Relations With People Of Other Faiths Guidelines On Dialogue In Britain:

Towards a Theology for Inter-faith Dialogue, 1986 This is a joint publication with the Board of Mission which includes an essay by Bishop Michael Nazir Ali on interfaith dialogue in Pakistan Relations with People of Other Faiths British Council of Churches. Committee for Relations with People of Other Faiths, 1983 Modern Western Christian Theological Understandings of Muslims Since the Second Vatican Council Mahmut Aydin, 2002 Muslim-Christian Relations Ovev N. Mohammed, 2008-06-01 Methodists and their Missionary Societies 1900-1996 John Pritchard, 2016-04-22 The twentieth century saw the spectacular growth of Christianity in much of the global south the transformation of mission fields into self governing Churches schemes of church union some successful others abortive evolving attitudes to other faiths and significant Christian engagement with issues of racial justice and world poverty This book examines the contribution of the Methodist Missionary Society and its predecessors before 1932 to these world changing movements from the remarkable mass conversions in south west China and west Africa early in the century to the controversy over grants to liberation movements in the 1970s and 1980s Pritchard traces the MMS contribution to education health care rural development and social welfare and describes the administration of the Societies and the selection and preparation of candidates for missionary service This is a ground breaking study of Methodist Overseas Mission in the twentieth century how it adjusted to changing circumstances including the forced withdrawals from China and Burma and developed new initiatives and partnerships including its World Church in Britain programme which brought missionaries from the younger Churches to serve in Britain and Ireland 'Multi-faith Worship'? ,1992 In this text the Inter Faith Consultative Group discussed the various types of multi faith worship and considers the theological issues involved Search of Understanding Clinton Bennett, 2019-10-04 Clinton Bennett reflects on four decades of engagement with Muslims and Christian Muslim relations as a missionary scholar and interfaith activist Set in the context of his personal story chapters discuss a series of critical questions to the Christian Muslim relationship reprising earlier writing Bennett asks can Christians appreciate the prophet Muhammad as a genuine messenger from God or is this theological treason How might Christians respond to the Muslim claim that Jesus was a prophet and is not God incarnate Can Christians with integrity regard the Qur n as a word from God and is there any possibility of rapprochement on the issue of whether Jesus died on the cross Focusing on the United States Bennett also describes church sponsored Christian Muslim initiatives and offers suggestions on how Christians can rethink their ideas about Muslims and cooperate with them in peace and justice advocacy and social and community development Exploring some of the causes of Islamophobia Bennett set out to challenge Christians to keep the commandment not to bear false witness against their Muslim neighbors The Growth of Religious Diversity - Vol 2 Gerald Parsons, 2013-06-20 This is an extremely wide ranging text with good prospects in the A level market Bloomsbury Handbook to Studying Christians George D. Chryssides, Stephen E. Gregg, 2019-11-14 Drawing on a range of methodologies editors George D Chryssides and Stephen E Gregg shift attention from normative textual and doctrinal matters to issues of materiality and everyday life in Christianity This handbook is structured in four parts which include coverage of the following aspects of Christianity sacred space and objects cyber Christianity food prayer education family life fundamentalism and sexuality In addition issues of gender race and ethnicity are treated throughout The international team of contributors provide in depth analysis that highlight the current state of academic study in the field and explores areas in which future research might develop Clearly organised to help users quickly locate key information and analysis the book includes an A to Z of key terms extensive guides to further resources a comprehensive bibliography and a chronology of landmark events making it a unique resource to upper level students and researchers Christianity and Other Faiths in Britain Alastair G. Hunter, 1985 Fullness of Life for All, 2021-10-01 This important book is needed today The challenges that Christian churches face have changed immensely in the last quarter century. One of the central issues facing the churches everywhere in the world is their missionary presence in their nations and societies. The authors of this volume are among the world's leading missiological thinkers and represent major Christian traditions in Europe Africa and North America In this new century the Christian church faces new situations that include for example the fall of communism the globalization of culture cultural and religious minorities and multiple religious majorities in nearly every country ethnic and interreligious tensions relativism and individualism in Western culture the rise of a global impact of a postmodern world view poverty in poor countries and in urban areas in wealthy countries and the decline of Western cultural authority and with notable exceptions of religious authority generally This book speaks of ways in which Christian churches are seeking to respond to these challenges The purpose of this book is to describe some of the main challenges facing the churches in mission today particularly with reference to inter religious conversations all over the world The title of this volume has been derived from the theme of the 24th General Assembly of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches WARC at Accra in August Exploring New Religions George D. Chryssides, 1999-12-01 An 2004 whose theme is That All May Have Life in Fullness objective well researched history of contemporary new religions and cults New religious movements popularly known as cults arouse strong public opinion and most books on the subject are polemical giving hostile reaction rather than informed exploration Exploring New Religions provides an account of a wide variety of new religions focusing on their origins beliefs and practices which are set out in a dispassionate way leaving readers to form their own value judgements George Chryssides provides important analysis of the killer cults the Jonestown People's Temple Waco the Solar Temple and Heaven s Gate examining the factors that made their followers willing to die for their cause Older groups like the Jehovah s Witnesses and Latter day Saints Mormons are discussed and Chryssides traces the development of a variety of strands of spirituality ranging from New Thought Spiritualism and Theosophy Subsequent chapters include the Baha i the Family formerly Children of God the Hare Krishna movement ISKCON the Jesus Army the Rastafarians the Church of Scientology

