Politics, Planning and the City Michael Goldsmith, 2012-12-06 Politics Planning and the City is designed to introduce the complex political processes and problems of the modern city The author begins by setting the theoretical context and discusses models of democracy power and the nature of policy Next he examines change and the city by focusing on actual decision making Three major policy areas affecting the city housing planning and the social services are then reviewed and the post war experiences analysed The author concludes by discussing the consequences intended and unintended for the city and asks whether city governments can cope with the future This book was first published in 1980 Democracy, Citizenship and the Global City Engin F. Isin, 2013-04-15 Democracy Citizenship and the Global City focuses on the controversial neglected theme of citizenship It examines the changing role of citizens their rights obligations and responsibilities as members of nation states and the issue of accountability in a global society Using this interdisciplinary approach the book offers an innovative collection of work from Robert A Beauregard Anna Bounds Janine Brodie Richard Dagger Gerard Delanty Judith A Garber Robert J Holton Warren Magnusson Raymond Rocco Nikolas Rose Evelyn S Ruppert Saskia Sassen Bryan S Turner John Urry Gerda R Wekerle and Nira Yuval Davis Property and Power in a City David McCrone, Brian Elliott, 1982-11-11 This book is concerned with one kind of property privately rented housing in one city Edinburgh and with those who over the past century or so have been able to accumulate control and dispose of it

The City as Power Alexander C. Diener, Joshua Hagen, 2018-09-18 This interdisciplinary book considers national identity through the lens of urban spaces By bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines The City as Power provides broad comparative perspectives about the critical importance of urban landscapes as forums for creating maintaining and contesting identity and belonging Rather than serving as passive backdrops urban spaces and places are active mediums for defining categories of inclusion and exclusion With an international scope and ready appeal to visual learners the book offers a compelling survey of historical and contemporary efforts to enact state ideals express counter narratives and negotiate global trends in cities The contributors show how successive regimes reshape cityscapes to mirror their respective socio political agendas perspectives on history and assumptions of power Yet they must do so within the legal ethnic religious social economic and cultural geographies inherited from previous regimes Exploring the rich diversity of urban space place and national identity the book compares core elements of identity projects in a range of political cultural and socioeconomic settings By focusing on the built form and urban settings for social movements protest and even organized violence this timely book demonstrates that cities are not simply lived in but also lived through

Power Sharing in Deeply Divided Places Joanne McEvoy, Brendan O'Leary, 2013-04-22 Power sharing may be broadly defined as any set of arrangements that prevents one political agency or collective from monopolizing power whether temporarily or permanently Ideally such measures promote inclusiveness or at least the coexistence of divergent cultures within a state In places deeply divided by national ethnic linguistic or religious conflict power sharing is the standard prescription for reconciling antagonistic groups particularly where genocide expulsion or coerced assimilation threaten the lives and rights of minority peoples In recent history the success record of this measure is mixed Power Sharing in Deeply Divided Places features fifteen analytical studies of power sharing systems past and present as well as critical evaluations of the role of electoral systems and courts in their implementation Interdisciplinary and international in formation and execution the chapters encompass divided cities such as Belfast Jerusalem Kirkuk and Sarajevo and divided places such as Belgium Israel Palestine Northern Ireland and South Africa as well as the Holy Roman Empire the Saffavid Empire Aceh in Indonesia and the European Union Equally suitable for specialists teachers and students Power Sharing in Deeply Divided Places considers the merits and defects of an array of variant systems and provides explanations of their emergence maintenance and failings some essays offer lucid proposals targeted at particular places While this volume does not presume that power sharing is a panacea for social reconciliation it does suggest how it can help foster peace and democracy in conflict torn countries Contributors Liam Anderson Florian Bieber Scott A Bollens Benjamin Braude Ed Cairns Randall Collins Kris Deschouwer Bernard Grofman Colin Irwin Samuel Issacharoff Allison McCulloch Joanne McEvoy Brendan O Leary Philippe van Parijs Alfred Stepan Ronald Wintrobe Community Power in a Postreform City Eugene B. Rumer, Dmitrii Trenin, Huasheng Zhao, 2007 The eminent contributors to this volume offer a four part analysis of Central Asia's new importance in world affairs since the disintegration of the Soviet Union Community Power in a Postreform City Robert F. Pecorella, 2019-07-26 This book represents the culmination of several years of research on community politics in New York City Mapping Desire: Geog Sexuality David Bell, Gill Valentine, 2003-09-02 This is the first book to explore sexualities from a geographical perspective The nature of place and notions of space are of increasing centrality to cultural and social theory Mapping Desire presents the rich and diverse world of contemporary sexuality exploring how the heterosexual body has been appropriated and resisted on the individual community and city scales The geographies presented here range across Europe America Australasia Africa the Pacific and the imaginary cutting across city and country and analysing the positions of gay men lesbians bisexuals and heterosexuals The contributors ring different interests and approaches to bear on theoretical and empirical material from a wide range of sources The book is divided into four sections cartographies identities sexualised spaces global local sexualised spaces local global sites of resistance Each section is separately introduced Beyond the bibliography an annotated guide to further reading is also provided to help the reader map their own way through the literature Power and Space John Allen, 2024-08-05 Power and Space sets out the inherently spatial nature of power today and seeks to change the conversation around how power exercises us in the contemporary moment The essays brought together in this book are a response to the fact that conventional descriptions of power and its ordered geographies no longer chime with our lived experience Spatiality matters to the workings of power nowadays and this book sheds light on what it is that we face when power is exercised through more subtle spatially nuanced arrangements It is divided into three parts each representing a different kind of engagement with power's relationship to space from the spatial shifts in the way power is exercised through to its assemblage like entanglements and in turn its progressive topological character Throughout the book a wide range of social political and economic examples are drawn upon to illustrate a more provisional sense of power ranging for instance from the seductive logic of privatized public spaces to the attempt by a data analytics company to manipulate political behaviour through to the offshore spaces invented by rising financial elites to challenge the established banking order Illustrating the new found abilities of the powerful to make their presence felt this book provides an accessible account of the practical workings of power in the present day It will be invaluable to students and academics in human geography and urban studies as well as politics sociology and cultural studies

