Payne,Jamal R. Nassar,2015-10-15 From decolonization and democratization to religion and gender Politics and Culture in the Developing World is a comprehensive survey of the global context of development With in depth and current examples from Asia Africa Latin America and the Middle East this text examines the central political themes in the developing world Throughout Politics and Culture in the Developing World demonstrates how globalization both accelerates change and increases interdependence between developing and developed countries Handbook of Global Social Policy Stuart Nagel,2019-09-16 Discussing how to use public policy to improve the quality of life for those at the bottom of the social hierarchy this text makes the case for policy that expands employment and facilitates jobs finances education and economic and cultural integration rewards merit and encourages voting and political participation Political scientists from around the world measure the effect of democratization religion ethnicity race and mass media on internal conflict during the initial post Cold War period in Africa Asia Europe and Latin and North America Some topics include the role of mass communication on Egyptian family planning Russian nationalism and the Guatemalan peace process Dreams and Dilemmas Kōichi Hamada,Chikara Kōmura,Mitsuo Matsushita,2000 This volume consists of two parts Part one discusses economic friction in the Asia Pacific region from three aspects macroeconomic and microeconomic friction and that between the state and the market mechanism In part two four types of legal frameworks for dispute resolution are examined The Modern Middle East, Third Edition Mehran Kamrava,2013-10-05 From the fall of the Ottoman Empire through the Arab Spring this title offers a classic treatise on the making of the contemporary Middle East remains essential reading for students and general readers who want to gain a better understanding of this diverse region The Performance of Democracies Edeltraud Roller,2005-09-29 Is the performance of western democracies in decline Which countries show the best performance Do institutions matter for political performance This book offers a comprehensive analysis of twenty one OECD countries by systematically examining all major domestic policy areas domestic security policy economic policy social policy and environmental policy and using outcome indicators The quality of democracy is assessed both at the level of the four policy areas and at a general level encompassing all policy areas The question of trade offs between policy areas is studied in an unprecedented way and for the first time national types of policy patterns are identified The findings of this book confront widely held assumptions about the performance of democracies Western democracies as a whole did not converge at a lower level of performance and trade offs between different policy areas did not increase The question do institutions matter can only partially be answered in the affirmative Political institutions do matter but formal and informal institutions cause different effects and both matter only sometimes and to a limited degree The Performance of Democracies is a book with significant theoretical implications It stresses that the effect of institutions is more complicated than most of the neo institutionalist approaches assume No clear predictions can be made on the basis of institutional factors Consequently it does not support the established assertion that fundamental political problems can simply be resolved through institutional reforms of liberal democracies Comparative Politics as a series for students and teachers of political science that deals with contemporary government and politics The General Editors are Max Kaase Professor of Political Science Vice President and Dean School of Humanities and Social Science International University Bremen Germany and Kenneth Newton Professor of Comparative Politics University of Southampton The series is produced in association with the European Consortium for Political Research The Politics of Environmental Performance Detlef Jahn, 2016-10-27

China in Search of a Harmonious Society Sujian Guo, Baogang Guo, 2008-08-15 The problems of corruption social injustice public unrest disparity in income and regional development shortage of energy and resources unemployment aging population inadequate social and economic safety network pollution etc are poised to jeopardize political stability and cast a shadow on the moral foundation of economic reform How to cope with these new problems is a daunting task facing the Chinese leadership and people in the twenty first century The new generation of leadership under Hu Jintao has begun to search for solutions and directions Building a harmonious society based on a scientific view of development has become a new catch phrase in political and academic discourse in China and a newly adopted program by the Chinese government It is in this context that this edited volume brings together a group of China scholars to discuss the concept and goal of building a harmonious society This book will be of interest to professors and students of China studies as well as policy makers and researchers The Modern Middle East Mehran Kamrava, 2011-01-03 Since it was first published in 2006 this concise overview of the making of the contemporary Middle East has become essential reading for students and general readers who want to gain a better understanding of this diverse region Writing for a wide audience Mehran Kamrava takes us from fall of the Ottoman Empire to today exploring along the way such central issues as the dynamics of economic development authoritarian endurance and the Israel Palestinian conflict For this new thoroughly revised edition he has brought the book fully up to date by incorporating events and issues of the past few years The Modern Middle East now includes information about the June 2009 Iranian presidential elections and their aftermath changes precipitated so far by the Obama administration Israel's attack on Gaza in 2008 the effects of globalization on economic development and more The Future of the Middle East Monte Palmer, 2018-11-24 This deeply informed book considers the intertwined roles of faith force and finance in shaping the modern Middle East Leading expert Monte Palmer argues that these factors will continue to have a major impact on the Middle East as the United States and other major powers increasingly find themselves embedded in conflicts that defy resolution Palmer considers the lessons learned from past and current conflicts the limits of using tyrants as avenues of force the transformation of faith into force the root causes of terror and the perils of a global environment that threatens a new cold war between Russia and the United States a war of religions between the Abrahamic faiths and a war of terror that is rapidly becoming global As he clearly shows the relative dominance of faith force or finance is always shifting depending on time place and local conditions Drawing on cases from ten critical periods from World War I through the current chaos and stalemate the author offers constructive paths forward for building a Middle East of peace and stability