Transcendental Meditation TM and the Unification Church the Moonies Lower profile groups are also discussed including EST Erhard Seminar Training the New Kadampa Tradition Brahma Kumaris Sai Baba Subud and the Western Buddhist Order A study of the New Age phenomenon and an account of societal responses to new religious at religious societal and political levels is also included From Everywhere to Everywhere Michael Nazir-Ali, 2009-10-01 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you Matt 28 19 20 The words of Christ's Great Commission are simple but the Christian responses have been marked by their extraordinary diversity For all the souls that have been saved many lives have been lost So what is Christian mission How did it start out and what can it bring to our pluralistic modern society and culture Michael Nazir Alii s book offers both a history and a theology It tells the story of mission in each of the major churches Oriental Eastern and Western before considering the practice of mission in a variety of contemporary contexts With a third section identifying ways in which mission can be expressed by Presence Identification Dialogue Action Evangelization and Unity From Everywhere to Everywhere is essential reading for all those who seek a truly global understanding of the Christian faith Interfaith Encounter and Dialogue Lynne Price, 1991 How is a Christian to think feel and act in relation to neighbours workmates and communities of Other Faiths The question demands personal institutional and theological responses This book demonstrates that these attitudes are equally important and interdependent It brings together an original survey of lay members of a church in a multifaith area of Birmingham England the relevant literature and statements of the Methodist Church in Britain and Methodist theology In making a pilgrimage we discover through both openness to the faith of others and commitment to Christ that relation dialogue and change are the means of our Christian response to life

Faith, Culture and the Dual System Bernadette O'Keeffe, 2017-11-01 Originally published in 1986 this book is based on research carried out in 102 County secondary and Church of England secondary and primary schools in London the North West Region and the West Midlands It analyses data collected from interviews with 102 headteachers 67 religious education teachers and 139 parents whose children were attending Church schools The book is divided into four main areas First it examines pupil admission policies illustrating their effect both with the schools and on the neighbourhood Second it outlines the policies and practices adopted by Church school governors in appointing teaching staff and discusses the implications of these policies The third area deals with school worship assemblies and religious education and their place in the life of the school The study highlights important issues and challenges facing schools especially where there is considerable religious diversity among pupils It discusses some of the difficulties of implementing the law relating to the daily act of worship and why some schools observe the law while others disregard it Key issues are explored which are central to the teaching of religious education How RE teachers respond to religious diversity why Christianity may or may not be given a central place in RE classes what parents and RE teachers hope RE classes will achieve for pupils by the time they leave school The fourth area focusses on multicultural education and illustrates the divergent views of headteachers on the aims purposes and relevance on multicultural education Community Identity Sebastian Kim, Pauline Kollontai, 2007-09-01 The understanding of identity in relation to community has been a focus of academic studies in recent years An exclusive self understanding of the identity of one s own community coupled with a hostile attitude toward other communities often leads to communal conflicts In particular it is important to notice the significance of religion in the re shaping of community identities in this process This volume focuses first on communal or corporate understanding of identity Secondly this volume will assess the topic of identity from the perspectives of theology and religious studies Thirdly the volume will seek to address the issue of interaction between religious communities and wider society by looking at case studies from the Yorkshire area Contemporary Catholic School Terence McLaughlin, Joseph O'Keefe, 2003-10-04 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Westminster Dictionary of Christian Theology Alan Richardson, John Bowden, 1983-01-01 The Westminter Dictionary of Christian Theology is an important reference for any pastor scholar or student of theology The articles are clearly written historically informative and conceptually clarifying The entries are arranged alphabetically for ease of use Christian Citizens in an Islamic State Theodore Gabriel, 2021-08-27 Christian Citizens in an Islamic State deals with the important question of inter faith relations in Pakistan a vital region of the Islamic world which has been the scene of the rise of both Islamic militancy and partnership with the West in counter terrorism measures Christians are the most important religious minority of Pakistan and their status and experience is a test case of the treatment of religious minorities in an Islamic state This book covers new ground in exploring the various factors that govern the relations between Muslims and Christians in a nation state which has been politically unstable in the past and where the imposition of Islamic law has been controversial and problematic for religious minorities Theodore Gabriel clarifies the history of Christian Muslim relations in the region explores the rise of Islamic militancy and draws on personal interviews to determine the mind set of both Christians and Muslims in Pakistan today Identity Crises and Indigenous Religious Traditions Elijah Obinna, 2017-02-10 This book highlights the complex identity crises among many Christians as they negotiate their new identities religious ideas and convictions as both Christians and members of Nigerian African societies of indigenous religious traditions and identities Through an interdisciplinary interpretation of religious practices and educational issues in teaching and ritual training the author provides tools to help analyse empirical cases These include the negotiation processes among Christians with focus on the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria PCN and members of the Ogo society within the Amasiri Afikpo North Local Government Area Ebonyi state in South eastern Nigeria Identifying the power dynamic identity role and influence of indigenous religions on Christians and the Ogo society this book reveals the limited interactions between many Christians and members of the Ogo society Questions explored include what makes the Ogo society an integral part of the socio religious life of Amasiri and what powers and identity does it confer on the initiates how is the PCN within Amasiri responding to the Ogo society through its religious practices such as baptism confirmation local auxiliary ministries and organisational structure and how does the understanding and application of conversion within the PCN impact on its members response to the Ogo society Demonstrating how complex religious identities and practices of Nigerian African Christians can balance mission influenced Christianity with indigenous religious traditions and identities this book recognises the importance of appropriating the powers of indigenous cultures ingenuity and creativity in the construction and preservation of community identities As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Christian theology indigenous religious practice and African lived religion
