Politics And Liturgy Concilium:

The Authentic Doctrine of the Eucharist Teresa Whalen,1993 At the heart of Roman Catholicism lies the celebration of the Eucharist as it both expresses and renews the living faith of Catholics Each new generation accepts the tradition even as it articulates its own authentic understanding and expression of the Eucharistic doctrine The Authentic Doctrine of the Eucharist documents the rich heritage of this living tradition Liturgy Concilium,1972 Liturgico-Political Theology: an Introduction (Liturgy and Life as Foundation) Rev. Fr. Dr. Raphael Olawale Igbaoyinbo MSP,2021-04-06 This book introduces Liturgico Political Theology whose bedrock is the reality of the Paschal Mystery of Christ and the fruit it has borne for humanity salvation It presents this embrace of theology liturgy and politics as part of the effects of the Christ Jesus won for humanity in His victorious death on Good Friday It reiterates the inseparable connection between liturgy and life in a way that liturgical celebrations do not leave those who take part passive and inactive persons Hence proceeding through an hermeneutic study of liturgical orations of various Masses as presented in the Roman Missal the underlining messages and tasks given to political leaders in particular and public servants in general are articulated They come to realize that the ultimate goal of politicking is to emulate the selflessness of Jesus in serving humanity Announcing the Feast Jason McFarland,2012-02-01 How does the entrance song of the Mass function within the Roman Rite What can it express theologically What should Roman Catholics sing at the beginning of Mass In this groundbreaking study Jason McFarland answers these and other important questions by exploring the history and theology of the entrance song of Mass After a careful history of the entrance song he investigates its place in church documents He proposes several models of the entrance song for liturgical celebration today Finally he offers a skillful theological analysis of the entrance song genre focusing on the song for the Holy Thursday Evening Mass arguably the most important entrance song of the entire liturgical year Announcing the Feast provides the most comprehensive treatment of the Roman Rite entrance song to date It is unique in that it bridges the disciplines of liturgical studies musicology and theological method Masterworks of God M. Francis Mannion,2003 Masterworks of God Essays in Liturgical Theory and Practice by M Francis Mannion 2007 Theology and Power Stephan Bullivant,Eric Marcelo O. Genilo,Daniel Franklin Pilario,Agnes M. Brazal,2016 Ecology in Jurgen Moltmann's Theology Celia E. Deane-Drummond,2016-09-01 This book offers a critical and constructive analysis of the contribution of Jurgen Moltmann to the field of ecotheology Moltmann is one of the foremost and influential contemporary theologians of our time but his specific contribution to ecotheology has received relatively scant attention in the secondary literature The author deals sensitively with the relevant scientific aspects necessary in order to develop an adequate theology of the natural world She also offers a careful and constructive analysis of the specific systematic theologies of creation humanity eschatology and Trinity that are woven into Moltmann s rich interpretation of the relationship between God and creation Becoming Good, Becoming Holy Mark O'Keefe,2005-05-31 This is a long awaited and needed book about the mutual relationship between moral theology and spirituality in the past at the present time and with hope for the future It is a gentle and convincing book both in its tone and in its arguments It is in the best sense a scientific book and at the same time an existential text It appeals to mind and heart This is a most useful book for every Christian striving to become ever more a discerning person aiming at integration of prayer and life Books like this strengthen my unbroken optimism about the ongoing renewal of Christian ethics and Christian spirituality Bernhard Haering Gars Germany In Becoming Good Becoming Holy Mark O Keefe makes a valuable contribution to our understanding of the Christian life in its wholeness and integrity By connecting love and justice prayer discernment and moral decision making fundamental option and spiritual growth he challenges unhelpful divisions between Christian ethics and spirituality His vision of conversion and of the Christian life as a dynamic totality will appeal to a wide range of readers Elizabeth Dreyer Washington Theological Union Clearly written and insightful Becoming Good Becoming Holy is a convincing response to the Second Vatican Council's call to renew Catholic moral theology by centering it on our life in Christ Best of all O Keefe underscores both the pivotal connection between Eucharist and morality and the integral role of prayer and discernment in Christian moral decision making Paul Wadell Catholic Theological Union Mark O Keefe OSB is Associate Professor of Moral Theology at St Meinrad School of Theology and a Benedictine monk at St Meinrad Archabbey He is the author of What Are They Saying About Social Sin and his articles have appeared in New Theology Review Irish Theological Quarterly New Blackfriars Eglise et Theologie and other theological journals

Formed in the Image of Christ Kathleen A. Cahalan, 2004 A sacramental Christology and anthropology form the basis for Fr Bernard Haring's moral theology Christ as Word of God and High Priest embodies the perfect expression of worship and obedience The Christian life is an imitation of Christ's response to God we are called to make all responses religion and morality a religious response an act of adoring worship and praise

