Political Recruitment:

Political Recruitment Pippa Norris, Joni Lovenduski, 1995 In this compelling book Pippa Norris and Joni Lovenduski provide the first full account of legislative recruitment in Britain for twenty five years Their central concern is how and why some politicians succeed in moving into the highest offices of state while others fail The book examines the relative dearth of women black and working class Members of Parliament and whether the evident social bias in the British political lite matters for political representation Legislative recruitment concerns the critical step from lower levels activists local counsellors to a parliamentary career The authors draw evidence from the first systematic surveys of parliamentary candidates Members of Parliament and party selectors as well as detailed personal interviews The study explores how and why people become politicians and the consequences for parties legislatures and representative government Political Recruitment Pippa Norris, Joni Lovenduski, 1995 Asking why some politicians succeed in moving into the highest offices of state while others fail this text examines the relative lack of women black and working class Members of Parliament and whether this evident social bias matters for political representation Political Recruitment across Two Centuries

Roderic Ai Camp, 2013-12-06 During more than twenty years of field research Roderic Ai Camp built a monumental database of biographical information on more than 3 000 leading national figures in Mexico In this major contribution to Mexican political history he draws on that database to present a definitive account of the paths to power Mexican political leaders pursued during the period 1884 to 1992 Camp s research clarifies the patterns of political recruitment in Mexico showing the consequences of choosing one group over another It calls into question numerous traditional assumptions including that upward political mobility was a cause of the Mexican Revolution of 1910 Comparing Mexican practices with those in several East Asian countries also allows Camp to question many of the tenets of political recruitment theory His book will be of interest to students not only of Mexican politics but also of history comparative politics political leadership and Third World development Principles and Theory of Political Science Urmila Sharma & S.K. Responding to evolving challenges toward achieving gender equality and social inclusion 30-31 August 2021 Indonesia This event organized by Pusat Studi Gender Anak dan Keluarga PPGAK The Center of Gender Children and Family Studies Universitas Andalas aims to promote new insights and discussion about the current global perspectives considering the differences in academic and subject fields approaches across time countries and economic sectors with its implications and to improve and share the scientific knowledge on gender research Is meant to open our horizon that the issue of gender and social inclusion may be viewed from various disciplines and perspectives This book constitutes the refereed post conference proceedings of the 1st International Conference in Gender Culture and Society held online from Padang Indonesia August 30-31 2021 The 85 revised full papers were carefully selected from 124 submissions The papers are organized thematically in gender culture and society The papers present a wide range of insights and discussion about the current global perspectives on gender research Indian Government and Politics Abbas Hoveyda, 2010-09

Framed within a perspective of the entire political process this book closely examines the legal provisions of the Constitution of India as well as the role and functions of other agencies and groups that influence policies and laws It also looks at historical and contemporary cases to illuminate the philosophy behind the Constitution the role of various social groups the functioning of the government and the evolution of our politics Written in a lucid and familiar style this book assumes no background in the subject and an extensive glossary explains unfamiliar terms and complex concepts Parties and Political Change in South Asia James Chiriyankandath, 2016-04-14

Over the past seven decades and more political parties have become an essential feature of the political landscape of the South Asian subcontinent serving both as a conduit and product of the tumultuous change the region has experienced Yet they have not been the focus of sustained scholarly attention This collection focuses on different aspects of how major parties have been agents of and subject to change in three South Asian states India Pakistan and Sri Lanka examining some of the apparent paradoxes of politics in the subcontinent and covering issues such as gender religion patronage clientelism political recruitment and democratic regression Recurring themes are the importance of personalities and the corresponding neglect of institutionalisation and the lack of pluralism in intraparty affairs factors that render parties and political systems vulnerable to degeneration This book was published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics

Political Processes and Institutions in Comparative Perspectives Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-09-23 In this book we will study about the subject of Political Processes and Institutions in Comparative Perspectives exploring its key themes developments and importance in the broader context of the discipline The book offers foundational and in depth understanding tailored to build academic insight and critical thought Culture, Identity and Religion in Southeast Asia Alistair D. B. Cook, 2009-05-27 I have read the draft of this book sent to me by the editor After reading this draft I do think this book is valuable and timely It discusses the contemporary issues that have worried many people in the present world terrorism human rights Islamic radicalism and the problem of identity in the Singaporean capitalism These issues are not discussed in the theoretical abstract way it also doesn't mean that theories are not discussed at all but in the context of various concrete societies The book deals with one of the above issues in Malaysia Singapore and Indonesia Aceh and Sumenep in Madura Each issue is written by a different author that has studied the issue thoroughly So the book is a collection of research done by specialists of these issues Two essays on Southeast Asia one on health and the other on human security give the general picture of this region acting as a broad introduction of the chapters that follow Each chapter has been written professionally and the readers will learn many things from each of them One has to read the chapter in order to really appreciate them Therefore I really recommend that this manuscript to be published as a book in order to get a large audience One shortcoming though this book deals with three countries only Malaysia Singapore and Indonesia albeit these three are the important countries in the region Other important Southeast Asian countries such as Thailand the Philippines and Burma are not discussed individually With the omission of these countries it thus can be argued whether this book can represent the Southeast Asian region Also in dealing with Indonesia the chapters talk on sub national level namely on Aceh province and a peripheral city Sumenep in the island of Madura East Java while Malaysia and Singapore are dealt on the level of nation state To conclude even with these shortcomings this book is still valuable Therefore I would like to recommend it be published Arief Budiman Foundation Professor of Indonesian Asia Institute The University of Melbourne Australia
