Realizing Human Rights NA NA, 2016-09-27 At the dawn of a new era this book brings together leading activists policy makers and critics to reflect upon fifty years of attempts to improve respect for human rights Authors include President Jimmy Carter who helped inject human rights concerns into US policy Wei Jingsheng who struggled to do so in China Louis Henkin the modern father of international law and Richard Goldstone the former chief prosecutor for the Yugoslav and Rwandan war crimes tribunals A half century since the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights the time is right to assess how policies and actions effect the realization of human rights and to point to new directions and challenges that lie ahead A must have for everyone in the human rights community and the broader foreign policy community as well as the reader who is increasingly aware of the visibility of human rights concerns on the public stage Human Rights in Nigeria's External Relations in the Age of General Muhammadu Buhari and His Successors Philip C.

Aka, 2024-07-17 Under the Fourth Republic since 1999 the challenge Nigerian leaders face like never before is how to create a state that matches the expectations of their diverse peoples at home and abroad Taking this proposition as starting point this book advances proposals for a human right policy referred to alternately in the work as principled foreign policy for Nigeria under the Fourth Republic taking advantage of the inestimable opportunity afforded by General Muhammadu Buhari s departure from the political scene on May 29 2023 after the famine domestically and externally wrought by his two terms of office as President It is a broad ranging argument draped in the less arcane constitutional vocabulary and material of human rights for thoroughgoing reforms at home and abroad as the only antidote to the nation building dilemmas Nigeria confronts in the first quarter of the twenty first century Buhari s departure marks the end of military teleguidance of Nigerian politics under the Fourth Republic in the camouflage of democratic rule a birthmark of remote control dating back to the first military intervention in the country in January 1966 These momentous events within Nigeria coincide with equally epoch making developments in the UK Nigeria s former colonial overlord with ripple effects in Nigeria signified by the death of Queen Elizabeth II after seven decades on the throne and the emergence of Prince Charles as King of England A new monarch in Britain adds to the opportunity that falls open for the reconfiguration of Nigeria's external relations with ramifications for the application of human rights in those relations Despite its known disabilities Nigeria has the potential infrastructure including its sizable population to conduct a human right policy if its leaders rationalize the country's resources more wisely

Navigating the Tension Between Sovereignty and Self-Determination in Postcolonial Africa Philip C. Aka, 2024-01-16 This book addresses the unique challenges faced by Africa regarding peaceful self-determination Unlike other regions Africa has seen limited success in nonviolent self-determination campaigns Since 1989 only three African nations Namibia Eritrea and South Sudan have joined the UN after enduring prolonged and violent struggles for independence In a world characterized by constant change border alterations typically require armed conflicts in postcolonial Africa In response to this disconcerting trend the book offers pragmatic blueprints for achieving peace emphasizing constitutional approaches to navigate the delicate balance between sovereignty and self-determination The work delves into the complexities of five self-determination struggles spanning three African countries providing valuable insights into the challenges faced It distills six critical lessons from these case studies and presents fourteen blueprint proposals tailored to address the unique dynamics of postcolonial Africa where reconciling sovereignty and self-determination remains a pressing concern

The Content and Context of Hate Speech Michael Herz, Peter Molnar, 2012-04-09 The contributors to this volume consider whether it is possible to establish carefully tailored hate speech policies that are cognizant of the varying traditions histories and values of different countries Throughout there is a strong comparative emphasis with examples and authors drawn from around the world All the authors explore whether or when different cultural and historical settings justify different substantive rules given that such cultural relativism can be used to justify content-based restrictions and so endanger freedom of expression Essays address the following questions among others is hate speech in fact so dangerous or harmful to vulnerable minorities or communities as to justify a lower standard of constitutional protection What harms and benefits accrue from laws that criminalize hate speech in particular contexts Are there circumstances in which everyone would agree that hate speech should be criminally punished What lessons can be learned from international case law

An Insider's Guide to the UN Linda M. Fasulo, 2004-01-01 A guide to the United Nations covers such topics as its history organization finances and operations around the world

Fidel Castro and Africa's Liberation Struggle Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, Charity Manyeruke, 2020-10-01 The post 1959 Cuban government's engagement with Africa which was led by its charismatic and revolutionary leader Fidel Castro had two connecting dimensions military internationalism and humanitarian internationalism While African states and societies benefited immensely from these engagements it was Fidel Castro's military assistance towards the decolonization of and the pushback of Apartheid South Africa that received the loudest attention and ovation in the developing world Fidel Castro this book argues was never motivated by economic selfish or geopolitical considerations but rather by the altruism and the certainty of his worldview and by the historical connection between the peoples of Cuba and Africa The principle of international solidarity socialism and the emancipation of Africa was a much desired aspiration and attainment Beginning covertly in Algeria in 1961 and the Congo and Guinea Bissau in 1964 and more conspicuously in Angola in 1975 Fidel Castro and his socialist government was at the forefront supporting liberation movements in their struggle against colonialism Defining Castro's engagement with Africa was his support for the People's Movement for the Liberation of Angola MPLA against the United States backed Apartheid South Africa which supported the National Liberation Front of Angola FNLA and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola UNITA

The Ethics of Foreign Policy David B. MacDonald, Robert G. Patman, 2016-03-23 This ground breaking volume considers the ethical aspects of foreign policy change through five interrelated dimensions conceptual security economic normative and diplomatic Defining ethics and what an ethical foreign policy should be is highly contested The book includes many very different viewpoints to reflect the strong divergence of opinion on such issues as humanitarian intervention free trade the doctrine of preemption political corruption and human rights The thematic approach provides this volume with a clear organizational structure giving readers a balanced overview of a number of important conceptual and practical issues central to the ethical analysis of states conduct and foreign policy making An impressive group of international scholars and practitioners including a New Zealand Foreign Minister a US National Security Advisor and an ICJ Justice makes this volume ideally suited to courses on international relations security studies ethics and human rights philosophy media studies and international law
