Epilogue escaping the Islamic state Diderot and Lessing as Exemplars of a Post-Spinozist Mentality Louise Crowther, 2010 Renowned as the chief challenger of traditional views of morality man's freedom and religion from 1650-1750 Benedict de Spinoza 1632-77 spread alarm and confusion throughout Europe through his writings Theologians and rulers desperately sought to ban the spread of Spinozist ideas and in the post-Spinozist climate eighteenth-century thinkers often exasperated and perplexed attempted to cope with the fallout from this intellectual explosion The philosophical radicalism of Denis Diderot 1713-84 a French philosophe and Gotthold Ephraim Lessing 1729-81 a German philosopher well exemplifies the post-Spinozist mentality that permeated eighteenth-century thinking As they grapple with the loss of intellectual moral and theological certainties Diderot and Lessing re-work post-Spinozist ideas and in many instances elucidate even more radical ideas than Spinoza himself had envisaged The Religious Lives of Older Laywomen Abby Day, 2017 The Religious Lives of Older Laywomen draws on ethnographic fieldwork cross-cultural comparisons and relevant theories exploring the beliefs identities and practices of Generation A Anglican laywomen born in the 1920s and 1930s Now in their 70s 80s and 90s they are often described as the backbone of the Church and likely its final active generation The prevalence of laywomen in mainstream Christian congregations is a widely accepted phenomenon that will cause little surprise amongst the research community or Christian adherents What is surprising is that we know so little about them Generation A laywomen have remained largely invisible in previous work on institutional religion in Euro-American countries particularly as the focus on religion and gender has turned to youth sexuality and priesthood Female Christian Generation A is on the cusp of a catastrophic decline in mainstream Christianity that accelerated during the post-war post-1945 age The age profile of mainstream Christianity represents an increasingly aging pattern with Generation A not being replaced by their children or grandchildren the Baby Boomers and generations X Y and Z Generation A is irreplaceable and unique Generation A shares specific values beliefs behaviors and orientations therefore when this generation finally disappears within the next five to 10 years their knowledge insights and experiences will be lost forever Abby Day both documents and interprets their religious lives and what we can learn about them and more widely about contemporary Christianity and its future Longing for an Absent God Nick Ripatrazone, 2020-03-03 Longing for an Absent God unveils the powerful role of faith and doubt in the American literary tradition Nick Ripatrazone explores how two major strands of Catholic writers practicing and cultural intertwine and sustain each other Ripatrazone explores the writings of devout American Catholic writers in the years before the Second Vatican Council through the work of Flannery O'Connor J.F. Powers and Walker Percy those who were raised Catholic but drifted from the church such as the Catholic-educated Don DeLillo and Cormac McCarthy the convert Toni Morrison the Mass-going Thomas Pynchon and the ritual-driven Louise Erdrich and a new crop of faithful American Catholic writers including Ron Hansen Phil Klay and Alice McDermott who write Catholic stories for our contemporary world These critically acclaimed and award-winning voices illustrate that Catholic storytelling is innately powerful and appealing to both secular and religious audiences Longing for an Absent God demonstrates the profound differences in the storytelling styles and results of these two groups of major writers but ultimately shows how taken together they offer a rich and unique American literary tradition that spans the full spectrum of doubt and faith

Religion and Society at the Dawn of Modern Europe Rudolf Schlögl, 2020-02-20 This book reveals how in confrontation with secularity various new forms of Christianity evolved during the time of Europe's crisis of modernisation Rudolf Schlögl provides a comprehensive overview of the development of religious institutions and piety in Protestant and Catholic Europe between 1750 and 1850 at the same time he offers a detailed exposition of contemporary philosophical theological and socio theoretical thought on the nature and function of religion This allows us to understand the importance of religion in the self defining of European society during a period of great change and upheaval Religion and Society at the Dawn of Modern Europe is a pivotal work translated into English here for the first time for all scholars and students of European society in the 18th and 19th centuries
