Red Land, Black Land Barbara Mertz, 1967 The Red Land Steven E. Sidebotham, Martin Hense, Hendrikje M. Nouwens, 2008-07-01 For thousands of years Egypt has crowded the Nile Valley and Delta The Eastern Desert however has also played a crucial though until now little understood role in Egyptian history Ancient inhabitants of the Nile Valley feared the desert which they referred to as the Red Land and were reluctant to venture there yet they exploited the extensive mineral wealth of this region They also profited from the valuable wares conveyed across the desert between the Nile and the Red Sea ports which originated from Arabia Africa India and elsewhere in the east Based on twenty years of archaeological fieldwork conducted in the Eastern Desert The Red Land reveals the cultural and historical richness of this little known and seldom visited area of Egypt A range of important archaeological sites dating from Prehistoric to Byzantine times is explored here in text and illustrations Among these ancient treasures are petroglyphs cemeteries fortified wells gold and emerald mines hard stone quarries roads forts ports and temples With 250 photographs and fascinating artistic reconstructions based on the evidence on the ground along with the latest research and accounts from ancient sources and modern travelers the authors lead the reader into the remotest corners of the hauntingly beautiful Eastern Desert to discover the full story of the area's human history Power, Presence and Space Henry Albery, Jens-Uwe Hartmann, Himanshu Prabha Ray, 2020-07-26 Patterns of ritual power presence and space are fundamentally connected to and mirror the societal and political power structures in which they are enacted This book explores these connections in South Asia from the early Common Era until the present day The essays in the volume examine a wide range of themes including a genealogy of ideas concerning Vedic rituals in European thought Buddhist donative rituals of Gandhara and Andhra Pradesh in the early Common Era land endowments festivals and temple establishments in medieval Tamil Nadu and Karnataka Mughal court rituals of the Mughal Empire and contemporary ritual complexes on the Nilgiri Plateau This volume argues for the need to redress a historical neglect in identifying and theorising ritual and religion in material contexts within archaeology Further it challenges existing theoretical and methodological forms of documentation to propose new ways of understanding rituals in history This volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of South Asian history religion archaeology and historical geography