The Faith That Does Justice John C. Haughey, 2006-02-10 The essays in this volume address a closely interconnected set of questions To be true to its mission what function is the Church meant to perform What does the faith of Christians contribute to the human perception of justice What is the theological significance of action undertaken by Christians for political or social transformation Is justice to be looked on as one of the moral virtues that it is incumbent on Christians to practice or has it a more intrinsic link to the gift of faith which Christians have received Does the following of Christ call Christians away from social systems into the new creation or is the call extended to them to concern themselves with the social systems which shape human beings from the Foreword Contributors include Avery Dulles William Dych John Donahue John Langan David Hollenbach Richard Roach William Walsh

From Misery to Hope Joe Egan, 2010 How can one believe in a God of love amid all the evil and suffering found in the world How does one do theology after Auschwitz while vast numbers of people still have to endure violent oppression every day This book seeks to address such questions from a standpoint informed by life in Africa which in the face of extraordinary difficulties bears witness to Gospel hope by demonstrating forgiveness in action and promoting reconciliation The work unfolds in two parts In the first part a description of the misery that characterises much of life in Africa in the recent past opens up to a theological consideration of the underlying causes and of God's response to them In the second part the joy which is so characteristic of life in Africa even in places of immense suffering sets the scene for detailed reflections on liturgy memory forgiveness and hope Doxology: A Systematic Theology Geoffrey Wainwright, 1984 Described by the author as A systematic theology from a liturgical perspective or a theology of worship Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A. Lane, 2005-01-26 Today more and more people are asking questions about human social and cosmic destiny Does the universe have a purpose What is the point of historical existence What happens at death What can we hope for Is it possible to talk meaningfully about another world In Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A Lane addresses these and other questions The author sets out to develop a theology of hope rooted in both human experience and the Christian tradition In discussing Christian belief Lane pays particular attention to the death and resurrection of Christ as both the pivotal eschatological event and the fundamental ground of Christian hope At the same time he deals with contemporary human experience addressing questions arising from the Marxist critique of Christianity the nuclear threat the ecological crisis and the apparent emptiness of much post modern thinking Dermot Lane confronts difficult issues such as death heaven hell purgatory resurrection reincarnation and the possibility of universal salvation with realism and honesty The end result is a new theological synthesis that takes account of recent developments in anthropology feminism and cosmology This carefully crafted book will be of value to all who are asking searching questions about the meaning of living and dying Politically Incorrect Guide to Catholicism John Zmirak, 2016-09-26 A book to challenge the status quo spark a debate and get people talking about the issues and questions we face as a country Religion Index Two: Author and editor index, 1982 Vatican II Matthew L Lamb, Matthew Levering, 2008-04-30 In book title an international team of theologians offers a different reading of the documents from Vatican II The Council was indeed putting forth a vision for the future of the Church but that vision was grounded in two millennia of tradition Taken together these essays demonstrate that Vatican II's documents are a development from an established antecedent in the Roman Catholic Church Back cover The Sacrifice of Africa Emmanuel Katongole, 2011 In The Sacrifice of Africa Emmanuel Katongole confronts this painful legacy and shows how it continues to warp the imaginative landscape of African politics and society He demonstrates the real potential of Christianity to interrupt and transform entrenched political imaginations and create a different story for Africa a story of self sacrificing love that values human dignity and dares to invent a new and better future for all Africans Mystical Body, Mystical Voice Christopher Carstens, Douglas Martis, 2011 The Oxford Handbook of Catholic Theology Lewis Ayres, Medi Ann Volpe, 2019-03-28 The Oxford Handbook of Catholic Theology provides a one volume introduction to all the major aspects of Catholic theology Part One considers the nature of theological thinking and the major topics of Catholic teaching including the Triune God the Creation and the mission of the Incarnate Word It also covers the character of the Christian sacramental life and the major themes of Catholic moral teaching The treatments in the first part of the Handbook offer personal syntheses of Catholic teaching but each offers an account in accord with Catholic theology as it is expressed in the Second Vatican Council and authoritative documentation Part Two focuses on the historical development of Catholic Theology An initial section offers essays on some of Catholic theology s most important sources between 200 and 1870 and the final section of the collection considers all the main movements and developments in Catholic theology across the world since 1870 This comprehensive volume features fifty six original contributions by some of the best known names in current Catholic theology from the Americas Europe Asia and Africa The chapters are written in an engaging and easily comprehensible style functioning both as a scholarly reference and as a survey of the field There are no comparable studies available in one volume and the book will be an indispensable reference for students of Catholic theology at all levels and in all contexts @ Worship Teresa Berger, 2017-07-14 Digitally mediated liturgical practices raise challenging questions Are worshippers in an online chapel really a community at prayer Do avatars that receive digital bread and wine receive communion Worship is the first monograph dedicated to exploring online liturgical practices that have emerged since the introduction of Web 2 0
