Irene Rochas, 2014-08-25 Memoir of a Polish Girl at the Time of the Russian Revolution 1914 1924 Expanded second edition with additional photographs Irene Rochas was born Aniela Tarnowicz in Warsaw in 1906 the youngest child in a large upper middle class Polish family With the outbreak of WW I in 1914 Irene and her family were stranded in Moscow and with the further outbreak of the Bolshevik Revolution they were able to return to their homeland only after a delay of four years Irene's rediscovered narrative written when she was fifty years old and set in the form of a novel is a remembrance of those eventful years of her childhood in Moscow and Warsaw In this sense it is truly a memoir Yes danse macabre is the dance of death the last waltz to which we are all invited But Irene's Danse Macabre with its inquisitive and empathetic tone and its often searing imagery is less a rumination on the inevitability of death and more a testament to the vibrancy of life itself 345 pp Endnote 29 plates The Biography Book Daniel S. Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell, 2018-01-05 What happens when novelists write about their own lives directly in memoirs and autobiographies rather than in novels How do they present themselves and what do their self portraits reveal In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H G Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies during the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a range of life writing sources in this innovative group portrait Jerome Boyd Maunsell reconstructs the periods during which these authors worked on their memoirs often towards the end of their lives and shows how memoirs and autobiographies are just as artful as novels The seven portraits in the book also create a rich network of encounters as many of these writers knew each other and wrote about each other in their reminiscences Portraits from Life investigates the difficulties and possibilities of autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France
