Political Stability And Energy Cooperation In The Mediterranean:

Political Stability and Energy Cooperation in the Mediterranean Antonio Marquina Barrio, Hans Günter Brauch, 2000

Globalization and Environmental Challenges Hans Günter Brauch, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Czeslaw Mesjasz, John Grin, Pál Dunay, Navnita Chadha Behera, Béchir Chourou, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, P. H. Liotta, 2008-01-23 Put quite simply the twin impacts of globalization and environmental degradation pose new security dangers and concerns In this new work on global security thinking 91 authors from five continents and many disciplines from science and practice assess the worldwide reassessment of the meaning of security triggered by the end of the Cold War and globalization as well as the multifarious impacts of global environmental change in the early 21st century

Facing Global Environmental Change Hans Günter Brauch, Navnita Chadha Behera, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, John Grin, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Béchir Chourou, Czeslaw Mesjasz, Heinz Krummenacher, 2009-06-04 The year 2007 could perhaps accurately be described as the year when climate change finally received the attention that this challenge deserves globally Much of the information and knowledge that was created in this field during the year was the result of the findings of the Fourth sessment Report AR4 of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC which were disseminated on a large scale and reported extensively by the media This was the result not only of a heightened interest on the part of the public on various aspects of climate change but also because the IPCC itself proactively attempted to spread the findings of its AR4 to the public at large The interest generated on the scientific realities of climate change was further enhanced by the award of the Nobel Peace Prize to the IPCC and former Vice President of the US Al Gore By taking this decision in favour of a leader who has done a great deal to create awareness on c mate change and a body that assesses all scientific aspects of climate change and disseminates the result of its findings the Norwegian Nobel Committee has clearly drawn the link between climate change and peace in the world

Energy Security A. Marquina, 2008-10-08 A new look at the different perspectives on energy security policies of European and Asian countries The book explains the reasons for the failure of EU common energy policies and the deficiencies in the policies towards Central Asia It examines Chinese energy diplomacy and the possibility of energy competition and cooperation in Northeast Asia

Coping with Global Environmental Change, Disasters and Security Hans Günter Brauch, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Czeslaw Mesjasz, John Grin, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, Béchir Chourou, Pál Dunay, Joern Birkmann, 2011-02-03 Coping with Global Environmental Change Disasters and Security Threats Challenges Vulnerabilities and Risks reviews conceptual debates and case studies focusing on disasters and security threats challenges vulnerabilities and risks in Europe the Mediterranean and other regions It discusses social science concepts of vulnerability and risks global regional and national security challenges global warming floods desertification and drought as environmental security challenges water and food security challenges and vulnerabilities vulnerability mapping of environmental security challenges and risks contributions of remote sensing to the recognition of security risks mainstreaming early warning of conflicts and

hazards and provides conceptual and policy conclusions      Redefining security in the Middle East Tami Jacoby, Brent Sasley, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license For over five decades the Cold War security agenda was distinguished by the principal strategic balance that of a structure of bipolarity between the United States US and the Soviet Union USSR This book seeks to draw from current developments in critical security studies in order to establish a new framework of inquiry for security in the Middle East It addresses the need to redefine security in the Middle East The focus is squarely on the Arab Israeli context in general and the Palestinian Israeli context in particular The character of Arab Israeli relations are measured by the Israeli foreign policy debate from the 1950s to the 1990s A dialogue between Islam and Islamism as a means to broaden the terrain on which conflict resolution and post bipolar security in the Middle East is to be understood is presented The Middle East peace process MEPP was an additional factor in problematizing the military strategic concept of security in the Middle East The shift in analysis from national security to human security reflects the transformations of the post Cold War era by combining military with non military concerns such as environmental damage social unrest economic mismanagement cultural conflict gender inequity and radical fundamentalism By way of contrast to realist international relations IR theory developing world theorists have proposed a different set of variables to explain the unique challenges facing developing states Finally the book examines the significance of ecopolitics in security agendas in the Middle East      Regional Energy Initiatives Carlo Cambini, Alessandro Rubino, 2014-06-13 This book focuses on the two intra regional initiatives created for the development and integration of energy markets the Energy Community and MedReg The Energy Community and MedReg apart from their common strategic role in providing a much needed stable regulatory environment for energy markets in their respective reference countries represent examples of a diverse development of regional energy initiatives The former is initiated by external factors and is an example of a top down approach whereas the latter is a voluntary bottom up initiative of the countries involved The way the institutional framework is built is not without consequences on the functioning and organization of the two regional initiatives The book assesses these different approaches and their consequences in the framework of the development of the Energy Community and MedReg with particular reference to their impact on regional integration energy policy and institutional change The analysis is enriched with several case studies on the role of independent regulatory agencies the promotion of renewable energy sources infrastructure and interconnection development across the Mediterranean basin and the implications of exporting the EU institutional model This book is aimed at policy makers institutions energy companies and academics to provide a better understanding of the economic and institutional eco system that characterize the Mediterranean area      Climate Change, Human Security and Violent Conflict Jürgen Scheffran, Michael Brzoska, Hans Günter Brauch, Peter Michael Link, Janpeter Schilling, 2012-05-26 Severe droughts damaging floods and mass migration Climate change is becoming a focal point for security and conflict research and a challenge for the world's governance structures But how severe are the security risks and conflict potentials of climate change Could global warming trigger a sequence of events leading to economic decline social unrest and political instability What are the causal relationships between resource scarcity and violent conflict This book brings together international experts to explore these questions using in depth case studies from around the world Furthermore the authors discuss strategies institutions and cooperative approaches to stabilize the climate society interaction

