African International Relations Mark W. DeLancey,2019-03-13 African International Relations is a thoroughly revised and updated bibliography that contains annotated entries for international books and journal articles in the field of African international relations

State, Resistance and Change in South Africa Philip Frankel,Noam Pines,Mark Swilling,2022-10-05 Originally published in 1988 this book describes and analyses the factors that were operative in South Africa during the 1980s at a time when Apartheid was under intense pressure It focuses not only on the central arenas of political action but also on the non institutional arenas which were increasingly the central forums of political action Organised around the three linked themes of state action popular opposition and possible alternatives the work examines the manner in which such key institutions such as government business and the military responded to Apartheid in its crisis as well as the role of the ANC the black trade unions Inkatha and community movements in the townships The final section deals with the South African left and the Freedom Charter

The Politics of Sentiment Richard E. Sincere,1984 A unique timely and important contribution to our understanding of American influence on developments in South Africa Non-State Actors in World Politics D. Josselin, W. Wallace, 2001-10-29 The involvement of non state actors in world politics can hardly be characterised as novel but intensifying economic and social exchange and the emergence of new modes of international governance have given them much greater visibility and many would argue a more central role Non state Actors in World Politics offers analyses of a diverse range of economic social legal and illegal old and new actors such as the Catholic Church trade unions diasporas religious movements transnational corporations and organised crime Challenge and Response Robert Royal, 1985 February 1985 Cover King Solomons Mines William Minter, 1988-05-31 Investment and Social Responsibility, South Africa , 1986 From Mainline to Sideline Lloyd Billingsley, 1990 Despite charges that the National Council of Churches funneled money to Marxist Leninist governments and insurgencies there has been no sustained examination of the NCC s politics or spending habits Now journalist K L Billingsley documents a pattern of political partisanship by the NCC

South Africa Under Apartheid Jacqueline Audrey Kalley, 1987 As apartheid s crisis has deepened so interest in South Africa s past present and future has increased With this scholarly and popular writing on the country has proliferated This 1100 entry Bibliography guides the scholar or interested layman through the relevant literature on South Africa and the policy of apartheid Its cumulative impact is to show how racial domination permeates all aspects of modern South African society Brief informative annotations facilitate choice and the extensive Subject and Author Indexes provide quick access

The Business Turn in American Religious History Amanda Porterfield, Darren E. Grem, John Corrigan, 2017 Business has received little attention in American religious history although it has profound implications for understanding the sustained popularity and ongoing transformation of religion in the United States This volume offers a wide ranging exploration of the business aspects of American religious organizations The authors analyze the financing production marketing and distribution of religious goods and services and the role of wealth and economic organization in sustaining and even shaping worship charity philanthropy institutional growth and missionary work Treating religion and business holistically their essays show that American religious life has always been informed by business practices Laying the groundwork for further investigation the authors show how American business has functioned as a domain for achieving religious goals Indeed they find that religion has historically been more powerful when interwoven with business Chapters on Mormon enterprise Jewish philanthropy Hindu gurus Native American casinos and the wedding of business wealth to conservative Catholic social teaching demonstrate the range of new studies stimulated by the business turn in American religious history Other chapters show how evangelicals joined neo liberal economic practice and right wing politics to religious fundamentalism to consolidate wealth and power and how they developed marketing campaigns and organizational strategies that transformed the American religious landscape Included are essays exposing the moral compromises religious organizations have made to succeed as centers of wealth and influence and the religious beliefs that rationalize and justify these compromises Still others examine the application of business practices as a means of sustaining religious institutions and expanding their reach and look at controversies over business practices within religious organizations and the adjustments such organizations have made in response Together the essays collected here offer new ways of conceptualizing the interdependence of religion and business in the United States establishing multiple paths for further study of their intertwined historical development United States Sanctions and South Africa Terrel D. Hale, 1993-07-27 During the last twenty years United States attitudes and legislation regarding sanctions against South Africa have gone through considerable flux This bibliography is designed to provide a guide to the statutes dealing with sanctions government documents examining the issue and books articles and pamphlets issued on the topic The bibliography is organized by type of material with the bulk of the entries annotated and with access enhanced by a general subject index keyed to entry number
