Lumbering State, Restless Society Nathan J. Brown, Shima Hatab, Amr Adly, 2021-10-12 Lumbering State Restless Society offers a comprehensive and compelling understanding of modern Egypt Nathan J Brown Shima Hatab and Amr Adly guide readers through crucial developments in Egyptian politics society and economics from the middle of the twentieth century through the present Integrating diverse perspectives and areas of expertise including the tools of comparative politics the book provides an accessible and clear introduction to the Egypt of today alongside an innovative and rigorous analysis of the country's history and governance Brown Hatab and Adly highlight ways in which Egypt resembles other societies around the world drawing from and contributing to broader debates in political science They trace the emergence of a powerful and intrusive state alongside a society that is increasingly politicized and they emphasize how the rulers and regimes who have built and steered the state apparatus have also had to retreat and recalibrate The authors also examine why authoritarianism corporatism and socialism have decayed without resulting in a liberal democratic order and they show why Egyptian politics should not be understood in terms of a single dominant force but rather an interplay among many actors At once current insightful and engaging Lumbering State Restless Society delivers a powerful and distinctive account of modern Egypt in the modern world

Judges and Generals in the Making of Modern Egypt Mahmoud Hamad, 2018-10-25 Why do authoritarian regimes survive How do dictators fail What role do political institutions play in these two processes Many of the answers to these questions can be traced to the same source the interaction between institutions and preferences Using Egypt as a case study Professor Mahmoud Hamad describes how the synergy between judges and generals created the environment for the present government and a delicate balance for its survival The history of modern Egypt is one of the struggle between authoritarian governments and forces that advocate for more democratic rights While the military has provided dictatorial leaders the judiciary provides judges who have the power to either support or stymie authoritarian power Judges and Generals in the Making of Modern Egypt provides a historically grounded explanation for the rise and demise of authoritarianism and is one of the first studies of Egypt's judicial institutions within a single analytical framework

Everyday Economic Practices Savinna Chowdhury, 2007-01-22 Exploring the significance of local everyday economic practices to development policy making this book demonstrates why it is a misrepresentation to characterize all that is economic as capitalism and offers alternative ways to conceptualize economic developments rather than just as the industrialization urbanization and environmental degradation as experienced by the West

Cambridge Economics in the Post-Keynesian Era Ashwani Saith, 2022-11-11 This book chronicles the rise and especially the demise of diverse revolutionary heterodox traditions in Cambridge theoretical and applied economics investigating both the impact of internal pressures within the faculty as also the power of external ideological and political forces unleashed by the global dominance of neoliberalism Using fresh archival materials personal interviews and recollections this meticulously researched narrative constructs the untold story of the eclipse of these heterodox and post Keynesian intellectual traditions rooted and nurtured in Cambridge since the 1920s and the rise to power of orthodox mainstream economics Also expunged in this neoclassical counter revolution were the structural and radical policy oriented macro economic modelling teams of the iconic Department of Applied Economics along with the atrophy of sociology development and economic history from teaching and research in the self purifying faculty This book will be of particular interest to researchers in the history of economic thought sociology of knowledge political economy especially those engaged in heterodox and post Keynesian economics and to everyone wishing to make economics fit for purpose again for negotiating the multiple economic social and environmental crises rampant at national and global levels

Routledge Handbook of Citizenship in the Middle East and North Africa Roel Meijer, James N. Sater, Zahra R. Babar, 2020-11-23 This comprehensive Handbook gives an overview of the political social economic and legal dimensions of citizenship in the Middle East and North Africa from the nineteenth century to the present The terms citizen and citizenship are mostly used by researchers in an off hand self evident manner A citizen is assumed to have standard rights and duties that everyone enjoys However citizenship is a complex legal social economic cultural ethical and religious concept and practice Since the rise of the modern bureaucratic state in each country of the Middle East and North Africa citizenship has developed differently In addition rights are highly differentiated within one country ranging from privileged underprivileged and discriminated citizens to non citizens Through its dual nature as instrument of state control as well as a source of citizen rights and entitlements citizenship provides crucial insights into state citizen relations and the services the state provides as well as the way citizens respond to these actions This volume focuses on five themes that cover the crucial dimensions of citizenship in the region Historical trajectory of citizenship since the nineteenth century until independence Creation of citizenship from above by the state Different discourses of rights and forms of contestation developed by social movements and society Mechanisms of inclusion and exclusion Politics of citizenship nationality and migration Covering the main dimensions of citizenship this multidisciplinary book is a key resource for students and scholars interested in citizenship politics economics history migration and refugees in the Middle East and North Africa New Forms and Expressions of Conflict at Work G. Gall, 2013-01-29 This collection analyses new forms and expressions of conflict at work under capitalism Using theoretical and empirical approaches it demonstrates an underlying historical continuity to new forms and expressions of conflict at work and a path dependency by country and culture Was the Red Flag Flying There? Marxist Politics and the Arab-Israeli Conflict in Egypt and Israel 1948-1965 Joel Beinin, 1990-10-22 Illuminating The entire field of modern Middle Eastern Studies still has remarkably little closely researched social history of this sort Beinin s study adds to the work recently published by revisionist Israeli historians debunking the dominant view of the origin and early history of the Palestine conflict and extending the revision into the 1950s and early 1960s His explanation of the different political paths that were taken turned back from and lost sight of is an important indeed vital contribution to contemporary scholarly and political understanding Timothy Mitchell New York University National Economic Policies D. Salvatore, 2014-06-28 This book presents an overview of national economic policies in the world s most important countries or groupings of countries The purpose of the volume is to examine and compare the policies followed by different types of countries and study their effects Although numerous studies have been published on how individual countries conduct economic policies few if any comparative studies such as the present one have been issued This volume will be of great use to students of comparative economic systems in general and to economists policymakers and the general informed public as a source of reference and comparison Confronting the Costs of War Michael N. Barnett, 2012-09-14 What determines the strategies by which a state mobilizes resources for war And does war preparation strengthen or weaken the state in relation to society In addressing these questions Michael Barnett develops a novel theoretical framework that traces the connection between war preparation and changes in state society relations and applies that framework to Egypt from 1952 to 1977 and Israel from 1948 through 1977 Confronting the Costs of War addresses major issues in international relations comparative politics and Middle Eastern studies The Rise of the Egyptian Middle Class Relli Shechter, 2019 Working into the middle class Crisis of supply in every household Provocative consumption Parasites The resurgence of middle class Islam

Contemporary Arab Thought Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi, 2003-11-20 Contemporary Arab Thought is a multifaceted book encompassing a constellation of social political religious and ideological ideas that have evolved over the past two hundred years ideas that represent the leading positions of the social classes in modern and contemporary Arab societies Distinguished Islamic scholar Ibrahim Abu Rabi addresses such questions as the Shari ah human rights civil society secularism and globalisation This is complimented by a focused discussion on the writings of key Arab thinkers who represent established trends of thought in the Arab world including Muhammad Abid al Jabiri Adallah Laroui Muhammad al Ghazali Rashid al Ghannoushi Qutatnine Zurayk Mahdi Amil and many others Before 1967 some Arab countries launched hopeful programmes of modernisation After the 1967 defeat with Israel many of these hopes were dashed This book retraces the Arab world s aborted modernity of recent decades Abu Rabi explores the development of contemporary Arab thought against the historical background of the rise of modern Islamism and the impact of the West on the modern Arab world
