Comparative Models of Development

Howard J. Wiarda Ph.D.,2017-09-05 Howard J Wiarda who was the Dean Rusk Professor of International Relations at the School of Public and International Affairs at the University of Georgia outlines a paradigm shift in world politics that has been driven by two overarching trends the shift from a U S and Western favored model of development to different models and the decline of a Western system of world order In examining these two trends he seeks to answer questions such as Why are the gaps increasing rather than shrinking between the rich and the poor both within countries and between the developed countries and developing ones Why have some countries and regions adapted to the newer pressures of globalization democratization and new markets and others have not Why does the Middle East Southeast Asia Sub Saharan Africa and much of Latin America still lag behind while others are forging ahead By taking a regional view of development and international relations the author challenges the view that one theoretical framework can explain the economic social and foreign policy approaches of all countries New Neighbours - on the Diversity of Migrants' Political Involvement Agata

Coalition Governance in Central Eastern Europe Torbjörn Bergman, Gabriella Ilonszki, Wolfgang C. Müller, 2019-12-12 Coalition government among different political parties is the way most European democracies are governed Traditionally the study of coalition politics has been focused on Western Europe Coalition governance in Central Eastern Europe brings the study of the full coalition life cycle to a region that has undergone tremendous political transformation but which has not been studied from this perspective The volume covers Bulgaria Estonia the Czech Republic Latvia Lithuania Hungary Poland Romania Slovakia and Slovenia It provides information and analyses of the coalition life cycle from pre electoral alliances to coalition formation and portfolio distribution governing in coalitions the stages that eventually lead to government termination and the electoral performance of coalition parties In Central Eastern Europe few single party cabinets form and there have been only a few early elections The evidence provided shows that coalition partners in the region write formal agreements coalition agreements to an extent that is similar to the patterns that we find in Western Europe but also that they adhere less closely to these contracts While the research on Western Europe tends to stress that coalition partners emphasize coalition compromise and mutual supervision there is more evidence of ministerial government by individual ministers and their parties There are also some systems where coalition governance is heavily dominated by the prime minister No previous study has covered the full coalition life cycle in all of the ten countries with as much detail Systematic information is presented in 10 figures and in more than one hundred tables