New York and Amsterdam Nancy Foner, 2014-01-03 Immigration is dramatically changing major cities throughout the world Nowhere is this more so than in New York City and Amsterdam which after decades of large scale immigration now have populations that are more than a third foreign born These cities have had to deal with the challenge of incorporating hundreds of thousands of immigrants whose cultures languages religions and racial backgrounds differ dramatically from those of many long established residents New York and Amsterdam brings together a distinguished and interdisciplinary group of American and Dutch scholars to examine and compare the impact of immigration on two of the world's largest urban centers The original essays in this volume discuss how immigration has affected social political and economic structures cultural patterns and intergroup relations in the two cities investigating how the particular and changing urban contexts of New York City and Amsterdam have shaped immigrant and second generation experiences Despite many parallels between New York and Amsterdam the differences stand out and juxtaposing essays on immigration in the two cities helps to illuminate the essential issues that today's immigrants and their children confront Organized around five main themes this book offers an in depth view of the impact of immigration as it affects particular places with specific histories institutions and immigrant populations New York and Amsterdam profoundly contributes to our broader understanding of the transformations wrought by immigration and the dynamics of urban change providing new insights into how and why immigration's effects differ on the two sides of the Atlantic

On Power Of Emperors And Pope William of Ockham, 1998-08-15 The Franciscan William of Ockham c 1285 c 1347 was the greatest theologian and philosopher of the first half of the fourteenth century Spurred on by the activities of a papacy which he saw as destroying the very foundations of his Order he devoted the last part of his life to examining the extent of papal power over Christians and its relationship to the secular government of people On the Power of Emperors and Popes 1347 is his last work Short passionate and lucid it represents a distillation of his thought on these questions and forms an excellent and accessible introduction to his political thought as a whole The extensive new annotations to the text bring to light the range of sources on which Ockham drew while the new introduction places the work in its historical context and relates it to other works of medieval Franciscan political discourse Translated here into English for the first time the work will be of interest to all students and researchers in the field of medieval political thought the first English translation of Ockham s classic work plus extensive new introduction textual annotation and bibliography modern editorial apparatus connects the work with the whole body of Ockham s political thought the new annotation provides historical and intellectual context and translations of Ockham s source references The Right Nation John Micklethwait,Adrian Wooldridge,2004 Evaluates the conservative movement that has swept across America in recent years contending that conservatives have waged deliberate and effective campaigns against liberal advances in an analysis that offers insight into right wing politics and its organizers representatives and supporters 50 000 first printing Power and City Governance Alan DiGaetano,1999 Profits, Power, and Prohibition John J. Rumbarger,1989-01-01 This is the first comprehensive study of America s anti liquor anti drug movement from its origins in the late eighteenth century through the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment in 1933 It examines the role that capitalism played in defining and shaping this reform movement Rumbarger challenges conventional explanations of the history of this movement and offers compelling counter arguments to explain the movement s historical development He successfully links the ethics of business enterprise and those of moral reform of society for the betterment of enterprise The author reveals how readily economic power is transformed first into social power and finally into political power in the context of a bourgeois democracy He shows that the motivation driving this reform movement was not religiosity but profit and that anti liquor capitalists viewed the human equation as determinant of America s prospect for creating wealth

Enhancing Democracy With Coalition Governments and Politics Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu Stephen,2024-05-20 Political coalition formation is a global strategy employed by leaders and parties in their pursuit of power This practice takes on particular significance in post colonial Africa where coalition governments have emerged as responses to challenges faced by the electoral base of liberation parties In countries like Congo Kinshasa Zimbabwe Nigeria Mauritius South Africa and the Kingdom of Lesotho coalition politics serves as a model for conflict resolution and democratic governance Enhancing Democracy With Coalition Governments and Politics delves into this complex landscape thoroughly investigating the pivotal role of coalition governments formed both before and after elections It sheds light on the challenges posed to dominant liberation movements and the urgent need for a radical agenda to address corruption maladministration and the abuse of political power The book focuses on Africa s pursuit of sound electoral democracy and democratic governance Enhancing Democracy With Coalition Governments and Politics aims to conceptually understand coalition governments trace their historical evolution in Africa interrogate the triggers for coalition formation assess their impact on electoral democracy and explore coalition politics at both local and national levels By providing theoretical and empirical insights the book equips policymakers practitioners scholars and researchers in the fields of Politics Sociology Public Administration and Development Studies with tools to comprehend form manage and sustain political coalitions as vehicles for democratic governance