Globalization, Wealth, and Power in the Twenty-first Century W. Nester, 2010-12-12 This book offers an in depth exploration of all dimensions of geoeconomics including the internal and international forces which explain why most countries remain mired in poverty the conflicts between the poor on the rich countries and the global environmental crises threatening the future of humanity Applying Evaluation Criteria Thoughtfully OECD, 2021-03-15 Relevance coherence effectiveness efficiency impact and sustainability are widely used evaluation criteria particularly in international development co operation They help to determine the merit or worth of various interventions such as strategies policies programmes or projects This guidance aims to help evaluators and others to better understand those criteria and improve their use State and Environment Andreas Duit, 2014-06-06 Studies of environmental governance that show the relevance of the state's role in environmental politics and the analytical power of the comparative approach Many recent studies on environmental governance focus on either the micro level the local and the individual or the macro level the global while neglecting governance at the nation state level State environmental governance is often perceived as inadequate insufficient or constrained by considerations of economic growth And yet the impact of state environmental governance dwarfs that of the market or international organizations This book of comparative studies documents the continuing relevance of the state in environmental politics and policy The book also demonstrates the analytical power of the comparative approach to the study of environmental politics and policy offering cross national comparisons of environmental governance in both developed and developing countries Some chapters are based on qualitative studies from a small number of countries others offer statistical analyses of quantitative data from many more countries over a longer time period Topics discussed include alternative approaches to estimating comparative environmental performance citizens shifting perceptions of their environmental responsibilities U S and German wind policies fisheries management in several African countries and forestry conservation in Bolivia Guatemala and Peru The studies illuminate such key issues as the effect of different political systems on the evolution of environmental policy regimes why some countries seem to perform better than others in environmental matters and the sociopolitical context of resource management Thinking about Democracy Arend Lijphart, 2007-10-10 This book draws on Professor Arend Lijphart's lifetime experience of research and publication in democracy and comparative politics and collects together for the first time his most significant and influential work Reshaping World Politics Craig Warkentin, 2001 This text examines the ways in which non governmental organizations NGOs contribute to the development and maintenance of global civil society The author investigates eight NGOs and connects their organizational activities to global civil society's constitutive dynamics and processes Bharat..... "The development dilemma" CA ANIL K JAIN, 2025-08-27 Bharat The development dilemma A Strategic Initiative for National Development This book offers one of the most comprehensive and research driven explorations of India's economic journey to date It critically examines the country's structural challenges and presents innovative actionable policy recommendations Targeted at policymakers economists academics and informed readers the book bridges essential knowledge gaps while advocating for bold often unconventional reforms to support India's ambition of becoming a leading global economic power India now the world's fifth largest economy by nominal GDP and third largest by purchasing power parity PPP has a complex and evolving economic structure It comprises a large agricultural base a steadily growing industrial sector and a dominant services sector Since independence in 1947 and especially after the transformative liberalization reforms of 1991 India has made significant economic strides Yet agriculture still employs over 40% of the population while contributing only 16.18% to GDP highlighting deep rooted structural inefficiencies Industry and manufacturing account for 25.30% of GDP supported by initiatives like Make in India while the services sector powered by IT finance and telecom contributes over half of the country's economic output Despite these advances India grapples with persistent challenges such as inadequate infrastructure high unemployment bureaucratic hurdles corruption and stark regional disparities These issues often dilute the impact of development efforts especially at the grassroots level This book confronts these realities head on offering pragmatic and forward thinking solutions It serves as an essential resource for policymakers civil service aspirants educators and anyone seeking a deeper understanding of India's economic potential and policy landscape Islamic Extremism Monte Palmer, Princess Palmer, 2007-11-03 This accessible and deeply informed book examines the threat that Islamic extremists pose to America and provides a balanced and nuanced discussion of the link between Iraq and the war on terror Explaining the basics of Islam and guiding the reader through the intricacies of each significant fundamentalist group the Palmers answer key questions Who are the Muslim extremists and how do they fit within the broader context of the Islamic religion What is their war plan and how do they operate Who are their allies and what are their weaknesses What is the experience of Israel the Islamic world and the United States in fighting Muslim extremists How can they be defeated The book includes detailed analyses of Hizbullah and the Muslim Brotherhood Hamas the Iraqi clones of Hizbullah and the Islamic government in Turkey

Rural Violence in Contemporary Nigeria Usman A. Tar, Bashir Bala, 2023-04-14 The book explores the pressing problem of rural violence in contemporary Nigeria by assessing the changing patterns of conflict and response across the country Rural violence in Nigeria is becoming an increasingly pressing concern with cattle rustling banditry kidnapping and farmer herder conflicts putting immense pressure on the state's institutional preparedness and the response capacity of the government military and other security agencies Drawing from the expertise of a wide range of African development governance and security researchers and practitioners this book assesses the severity of the current problem of rural violence and provides a critical analysis of the various national and state responses to rural violence in Nigeria Ultimately the book aims to provide suggestions for restoring peace security and development in Nigeria This book will be of interest to scholars researchers and administrators across Political Science Security Studies Rural Studies and Regional Studies in Africa