Regulation and Investments in Energy Markets

Alessandro Rubino, Ilhan Öztürk, Veronica Lenzi, Maria Teresa Costa Campi, 2015-12-02 Regulation Investments in Energy Markets Solutions for the Mediterranean presents the status of advancement and maturity of the Mediterranean energy policy identifying patterns of development as well as lessons learned Mediterranean countries are facing unprecedented challenges in the energy sector which affect the entire region Energy policy and regulation is the key to tackling energy efficiency challenges and providing favorable conditions for engineering infrastructures investments and improving security of energy supply The assumption that the normative model on which the EC energy policy is based could be adopted outside EU boundaries has proven to be difficult to implement This book looks at the Mediterranean regions search for a revised model for regulatory convergence and provides answers to those research questions allowing the reader to understand the different technical institutional and financial frameworks for energy policy Contains a detailed overview of the specificities and institutional frameworks giving greater clarity on existing energy practice Provides recommendations and contributions from leading scholars and key players in energy policy research Presents information from a region wide interdisciplinary approach based on specific industry information

Handbook of Energy Governance in Europe Michèle Knodt, Jörg Kemmerzell, 2022-09-21 This Handbook provides the most comprehensive account of energy governance in Europe examining both energy governance at the European level and the development of energy policy in 30 European countries Authored by leading scholars the first part of the book offers a broad overview of the topics of energy research including theories of energy transitions strategies and norms of energy policy governance instruments in the field and challenges of energy governance In the second part it examines the internal and external dimensions of energy governance in the European Union The third part presents in depth country studies which investigate national trajectories of energy policy including an analysis of the policy instruments and coordination mechanisms for energy transitions It closes with a comparative analysis of national energy governance This book is a definitive resource for scholars in energy and climate research as well as decision makers in national governments and EU institutions

Energy Security Sanam S. Haghighi, 2007-08-31 This book offers the first comprehensive assessment of the various internal and external measures undertaken by the European Union to guarantee security of oil and gas supply It sets out and analyses in a coherent and thorough manner those aspects of EU external policy that are relevant in establishing a framework for guaranteeing energy security for the Union What makes the book unique is that it is the first of its kind to bridge the gap between EU energy and EU external policy The book discusses

EU policy towards the major oil and gas producing countries of Russia the Mediterranean and the Persian Gulf at the bilateral as well as regional and multilateral level It brings together not only the dimensions of trade and investment but also other important aspects of external policy namely development and foreign policy The author argues that the EU s energy security cannot be achieved through adopting a purely internal approach to energy issues but that it is necessary to adopt a holistic approach to external policy covering efficient economic relations as well as development co operation and foreign policies towards energy producing countries The book will be a valuable resource for students of EU law WTO law or international energy law as well as scholars and practitioners dealing with energy issues

