Vinton, Gertrude Barrows Bennett, Hugh Benson, 2023-11-19 DAWN OF THE APOCALYPSE gathers the pinnacle of speculative fiction to explore end times across diverse landscapes from the desolate to the dystopian. It stitches a rich tapestry of literary approaches ranging from the classic gothic horror of Edgar Allan Poe to the socio political dystopias envisioned by Ayn Rand and H G Wells and the unique utopian perspective of Edward Bellamy. The anthology thrives on its variety not just in the cataclysmic events it portrays but also in the myriad ways these events are perceived and interpreted by its characters. Key pieces within this collection stand as milestones in the science fiction genre framing apocalyptic and post apocalyptic narratives as lenses through which we critique and comprehend contemporary societal fears. The authors both pioneers and craftsmen of their time come from a broad spectrum of backgrounds each contributing to the anthology's overarching theme with their unique flavor of apocalypse. These writers are not just storytellers but visionaries who collectively paint a multifaceted picture of humanity at the brink. They belonged to and were influenced by a range of historical cultural and literary movements from the romanticism and transcendentalism of the 19th century to the early 20th century's modernism and the budding science fiction genre. Their combined works offer a historical capsule of societal anxieties and hopes reflecting on themes of human resilience, the abuse of technology and the moral dilemmas of progress. DAWN OF THE APOCALYPSE is an essential collection for readers eager to dive into the depths of human imagination faced with its own end. It offers an unparalleled opportunity to traverse the vast landscapes of apocalyptic fiction through the eyes of some of the most influential authors in literary history. This anthology not only serves as an academic goldmine for those studying the evolution of speculative fiction and its impact on society but also provides a timeless reflection on humanity's perennial concerns with its own survival and legacy. Readers are invited to witness the end of worlds not just as an exercise in literary exploration but as a mirror to our collective psyche across generations. The Essay Film Timothy Corrigan, 2011-08 Why have certain kinds of documentary and non-narrative films emerged as the most interesting, exciting, and provocative movies made in the last twenty years? Ranging from the films of Ross McElwee, Bright Leaves, and Agnès Varda, The Gleaners and I, to those of Abbas Kiarostami, Close Up, and Ari Folman, Waltz with Bashir, such films have intrigued viewers who, at the same time, have struggled to categorize them. Sometimes described as personal documentaries or diary films, these eclectic works are rather best understood as cinematic variations on the essay. So argues Tim Corrigan in this stimulating and necessary new book. Since Michel de Montaigne's essays have been seen as a lively literary category, and yet despite the work of pioneers like Chris Marker, seldom discussed as a cinematic tradition, The Essay Film, offering a thoughtful account of the long rapport between literature and film, as well as novel interpretations and theoretical models, provides the ideas that will change this.

The St. Louis Anthology Ryan Schuessler, 2019-06-04 A dazzling portrait of a Midwestern city whose relationships among socio-economics, religion, civil rights, and class are consistently complex. Kirkus: St. Louis is a fragmented place. It's physically dissected by rivers, highways, walls, and fences, but it's also a place where one's race, class, religion, and zip code may as well be cards in a rigged poker game where the losers face a dramatically shorter life expectancy. But despite these many divisions, St. Louis can also be a city of warmth, love, and beauty, especially in its contrasts. This collection features nearly seventy essays penned by St. Louis writers, journalists, clerics, poets, and activists, including Aisha Sultan, Galen Gritts, Vivian Gibson, Maja Sadikovic, Nartana
