Waters,Wlad Godzich,1989-01-01 Rethinking the university Simon Wortham,2018-09-30 Rethinking the university explores and develops key critical debates in the humanities concerning for example postmodernism New Historicism political criticism cultural studies interdisciplinarity and deconstruction in the context of the various crises widely felt to be facing academic institutions The analysis of the characteristic features of today s university is guided by a close reading of Derrida s work on the question of the academic institution particularly with regard to the motifs of leverage and disorientation This important topic has been the subject of heated debate in recent years and Rethinking the university offers clear and concise summaries of current work in the field as well as exploring original and challenging lines of enquiry on a number of issues of contemporary concern In particular Wortham argues that while Derrida's image of a university walking on two feet presents us with a potentially paralysing problem nevertheless it also enables a strong affirmation of the possibilities of academic life work and effort The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1864

The Return of Thematic Criticism Werner Sollors, 1993 In the glory days of high modernist formalism it was anathema to speak about the content of a work of art Those days are gone and critical practice now is largely thematic practice A focus on the themes of literature informs feminist new historicist ethnic and even second generation deconstructionist approaches However such practice is not always recognized The specter of theoretically impoverished positivism still haunts thematic analysis making it the approach to literature that dare not speak its name This volume brings together for the first time an international group of writers critics and theoreticians who have thought deeply about this issue How can we determine the theme of a given text May the focus on form be the theme of a certain moment Can the motif be understood as a formal category What operations permit us to say that three or four texts constitute variants of the same theme The contributors challenge the conventional dismissal of merely thematic approaches and offer the reader different ways of tackling the issue of what a piece of writing is about The work here comes out of such diverse intellectual traditions as Russian film theory French phenomenology Foucault narratology the Frankfurt School intellectual history Geistesgeschichte psychoanalytic criticism linguistics ideological criticism Proppian folklore studies and computerized plot summary models In addition to a collection of aphorisms from Plato to Robert Coover and a group of general and theoretical essays this volume contains examples of practical engagement with such topics as literary history Shakespeare autumn poetry anti-Semitism fading colors bachelors Richard Wagner and the Mexican Revolution No comparable volume exists