Renewable Energy in the Middle East Michael Mason,Amit Mor,2009-08-28 Energy insecurity is not normally associated with the Middle East However away from the oil rich Persian Gulf the countries of the eastern Mediterranean are particularly vulnerable Their fossil fuel endowments are low while their fractious relationships with each other have long fostered wider political insecurities Focusing on the Jordan Basin Israel the Palestinian Territories Lebanon and Jordan this timely volume addresses the prospects for the adoption of renewable energy in the oil poor Middle East Featuring regional energy experts it offers an invaluable survey After outlining the regional security context this book first reviews renewable energy policy and practices in the Jordan Basin It then considers options for greening energy use including promising pilot projects in North Africa The initiatives discussed encompass renewable energy finance energy efficient rural communities and solar and wind energy There is significant potential for an increase in the uptake of renewable energy technologies in the eastern Mediterranean This window of opportunity has been created by high oil prices energy infrastructure investment opportunities and the UN climate change regime In conclusion the book considers the institutional conditions for collaborative decision making on renewable energy Such cooperation would deliver substantial security and human development benefits to the region and indeed the world

Handbook of Energy Economics and Policy Alessandro Rubino,Alessandro Sapio,Massimo La Scala,2021-05-01 Handbook of Energy Economics and Policy Fundamentals and Applications for Engineers and Energy Planners presents energy engineers and managers with analytical skills and concepts that enable them to apply simple economic logic to understand the interrelations between energy technologies economics regulation and governance of the industry Sections cover the origins types and measurement of energy sources transportation networks and regulatory and policy issues on electricity and gas at a global level new economic and policy issues including innovation processes in the energy industry and economic and policy implications Final sections cover state of the art methods for modeling and predicting the dynamics of energy systems Its unique approach and learning path makes this book an ideal resource for energy engineering practitioners and researchers working to design develop plan or deploy energy systems Energy planners and policymakers will also find this to be a solid foundation on which to base decisions Presents key concepts and their interrelation with energy technologies and systems in a clear way for ready application during planning and deployment of energy technologies and systems Includes global case studies covering a wide array of energy sources and regulatory models Explores methodologies for modeling and forecasting the impacts of energy technologies and systems as well as their costs and possible business models      Economics and Politics of Energy in the Middle East and Eastern Europe Natalya Ketenci,Ayse Sevencan,2021-05-06 Energy policy has always been important to the population for stability and to advance technological progress and economic growth The scope of energy discussions and concerns in the world have expanded significantly in the last several decades In order to cope with accelerating pollution from fossil fuels countries have increased investments in renewable energy power plants However the existing technology does not allow for the significant increase of the capacity of renewable energy facilities in a short period As a result in order to maintain economic growth countries continue to be highly dependent on fossil fuels like oil natural gas and coal At the same time some countries start to encounter such problems as depletion of their oil and natural gas resources The aim of this book is to analyze energy resources in the Middle East and Eastern Europe and relations between countries that appear as a result of new discoveries in this area      The New Politics of Energy Security in the European Union and Beyond Andrea Prontera,2017-05-18 Combining theoretical reflections and empirical insights from paradigmatic case studies in the area of external energy governance pipeline politics Liquefied Natural Gas development and offshore petroleum policy and politics this ground breaking study demonstrates that a distinctive and new politics of energy security is definitively emerging in the European Union Innovative not only in regard to the case studies presented which include the Caspian region the Baltic Mediterrean countries Central Asia and EU Russia relations but also in regard to the analytical framework adopted an International Political Economy approach informed by an historical institutional perspective the book challenges the common view of the de politicisation of energy security supported by the mainstream market approach and the power politics and zero sum game view supported by the geopolitical perspective This book places the study of EU energy politics in the broader evolving context of global energy markets and explores the complex interactions between EU and national political dynamics and between energy security and environmental concerns at the local level      The Southern Energy Corridor: Turkey's Role in European Energy Security Vedat Yorucu,Ozay Mehmet,2017-10-03 This book highlights the importance of Turkey in diversifying supplies in future European energy security focusing in particular on the rapidly emerging southern energy corridor Turkey by its location occupies a key role in this corridor fed by hydrocarbon supplies from Russian Caspian east Mediterranean and Arab sources The book examines Turkey s role as a transit country in addition to its own growing domestic energy market and it utilizes the latest evidence on the geopolitics of various pipelines which convergence on Turkey The evidence including maps strongly favor Turkey as an energy hub within a regional energy model driven by rational behavior and market forces The book recommends an increasing strategic energy cooperation between the EU and Turkey to maximize mutual interest      Global Warming and Climate Change A.
