Postmodern Poetry and Queer Medievalisms: Time Mechanics David Haddbawnik,2022-06-06 This volume builds on recent scholarship on contemporary poetry in relation to medieval literature focusing on postmodern poets who work with the medieval in a variety of ways Such recent projects invert or queer the usual transactional nature of engagements with older forms of literature in which readers are asked to exchange some small measure of bewilderment at archaic language or forms for a sense of having experienced a medieval text The poets under consideration in this volume demand that readers grapple with the ways in which we are still medieval in other words the ways in which the questions posed by their medieval source material still reverberate and hold relevance for today s world They do so by challenging the primacy of present over past toppling the categories of old and new and suggesting new interpretive frameworks for contemporary and medieval poetry alike

Background Noise, Second Edition Brandon LaBelle,2015-01-29 Background Noise follows the development of sound as an artistic medium and illustrates how sound is put to use within modes of composition installation and performance While chronological in its structure Brandon LaBelle s book is informed by spatial thinking weaving architecture environments and the specifics of location into the work of sound with the aim of formulating an expansive history and understanding of sound art At its center the book presupposes an intrinsic relation between sound and its location galvanizing acoustics sound phenomena and the environmental with the tensions inherent in what LaBelle identifies as sound s relational dynamic For the author this is embedded within sound s tendency to become public expressed in its ability to travel distances foster cultural expression and define spaces while being radically flexible This second expanded edition includes a new chapter on the non human and subnatural tendencies in sound art revisions to the text as well as a new preface by the author Intersecting material analysis with theoretical frameworks spanning art and architectural theory performance studies and media theory Background Noise makes the case that sound and sound art are central to understandings of contemporary culture

Talking through the Door Susan Atefat-Peckham, 2014-06-30 The writers included here are descendants of multiple cultural heritages and reflect the perspectives of various ethnic and cultural backgrounds Egyptian Iranian Iraqi Jordanian Lebanese Libyan Palestinian Syrian They are from diverse socioeconomic classes and spiritual sensibilities Jewish Muslim Christian and atheist among others Yet they coexist in this volume simply as American voices Atefat Peckham gathered poetry and prose from sixteen accomplished writers whose works concern a variety of themes from the familial cross cultural misunderstandings and conflicts in the works of Iranian American writers Nahid Rachlin and Roger Sedarat to the mysticism of Khaled Mattawa s poems from the superstitions that govern characters in Diana Abu Jaber s prose to the devastating homesickness of Pauline Kaldas s characters Filled with emotion and keen observations this collection showcases these writers vital contributions to contemporary American literature

Teaching a Child to Read and Write Well Aunty Alice, 2013-12-18 In spite of the wide range of resources and innovative teaching methods schools have had and are using many students still fail to acquire literacy Many have specific problems with word and letter symbols They reverse and invert them their hearing cannot discriminate fine differences in letter sounds or they do not perceive patterns easily for their brain to make connections Their visual and auditory memory may fail them or their culture may use language that does not align with the standard accepted forms in the text These children are disadvantaged because their brains work differently and they think and respond differently This book embraces a different metaphor for teaching literacy that does not compartmentalize the curriculum into separate areas such as spelling reading writing listening speaking and presenting Instead the focus is on assessing their written language as a place to start in planning for success An unassisted sample of a learners writing could be said to be an example of what they understand of literacy whether it be a scribble at three or an essay at twelve I have proved conclusively that if teacher and student work collaboratively on improving their writing using their reading as a model their reading ability rises naturally This customized and individualized teaching method enables authentic teacher student interactions This not only allows the teacher to closely tailor their teaching to each students unique learning needs but it also brings the student on board in
