Theater Voices Steve Capra, 2004-11-19 According to Sir Peter Hall The theatre's been dying for two thousand years and I'm sure will continue to In the meantime Hall and other leading figures of the stage have continued to influence theater productions throughout the world In this collection of interviews twenty seven theater artists explore issues of theater theory and practice illuminated by their wide range of perspectives From traditional attitudes toward theatre to more avant garde approaches every facet of stage performance is addressed Taken as a whole these interviews reveal both the strength and extraordinary mutability of theater as expressed by some of the most honored and well regarded names of the stage including Julie Harris Quentin Crisp Spalding Gray Martin Sherman Karen Finley Eddie Izzard Alan Ayckbourn Robert Brustein Uta Hagen John Lahr Stephen Daldry and Edward Albee

Acting in the Academy Peter Zazzali, 2016-03-31 There are over 150 BFA and MFA acting programs in the US today nearly all of which claim to prepare students for theatre careers Peter Zazzali contends that the curricula of these courses represent an ethos that is as outdated as it is limited given today's shrinking job market for stage actors Acting in the Academy traces the history of actor training in universities to make the case for a move beyond standard courses in voice and speech movement or performance to develop an entrepreneurial model that motivates and encourages students to create their own employment opportunities This book answers questions such as How has the League of Professional Theatre Training Programs shaped actor training in the US How have training programmes and the acting profession developed in relation to one another What impact have these developments had on American acting as an art form Acting in the Academy calls for a reconceptualization of actor training the US and looks to newly empower students of performance with a fresh original perspective on their professional development

Beth Henley Julia A. Fesmire, 2014-01-21 Beth Henley was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in Drama and the New York Drama Critics Circle Award for Best American Play for her first full length play Crimes of the Heart yet there has been no book length consideration of her body of work until now This volume includes original essays that contextualize and analyze her works from a variety of perspectives focusing on her vexed status as a southern writer her use of the comic grotesque and her alleged feminist critiques of modern society Receiving special attention are lesser known plays which are crucial to understanding Henley's development as a playwright and postmodern thinker

Acting Now Edward Vilga, 1997 Those interviewed address artistic challenges in the real world the practical difficulties of a career and the ways the modern entertainment industry shapes an actor's artistic path

Lysistrata Aristophanes, 1991-08-01 Aristophanes great anti war drama with comedic overtones glorifies the power of fertility in the face of destruction Plays for Performance Series

Reimagining Greek Tragedy on the American Stage Helene P. Foley, 2014-06-26 This book explores the emergence of Greek tragedy on the American stage from the nineteenth century to the present Despite the gap separating the world of classical Greece from our own Greek tragedy has provided a fertile source for some of the most innovative American theater Helene P Foley shows how plays like Oedipus Rex and Medea have resonated deeply with contemporary concerns and controversies over war slavery race the status of women religion identity and immigration Although Greek tragedy was often initially embraced for its melodramatic possibilities by the twentieth century it became a vehicle not only for major developments in the history of American theater and dance but also for exploring critical tensions in American cultural and political life Drawing on a wide range of sources archival video interviews and reviews Reimagining Greek Tragedy on the American Stage provides the most comprehensive treatment of the subject available Performing Nostalgia Susan Bennett, 2013-11-05 In this trenchant work Susan Bennett examines the authority of the past in modern cultural experience and the parameters for the reproduction of the plays She addresses these issues from both the viewpoints of literary theory and theatre studies shifting Shakespeare out of straightforward performance studies in order to address questions about his plays and to consider them in the context of current theoretical debates on historiography post colonialism and canonicity

The Cherry Orchard Anton Chekhov, 1995-09-01 Chekhov's great tragicomic eulogy for a passing way of life is superbly adapted to make a powerful and beautifully playable drama Plays for Performance Series Vincent Van Gogh Philip Callow, 2023-11-14 Published on the hundredth anniversary of Van Gogh's death this is the first full length biography of this undying man in twenty years and surely the most comprehensive account to date Mr Callow treats more searchingly than any previous work the development of Van Gogh's genius and his emergence as an artist after early struggles to find a vocation first in the world of art dealing and later as an evangelical missionary among Belgian miners Using the skills and psychological insights of an accomplished novelist and drawing upon new Van Gogh materials which have surfaced in the last two decades Mr Callow sets a turbulent life story firmly in historical context including Vincent's desperate attempts to accept his repressive religious upbringing and his unhappy experiences in love The story is filled with paradoxes and crushing failures ending in suicide that was to lead to enormous posthumous success Through Mr Callow's book we can see Van Gogh's life and work in terms of tumult of a legend breaking out of the triumph and confusion of 19th century culture while representing it uniquely It is perhaps the story of a saint certainly a hero of art
