Political Re Mapping Of Africa:

Political Re-Mapping of Africa Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo, 1994 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com Remapping Africa in the Global Space Edward Shizha, 2014-11-26 What are the benefits and risks for Africa's participation in the globalisation nexus Remapping Africa in the Global Space is a visionary and interdisciplinary volume that restores Africa's image using a multidisciplinary lens It incorporates disciplines such as sociology education global studies economics development studies political science and philosophy to explore and theorise Africa's reality in the global space and to deconstruct the misperceptions and narratives that often infantilise Africa's internal and international relations The contributions to this volume are a hybrid of both outsider and insider perspectives that create a balanced critical discourse that can provide standard paradigms that can adequately explain predict or prevent Africa's current misperceptions and myths about the African crisis and failure status The authors provide a holistic and perhaps anticolonial and anti hegemonic perspective that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics scholars students development agents policy makers in both governmental and non governmental organisations and engage some alternative analyses and possibilities for socio politico and economic advancement in Africa The book provides up to date scholarly research on continental trends on various subjects and concerns of paramount importance to globalisation and development in Africa The book is brilliant Remapping Africa in the Global Space Propositions for Change explores Africa from the perspective of academics specialised in subject matters pertaining to the continent In this age of globalisation I find this book invaluable It is a good read as it dissects analyses and presents issues affecting the continent in an articulate and cogent way I highly recommend its use in academic institutions Magnus Mfoafo M Carthy Assistant Professor Lyle S Hallman Faculty of Social Work Fellow of Tshepo Institute for the Study of Contemporary Africa Wilfrid Laurier University Kitchener Canada More than anything else Remapping Africa in the Global Space Propositions for Change speaks to the complex multifaceted and interfused character of the development challenges and prospects of Africa Indeed few books have examined contemporary Africa as comprehensively and insightfully as this edited volume it is widely welcomed in the African academic scholarly and research arena Joseph Mensah Professor of Geography York University Toronto Political Re-Mapping of Africa Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo, 1994 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com Handbook of Africa's International Relations Tim Murithi, 2013-09-05 Africa's international relations have often been defined and oriented by the dominant international and geopolitical agendas of the day In the aftermath of colonialism the Cold War became a dominant paradigm that defined the nature of the continent's relationship with the rest of the world The contemporary forces of globalization are now exerting an undue influence and impact upon Africa's international relations Increasingly the African continent is emerging as a vocal and in some respects an influential actor in international relations There is a paucity of analysis and research on this emerging trend This timely book proposes to fill this analytical gap by engaging with a wide range of issues with chapters written by experts on a variety of themes The emerging political prominence of the African continent on the world stage is predicated on an evolving internal process of continental integration In particular there are normative and policy efforts to revive the spirit of Pan Africanism the 21st century is witnessing the evolution of Pan Africanism notably through the constitution and establishment of the African Union AU Given the fact that there is a dearth of analysis on this phenomenon this volume will also interrogate the notion of Pan Africanism through various lenses notably peace and security development the environment and trade The volume will also engage with the emerging role of the AU as an international actor e g with regard to its role in the reform of the United Nations Security Council climate change the International Criminal Court ICC the treaty establishing Africa as a nuclear free zone Internally Displaced Persons the Millennium Development Goals MDGs international trade the environment public health issues security and development issues This book will assess how the AU's role as an international actor is complicated by the difficulty of promoting consensus among African states and then maintaining that consensus in the face of often divergent national interests This book will in part assess the role of the AU in articulating collective and joint policies and in making interventions in international decision and policy making circles The Handbook will also assess the role of African social movements and their relationship with global actors The role of African citizens in ameliorating their own conditions is often underplayed in the international relations discourse and this volume will seek to redress this oversight Throughout the book the various chapters will also assess the role that these citizen linkages have contributed towards continental integration and in confronting the challenges of globalization

Explorations in African Political Thought

Teodros Kiros, 2013-10-23 This rich collection brings together many of the leading authorities on African political philosophy to present a variety of perspectives on this rapidly growing field They seek to show that African philosophy can serve African people as a moral activity guided by the principles of practical reason in addressing problems of the basic structures of social political and economic institutions

