Relations Of Ruling Class And Gender In Postindustrial Societies:

From Power Sharing to Democracy Sidney John Roderick Noel, Perspectives on Contemporary Professional Work Adrian Wilkinson, Donald Hislop, Christine Coupland, 2016-01-29 How is the world of professions and professional work changing This book offers both an overview of current debates surrounding the nature of professional work and the implications for change brought about by the managerialist agenda The relationships professionals have with their organizations are variable indeterminate and uncertain and there is still debate over the ways in which these should be characterized and theorized The contributors discuss these implications with topics including hybrid organizations and hybrid professionalism the changing nature of professional and managerial work profession and identity and the emergence of HRM as a new managerial profession This book will be of interest to academics and postgraduate students seeking a comparative study on contemporary professional work It will also be of use to a number of practitioners namely human resource managers looking for ways in which to approach the changing professional world Democracy, Citizenship and the Global City Engin F. Isin, 2013-04-15 Democracy Citizenship and the Global City focuses on the controversial neglected theme of citizenship It examines the changing role of citizens their rights obligations and responsibilities as members of nation states and the issue of accountability in a global society Using this interdisciplinary approach the book offers an innovative collection of work from Robert A Beauregard Anna Bounds Janine Brodie Richard Dagger Gerard Delanty Judith A Garber Robert J Holton Warren Magnusson Raymond Rocco Nikolas Rose Evelyn S Ruppert Saskia Sassen Bryan S Turner John Urry Gerda R Wekerle and Nira Yuval Davis It's a Working Man's Town Thomas William Dunk, 2003 In a valuable addition to the debate on the nature of contemporary working class culture Thomas Dunk shows that the function and meaning of gender ethnicity popular leisure activities and common sense knowledge are intimately linked with the way an individual's experience is structured by class After reviewing the principal theoretical problems relating to the study of working class culture and consciousness Dunk provides a detailed ethnographic analysis of the Boys the male working class subjects of this study Male working class culture he argues contains both the seeds of a radical response to social inequality and a defensive reaction against alternative social practices and ideas In a new forward Dunk contextualizes the original text with regard to the debates about class and masculinity that have occurred since the book was first published Education & Jobs D. W. Livingstone, 2009-01-01 Edited by one of the world's leading educational sociologists based on national survey data and close focus case studies this book makes a powerful case for new policy industrial and educational thinking Raewyn Connell University of Sydney Work in Tumultuous Times Vivian Shalla, Wallace Clement, 2007 Offering a critique of how social structures and relations as well as ideologies shape workplaces labour markets and households in contemporary Canada this work exposes the uncertainty insecurity and instability that characterise both paid and unpaid work It also proposes alternative policies and practices Eros and Alienation Alan Sears, 2025-01-20 Sears takes social reproduction feminism and queer Marxism in exciting new directions as he historicizes penetration and orgasms He expands the concept of alienated labor to all life making and founds a queer ecology foregrounding colonized racialized and disabled voices Peter Drucker author of Warped Meticulously outlines how capitalism shapes human intimacy A sweeping original analysis that challenges how we think about sexuality life making and building a better world Holly Lewis author of The Politics of Everybody A compelling argument on the pervasive alienation of capitalist society that truncates and distorts our capacities for creative expression love and human flourishing M E O'Brien author of Family Abolition Our deeply human drive to shape the world around us and fulfill ourselves through labor is subverted by capitalist alienation leaving us to find fulfillment elsewhere As a result our erotic drives become the central focus for transformation and life making but are themselves restricted and fueled by whatever energy is left after completing the monetized or social reproductive work required to survive This alienation encounters ongoing resistance as life making activity can never be fully separated from the person who labors Eros and Alienation delves into the underexplored relationship between alienated labor and sexuality Alan Sears explores the ways this alienation frames the processes of gender and sexual formation showing how the organization of work contributes to the development of a dominant regime of gendered sexualities defined by a binary gender mapping of desire as heterosexual homosexual or bisexual Alan Sears is Professor of Sociology at Toronto Metropolitan University He is an activist and author of several books including The Next New Left

The New African Diaspora in Vancouver Gillian Creese, 2011-08-13 The New African Diaspora in Vancouver documents the experiences of immigrants from countries in sub-Saharan Africa on Canada's west coast Despite their individual national origins many adopt new identities as African and are actively engaged in creating a new place based African community In this study Gillian Creese analyzes interviews with sixty one women and men from twenty one African countries to document the gendered and racialized processes of community building that occur in the contexts of marginalization and exclusion as they exist in Vancouver Creese reveals that the routine discounting of previous education by potential employers the demeaning of African accents and bodies by society at large cultural pressures to reshape gender relations and parenting practices and the absence of extended families often contribute to downward mobility for immigrants The New African Diaspora in Vancouver maps out how African immigrants negotiate these multiple dimensions of local exclusion while at the same time creating new spaces of belonging and emerging collective identity
