classroom. It constitutes an engrossing contribution to modern Jewish history to our understanding of Polish modern history and identity and to our bank of Holocaust memory.

The Polish Underground and the Jews, 1939-1945 Joshua D. Zimmerman, 2015-06-05 The Polish Underground and the Jews 1939-1945 examines one of the central problems in the history of Polish Jewish relations: the attitude and the behavior of the Polish Underground, the resistance organization loyal to the Polish government in exile toward the Jews during World War II. Using a variety of archival documents, testimonies, and memoirs, Zimmerman offers a careful, dispassionate narrative arguing that the reaction of the Polish Underground to the catastrophe that befell European Jewry was immensely varied, ranging from aggressive aid to acts of murder. By analyzing the military, civilian, and political wings of the Polish Underground and offering portraits of the organization's main leaders, this book is the first full-length scholarly monograph in any language to provide a thorough examination of the Polish Underground's attitude and behavior towards the Jews during the entire period of World War II.

Poland and the Holocaust in the Polish-American Press, 1926-1945 Magdalena Kubow, 2020-07-10 Contrary to the common notion that news regarding the unfolding Holocaust was unavailable or unreliable, news from Europe was often communicated to North American Poles through the Polish language press. This work engages with the origins debate and demonstrates that the Polish language press covered seminal issues during the interwar years, the war, and the Holocaust extensively on their front and main story pages and were extremely responsive, professional, and vocal in their journalism. From Polish Jewish relations to the cause of the Second World War and subsequently the development of genocide-related policy, North American Poles had a different perspective from mainstream society on the causes and effects of what was happening. New research for this book examines attitudes toward Jews prior to and during the Holocaust and how information on such attitudes was disseminated. It utilizes selected Polish newspapers of the period 1926-1945 predominantly

Kassow, 2018-08 In 1940 the historian Emanuel Ringelblum established a clandestine organization code named Oyneg Shabes in Nazi occupied Warsaw to study and document all facets of Jewish life in wartime Poland and to compile an archive that would preserve this history for posterity As the Final Solution unfolded although decimated by murders and deportations the group persevered in its work until the spring of 1943 Of its more than 60 members only three survived Ringelblum and his family perished in March 1944 But before he died he managed to hide thousands of documents in milk cans and tin boxes Searchers found two of these buried caches in 1946 and 1950 Who Will Write Our History tells the gripping story of Ringelblum and his determination to use historical scholarship and the collection of documents to resist Nazi oppression      Jews and Gentiles in Central and Eastern Europe during the Holocaust Hana Kubátová, Jan Láníček, 2017-09-11 Providing diverse insights into Jewish Gentile relations in East Central Europe from the outbreak of the Second World War until the reestablishment of civic societies after the fall of Communism in the late 1980s this volume brings together scholars from various disciplines including history sociology political science cultural studies film studies and anthropology to investigate the complexity of these relations and their transformation from perspectives beyond the traditional approach that deals purely with politics This collection thus looks for interactions between the public and private and what is more it does so from a still rather rare comparative perspective both chronological and geographic It is this interdisciplinary and comparative perspective that enables us to scrutinize the interaction between the individual majority societies and the Jewish minorities in a longer time frame and hence we are able to revisit complex and manifold encounters between Jews and Gentiles including but not limited to propaganda robbery violence but also help and rescue In doing so this collection challenges the representation of these encounters in post war literature films and the historical consciousness This book was originally published as a special issue of Holocaust Studies      Rethinking Poles and Jews Robert D. Cherry, Annamaria Orla-Bukowska, 2007 Since Polish Catholics embraced some anti Jewish notions and actions prior to WWII many intertwined the Nazi death camps in Poland with Polish anti-Semitism As a result more so than local non Jewish population in other Nazi occupied countries Polish

Catholics were considered active collaborators in the destruction of European Jewry Through the presentation of these negative images in Holocaust literature documentaries and teaching these stereotypes have been sustained and infect attitudes toward contemporary Poland impacting on Jewish youth trips there from Israel and the United States This book focuses on the role of Holocaust related material in perpetuating anti Polish images and describes organizational efforts to combat them Without minimizing contemporary Polish anti-Semitism it also presents more positive material on contemporary Polish American organizations and Jewish life in Poland To our knowledge this will be the first book to document systematically the anti Polish images in Holocaust material to describe ongoing efforts to combat these negative stereotypes and to emphasize the positive role of the Polish Catholic community in the resurgence of Jewish life in Poland Thus this book will present new information that will be of value to Holocaust Studies and the 100 000 annual foreign visitors to the German death camps in Poland

Poland's Threatening Other Joanna B. Michlic, 2006-12-01 In this provocative and insightful book Joanna Beata Michlic interrogates the myth of the Jew as Poland's foremost internal threatening other harmful to Poland its people and to all aspects of its national life This is the first attempt to chart new theoretical directions in the study of Polish Jewish relations in the wake of the controversy over Jan Gross's book Neighbors Michlic analyzes the nature and impact of anti Jewish prejudices on modern Polish society and culture tracing the history of the concept of the Jew as the threatening other and its role in the formation and development of modern Polish national identity based on the matrix of exclusivist ethnic nationalism