Imagining the United States of Africa

E. Ike Udogu, 2015-02-10 This book frames the debates around the pressing desire for some form of unification that found expression in the pan Africanist movement and formation of the Organization of African Unity in Addis Ababa Ethiopia in 1963 following the advent of home rule for many former colonies of the Western powers Discussions in this volume address the following fundamental issues nationalism and political integration and how the contradictions between both philosophies can be resolved the amelioration of corruption in order to attract internal and external investments critical for developing the vast natural resources housed in the continent the need for Africa's adaptation to the ideology and practice of capitalism and liberal globalization to suit the character of African states in a projected federal United States of Africa solutions to ethnic conflicts that are bound to happen over clashes of competing group interests the indispensability and promotion of information communication technologies and urgent need to strengthen a network of regional electric power grids that would provide constant energy to the Union and lead to improvement in communication and economic growth and recommendation of social democracy as the genre of democracy suitable for a proposed United States of Africa Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1994

Coloniality of Power in Postcolonial Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2013 In this book the author examines the current state of postcolonial Africa with a focus on the liberation predicament and the crisis of epistemological cultural economic and political dependence created by colonialism and coloniality Africana Social Stratification James L. Conyers Jr.,2017-11-30 This study seeks to critically examine the field and function of social stratification with emphasis on Africana phenomena Phrased another way this edited volume attempts to study and focus on who gets what and why with regard to resources and structural application of support The John Henrik Clarke query is who made this arrangement of leadership in America Moreover serving as a reference this study will assist researchers in contextualizing and thematically examining the structural and resource allocation of disparity exhibited toward Africana people This manuscript of essays is the first its kind This study incorporates an interdisciplinary scope to examine the concept of Africana Social Stratification in the subject areas of history political science economics Africana Studies and social policy The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba,Toyin Falola,2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues Remapping Global Politics Yale H. Ferguson,Richard W. Mansbach,2004-11-11 This book seeks to redraw our mental maps of global politics and to explain the shifting and accelerating forces that are shaping those maps The authors build on the concept of post internationalism focusing primarily on political space and political identity which they argue are the new frontiers of global political theory They suggest that the state is losing capacity legitimacy and authority to remain the primary actor in world affairs and is giving way to a more complex post international universe characterized by diverse and overlapping polities This book is the result of the authors long standing joint research into the nature and dynamics of global politics a collaboration that has spanned over three decades It makes an important contribution to the literatures on globalization and the future of international relations theory African Political Thought G. Martin,2012-12-23 Focusing on individual political thinkers and beginning with indigenous African political thought the book successively examines African nationalism African socialism populism and Marxism Africanism and pan Africanism concluding with contemporary perspectives on democracy development and the African state

Knowledge Matters Diana Rhoten, Craig Calhoun, 2011-02-21 Higher education can be a vital public good providing opportunities for students informed citizens for democracy and knowledge to improve the human condition Yet public investment in universities is widely being cut often because public purposes are neglected while private benefits dominate In this collection international scholars confront the realities of higher education and the future of its public and private agenda Their perspectives illuminate the trajectory of education in the twenty first century and the continuing importance of the university s public mission Reporting from Asia Africa Europe Latin America and North America these scholars look at the different ways universities struggle to serve public and private agendas Contributors examine the implications of changes in funding sources as well as amounts different administrative and policy decisions and the significance of various approaches to assessment and evaluation They ask whether wider student access has in fact resulted in social mobility whether more scientific research can be treated as an open access resource how changes in academic publishing change access to knowledge and whether universities get full value from research sold to private corporations At the same time these chapters capture the confusion in the university sector over explaining academic work to a broader public and prioritizing its multiple purposes Authors examine these practical challenges and the implications of different approaches in different contexts

Peace, Security and Post-conflict Reconstruction in the Great Lakes Region of Africa Lumumba-Kasongo, Tukumbi, 2017-11-28 The Great Lakes region of Africa is characterized by protest politics partial democratization political illegitimacy and unstable economic growth Many of the countries that are members of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region ICGLR which are Burundi Angola Central African Republic Democratic Republic of the Congo Republic of the Congo Kenya Uganda Rwanda Sudan South Sudan Tanzania and Zambia have experienced political violence and bloodshed at one time or another While a few states have been advancing electoral democracy environmental protection and peaceful state building the overall intensity of violence in the region has led to civil wars invasion genocide dictatorships political instability and underdevelopment Efforts to establish sustainable peace meaningful socio economic development and participatory democracy have not been quite successful Using various methodologies and paradigms this book interrogates the complexity of the causes of these conflicts and examines their impact and implications for socio economic development of the region The non consensual actions related to these conflicts and imperatives of power struggles supported by the agents of savage capitalism have paralysed efforts toward progress The book therefore recommends new policy frameworks within regionalist lenses and neo realist politics to bring about sustainable peace in the region

