Handbook of Regional Conflict Resolution Initiatives in the Global South Jeronimo Delgado-Caicedo, 2022-07-28 During the first half of the twentieth century the international system was largely dominated by the USA and the colonial powers of western Europe After the two world wars the political and economic dominance of these states guaranteed them and their allies an almost complete control of world politics However as it is the norm in the international system power structures are not immutable After the end of the Cold War rapid changes to the existing international hierarchies took place as new countries from the so called developing world began to emerge as crucial actors capable of questioning and altering the power dynamics of the world It is therefore unthinkable to ignore emerging countries such as Russia the People's Republic of China India Brazil or South Africa in the decision making process in today's world order In addition there is a group of smaller yet increasingly important countries that while acknowledging their inability radically to change the rules of the international system are still eager to shift power relations and enhance their influence in the world Argentina Colombia Egypt Indonesia Iran South Korea Mexico Nigeria Pakistan Saudi Arabia Turkey and Vietnam are generally recognised as part of this grouping of emerging powers from the Global South While there is a consensus amongst academics that emerging powers from the Global South must have a stabilising role within their own regions previous analyses have focused primarily on the impact that emerging powers have had in their own regions conflict resolution initiatives This volume

instead aims to go beyond these analyses and provide new insights regarding the effect that this stabilising role has on the continental and global positioning of emerging powers In other words this book explores the relation between a country s involvement in conflict resolution initiatives and its positioning in the international system The volume will contribute to this approach using the perspective of academics and practitioners from countries of the Global South particularly from states that have strengthened or sometimes weakened their position in the international hierarchy of power through a leading role in regional conflict resolution initiatives Region-Building in Southern Africa Chris Saunders,Gwinyayi Albert

Dzinesa,Dawn Nagar,2013-07-04 How successful have Southern African states been in dealing with the major issues that have faced the region in recent years What could be done to produce more cohesive and effective region building in Southern Africa In this original and wide ranging volume which draws on an interdisciplinary team of mainly African and African based specialists the key political socio economic and security challenges facing Southern Africa today are addressed These include the various issues confronting the Southern African Development Community SADC and its institutions such as HIV AIDS migration and xenophobia land grabbing and climate change and the role of the main external actors involved with the region including the United Nations the European Union the United States and China The book also looks at the Southern African Customs Union and Southern African Development Finance Institutions including the Development Bank of Southern Africa and Industrial Development Corporation and issues of gender and peacebuilding In doing so the book goes to the heart of analyzing the effectiveness of SADC and other regional organisation suggesting how region building in Southern Africa may be compared with similar attempts elsewhere in Africa and other parts of the world Handbook of Universities and

Regional Development Attila Varga,Katalin Erdős,2019-12-27 The Handbook on Universities and Regional Development offers a comprehensive and up to date insight into how academic institutions spur their surroundings The volume sheds light on universities as regional development actors from a historical perspective by introducing institutional changes and discussing the interrelatedness of society business and academia It provides detailed investigations on various knowledge transfer mechanisms to help understand the diverse ways through which ideas and intellectual property can flow between universities and businesses Detailed case studies from three continents Europe Asia and America demonstrate the highly contextual nature of the interactions between academia industry and government Region-building Ludger

Kühnhardt,2010-07-01 After two centuries of nation building the world has entered an era of region building in search of political stability cultural cohesion and socio economic development Nations involved in the regional structures and integration schemes that are emerging in most regions of the world are deepening their ambitions with Europe s integration experience often used as an experimental template or theoretical model Volume I provides a political analytical framework for recognizing the central role of the European Union not only as a conceptual model but also a normative engine in the global proliferation of regional integration It also gives a comprehensive treatment of the focus motives and objectives of non

European integration efforts Volume II offers a unique collection of documents that give the best available overview of the legal and political evolution of region building based on official documents and stated objectives of the relevant regional groupings across all continents Together these volumes are important contributions for understanding the evolution of global affairs in an age when power shifts provide new challenges and opportunities for transatlantic partners and the world community     Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,2005     Regional Planning John Glasson,Tim Marshall,2007-11-21 This comprehensive introduction to the concepts and theory of regional planning in the UK Drawing on examples from throughout the UK is the essential up to date text for students interested in all aspects of this increasingly influential subject     Conflict Management, Security and Intervention in East Asia ,     Landscapes and Landforms of Scotland Colin K.
