Leadership within their health or social care role Overall the book is clearly aimed at practitioners and should be a must read for those who wish to understand more about practical leadership and who aspire to more senior positions within their field of practice Lecturer Staffordshire University Faculty of Health Sciences Leadership in Health and Social Care is an accessible text for students and practitioners seeking to develop their leadership skills I commend this book to you as a way in to the leadership world for anyone working in health and social care It treats you like an adult and expects you to take responsibility for your own leadership development We now know that good leadership has a direct relationship with good services and we can certainly no longer afford mediocrity We need leaders to enable the disruptive innovation that will be required to improve the quality of care with less resource to do so From the Foreword by Karen Middleton Chief Health Professions Officer for England Key features Introduces the concept of leadership and its importance in health and social care Discusses the skills and qualities that make for effective leadership Analyses the role of the leader as a catalyst for change Helps readers to explore their own perceptions of leadership through activities and scenarios

The Military and Negotiation Deborah Goodwin, 2004-11-23 A new investigation of the role of the modern soldier diplomat and the nature of military negotiation in comparison with negotiation in other key contexts This new book presents a detailed analysis of the role of the military in current operations as negotiators and liaison workers in the field It shows how very few in the academic world are writing on this specific role of the military and the nature of negotiation in this situation and such a volatile context This publication is a first in this context and has a keen audience in light of the current world order This study breaks new ground in analyzing the nature of military negotiation in relation to more generic forms of negotiation and assessing the role of the modern soldier diplomat in recent deployments around the world The author is an academic working within the military environment very few people have the same capacity and accessibility to firsthand evidence and observation Whilst peacekeeping has grown in the last decade or so no one has successfully investigated the role of the military and their approach to non violent conflict resolution on the ground as few have access to such work to make a viable detailed assessment of the nature of negotiation in a violent context but Dr Goodwin is able to do so

Cults, Religion, and Violence David G. Bromley, J.