Dreams of Power K. van Walraven, 2019-01-04 Originally published in 1999 this book was the first study to provide a systematic reconstruction of the OAU s ideological ground work It is based on OAU documents a corpus of African perceptions of OAU functioning collected from governmental and non governmental newspapers and publications from more than thirty African countries and on interviews held with African diplomats and OAU officials It was also the first study to pay attention to the OAU s role in the political psychology of state elites which comes to the fore in the areas of OAU co operation discussed in this book the OAU s internal functioning the former struggle against apartheid and colonialism conflict management and the OAU s role in representing collective African viewpoints in global fora This study was originally a Ph D thesis which was considered to be among the best three dissertations in political science in The Netherlands in 1997

A New Paradigm of the African State M. Muiu, G. Martin, 2009-01-05 Offers a historical multidisciplinary perspective on African political systems and institutions ranging from Antiquity Egypt Kush and Axum to the present with particular focus on their destruction through successive exogenous processes including the Atlantic slave trade imperialism colonialism and neo colonialism or globalization

Empire, Global Coloniality and African Subjectivity Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2013-06-01 Global imperial designs which have been in place since conquest by western powers did not suddenly evaporate after decolonization Global coloniality as a leitmotif of the empire became the order of the day with its invisible technologies of subjugation continuing to reproduce Africa s subaltern position a position characterized by perceived deficits ranging from a lack of civilization a lack of writing and a lack of history to a lack of development a lack of human rights and a lack of democracy The author s sharply critical perspective reveals how this epistemology of alterity has kept Africa ensnared within colonial matrices of power serving to justify external interventions in African affairs including the interference with liberation struggles and disregard for African positions Evaluating the quality of African responses and available options the author opens up a new horizon that includes cognitive justice and new humanism

The Oxford Handbook of Peaceful Change in International Relations T. V. Paul, Deborah Welch Larson, Harold A. Trinkunas, Anders Wivel, Ralf Emmers, 2021-08-05 The discipline of international relations offers much insight into why violent power transitions occur yet there have been few substantive examinations of why and how peaceful changes happen in world politics This work is the first comprehensive treatment of that subject The Oxford Handbook of Peaceful Change in International Relations provides a thorough examination of research on the problem of change in the international arena and the reasons why change happens peacefully at times and at others violently It contains over forty chapters which examine the historical theoretical global regional and national foreign policy dimensions of peaceful change As the world enters a new round of power transition conflict involving a rapidly rising China and a relatively declining United States this Handbook provides a necessary resource for decisionmakers and scholars engaged in this vital area of research

Civic Agency in Africa Ebenezer Obadare, Wendy Willems, 2014 Examines the variety of mostly unorganized and informal ways in which Africans exercise agency and resist state power in the 21st century through citizen action and popular culture and how the relationship between ruler and ruled is being reframed

Liberal Democracy and Its Critics in Africa Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasonga, 2013-07-04 Democratic institutional forms and processes are increasingly widespread in Africa as dictatorial regimes have been forced to give way as a result of popular mobilization and external donor pressure However the premises of the African scholars whose empirical research and analytical explorations are included in this volume are that democratic form and democratic substance are two different things Western derived institutional forms are neither necessarily the most appropriate nor the most practical in the current African context and rooting democratic norms in the political cultures of African polities raises socio cultural issues with which political scientists must engage This book explores various critical questions in the context of particular elections and particular countries as diverse as Ghana Nigeria Kenya the Congo Cameroon and the Central African Republic They include the continuing impact of police state apparatuses following democratic transition factors influencing African voters attitudes and behaviour the impact of incumbency on electoral competition women s electoral participation the phenomenon of often very limited party programmatic choice in the context of huge social diversity and multi party competition and the controversial issues around the transplantation of liberal democratic institutions Underlying these issues is the fundamental question of whether democratic processes as currently practised in Africa are really making any significant difference to the African struggle for economic social and cultural progress This volume is valuable for the original perspectives of its African contributors the issues it explores and the concrete democratic experiences it analyses and the challenges it makes to the existing concepts paradigms and practices of liberal democracy
